Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

SEPTEMBER 6, 2020

Ezekiel 33:7-9; Romans 13:8-10;
Matthew 18:15-20

Today and next Sunday, our Gospel selection is taken from the third of Jesus' five great sermons in Matthew, from the Sermon on the Church. This sermon tells of the relationships which should characterize members of the Church.

Today, the Lord tells us that we must be humble enough to offer fraternal correction privately. It is easy to gossip about another person's faults. But Christians are called to do something about them.

We must recognize our own frailty and failures, while at the same time pointing out another person's faults privately. If this does not work, then we take another person with us, but still we keep it private. If this fails, we submit the problem to the community of faith.

The reading concludes with the spiritual power of the community: Whatever it binds is bound. Whenever the community unites in prayer, the Lord will grant it. Wherever two or three are gathered in his name, he is with them.

The other two readings complement the Gospel. We are called to share in the prophetic ministry: this means that we must not keep silence, but must prudently warn others of sin. All this must be done in charity.

The second reading tells us that our only debt to each other must be the debt of loving. We must love our neighbor as ourselves.

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we begin using our new missalettes. Even though we cannot leave any of these in the pews because of the spread of the virus we nevertheless want to make them available to you to be taken home for your personal use. Please take them as they are in the Narthex of the Church. If you want to bring them each time you come to Church you may do so as long as you don't leave them. According to the regulations with regard to this virus, anything left in the pews must be discarded and thrown away. So if you bring a missalette for your own personal use during Mass, please take them home with you.

During the past months when we were forced to celebrate the Mass in virtual form, there was something always missing each weekend. Yes, we tuned in, listened to the Word of God, celebrated the Eucharist, and perhaps made our spiritual communions. But something was always missing. Besides receiving our Lord in the Eucharist, what was missing was our gathering together as a community. I think this is what Jesus was talking about in our Gospel for this weekend. He tells us "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." After reflecting upon this one sentence, I realized that besides receiving the Eucharist, we were also missing the Lord's presence in our midst when we gathered to celebrate this same Eucharist. And even though we are social distancing and wearing masks, nevertheless, the Lord is still present in our midst as we gather each weekend to celebrate together even though we are socially distant from each other.

Just to let you know that we are beginning our new RCIA process this next Tuesday, September 8, at 7:00 p.m. in the Martha Jane Room off the cafeteria. If you know of someone interested in learning more about the Catholic faith, or a spouse who has a lot of questions, or a neighbor who has shown an interest, please encourage them to call the rectory (222-3155) and register. This does not mean that they are obligated to do anything at this time. We would just like to have their names in order that we have enough books to distribute and to have an idea of how many people to expect. The first part of this process is the Inquiry stage and nothing is expected from them except their interest to learn. So if you know of someone, encourage them to call and register or perhaps you call and register yourself and them with you. Just as St. Andrew brought his brother to Peter, so this is one invite we can give to others bringing them to the Catholic Church.

This Monday, September 7, is Labor Day and a national holiday. God has blessed our country with the gift of labor, the very means that we have to take pride in our work, support our family and Church, and to help make our world and community a better place for all. Come and give thanks for this gift of labor at our 8:00 a.m. Mass.

Also for those interested, we are continuing our Masses at QND on Tuesday and Thursday of each week. The Mass time for these Masses, has changed from 7:00 to 6:45 a.m. Any visitors will have to be temperature screened at the entrance and are asked to wear a mask. Visitors are welcomed.

The School of St. Peter

Week of September 6, 2020

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

CREATIVE WAYS TO PARTICIPATE IN MUSIC CLASS

The students have been participating in music by going to class in the great outdoors. Mrs. Reeder holds class in the far end of the east parking lot. By having class outside the students are able to social distance from one another. Mrs. Reeder has been very creative in her lessons. The students are enjoying the opportunity to learn outside of the classroom.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN WORKING IN THE ST. PETER SCHOOL AFTERNOON DAY CARE?

St. Peter School is looking to hire 2 adult day care workers for our afternoon program. Those who are interested in applying, please contact Mrs. Loretta Goehl, Day Care Coordinator, at tomnrets71@comcast.net or 217-779-1429. This is a 10-15 hour per week position with times varying from 2:30-5:45 p.m. Duties include supervising/working with students after school in grades Preschool-8th who are enrolled in the program.

