No SYMBOLON in July!
Symbolon is usually held on the 1st Thursday of the month. Since that is Independence Day, the group will NOT meet in July. Next meeting, Thursday, August 1. All are welcome! Pray for our country and continued religious freedom.

Knights of Columbus Corporate Communion Mass:
June 30 at 8:00 a.m.

Members of Immaculate Conception’s council will be filling the roles of Lector, Eucharistic Ministers, Servers, and Greeters. All Knights and their families are encouraged to attend.

Have you noticed the wall hanging on the north wall in the front of church?
It is a reproduction on vinyl of the Shroud of Turin. The hanging was a gift to Monsignor, which he is sharing with the parish. Look closely from a distance (is that an oxymoron?) and see the lighter image of a crucified man.

Baby Bottles for Life Campaign has ended.
Please return your donations ASAP. Return any empty bottles you might have also, so that they can be used for future drives. Thank you for your support of the Olathe Pregnancy Center and the clients they serve!
Are You Interested in Learning More About the Catholic Church?

The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is the process through which the unbaptized and those baptized in other faith denominations join the Catholic Church. The first stage of the process is Inquiry. It’s a time to ask questions and decide if you want to delve further into the Catholic teachings.

RCIA classes begin in September.

Contact Monsignor Bergman, 913-837-2295, or Deacon George Karnaze, 913-533-2559, for more information.

Being God’s Co-Workers (linked to the Eucharist)

Christ’s real presence in the Eucharist is how He stays close to those, like us, who believe in Him.

But how does He stay close to those who don’t believe in Him?

How does He make His presence known to the people all around us who are searching for happiness in the wrong places?

He does it through us.

In the Eucharist He comes to dwell in us, and then we carry Him to others, through our example, words, and actions.

This is why the early Christians used to say that every Christian, every follower of Christ, was another Christ.

The Eucharist is the extraordinary food that makes this possible.

Ordinary food is absorbed by us and becomes part of our bodies.

But when we receive the Eucharist, it absorbs us; it makes us into more and more mature, living members of Christ’s body.

This is who we are: co-workers of God, created to put our talents at the service of building up His Kingdom.

If we live this mission energetically, it gives us the meaning and fruitfulness we yearn for.

Here’s how Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta put it: “Each of us is a co-worker of Christ - we must labor hard to carry Him to the hearts where He has not yet been known and loved. But, unless we have Jesus, we cannot give Him; that is why we need the Eucharist. Spend as much time as possible in front of the Blessed Sacrament and He will fill you with His strength and His power.”

When Jesus comes to us in Holy Communion, let’s thank Him for the great gift of His presence, promise to make even better use of it, renew our commitment to be faithful, Christ-filled co-workers of God.