2020-2021 SPIRIT DAYS

Our first Spirit Day for the school year was Friday, September 4. With the abrupt ending of our school year last year, we were unable to have Spirit Days in April or May. This meant we fell short toward our goal for our Welcome Baskets donations for our neighbors within the Chaddock School system. We have decided that we truly want to make this goal so our Spirit Day donations this year will continue to be given to Chaddock School.

We are also continuing our theme of "Unity" this school year. By reaching out and supporting our neighboring school we hope to help bring unity within our community. This is also a Parish-wide unity effort as our Parish Stewardship Committees work with Chaddock in several different areas.

We always like families to know why we reach out to our selected Spirit Day recipients so here is a little information on our school neighbors. Within the Chaddock School System, they have children that become residents and live on campus. These children are given a Welcome Basket as they enter to help them transition and become comfortable. These baskets contain items needed for daily routines - sheets, blankets, pillows, toiletries, etc. The cost to put the Welcome Baskets together is $50.00. So far, we have raised $1,905 for a total of 38 Welcome Baskets. We would like to set our challenge this year to provide 40 more baskets to them.

We thank you for your support and loving unity within our St. Peter family to help bring a little extra care and comfort to our friends at Chaddock School.

Fr. Leo's column continued....

This Tuesday, September 8, is the celebration by the Church of the birth of Mary. The Church is very consistent in its liturgy as this feast is nine months after December 8, the day that the Church celebrates her conception, namely the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception. So on Tuesday, send a special birthday prayer to Mary. Hail Mary, full of Grace, pray for us now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

We are going to re-introduce a moderate amount of congregational singing at our weekend liturgies. We will be putting the words on the screens since we must continue paperless liturgies. In this congregational singing we ask that you keep wearing your masks and do your best to participate with singing.

This Wednesday, September 9, we will have our opening Mass for all of our PSR students and their families. This Mass will be at 6:30 p.m. in the Church. The first regular class will be the following Wednesday, September 16, from 6:15-7:30 p.m. in the grade school.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A teacher in high school who was well known for her difficult tests, included a huge amount of material on her midterm exams. As tension in the room built, the young students were sighing and gasping aloud.

The following week, the teacher tossed the graded papers on her desk and announced that last week's test was a spiritual experience for her. She said, "Class, after I left here last week, the Lord spoke to me. He said, 'Thanks teacher. I haven't heard from those young students in years!'"

Office of the Bishop

September 2020

Dear Friends in Christ,

The current COVID-19 pandemic concerns many countries and in many of them preventative measures precluded the normal celebration of Holy Week in which the Holy Land collection is normally received.

The Christian communities in the Holy Land, also exposed to the risk of contagion and living in contexts already full of serious sufferings, benefit every year from the generosity of the faithful from all over the world. This solidarity enables them to continue their evangelical presence, in addition to maintaining schools and social structures that assist all citizens with healthcare, education, and peaceful coexistence, attending above all to the weakest and poorest.

For this reason, Pope Francis has approved the collection for the Holy Land, for the year 2020, take place on Sunday, September 13, near the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross.

The celebration that commemorates the discovery of the Relics of the Cross by Saint Helen also marks a new beginning of public worship in Jerusalem, with the construction of the Basilica of the Holy Sepulchre. May it be a sign of hope and salvation after the Passion to which many people are now associated, as well as solidarity with those who continue to live the Gospel of Jesus on the Land where "it all began."

I am writing to ask for your financial support of this collection as an act of mercy and charity. I know that I can count on your generosity. Please help support our brothers and sisters in the Holy Land.

Thank you, and may God bless you abundantly.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois

The Holy Land Envelopes were in your April envelope packets. If you do not have an envelope for the Holy Land please mark any envelope or your check memo to state the contribution is for the Holy Land.

New Technology and Communication Ministry

We are starting a new ministry at St. Peter that will be called Technology and Communication. We are looking for young and old alike who may see technology as their strength and can utilize their talent for the parish. Volunteers Needed To Serve Lunch

WHEN CAN WE SING AGAIN?

It is good news indeed that our local COVID numbers are going the right direction. Proceeding with caution, we feel that we can re-introduce a moderate amount of congregational singing to our weekend liturgies at St. Peter's. We are a singing people, so we hope this is welcome news! As always, our primary concern is the health and safety of our parishioners. We would never want someone in our parish to become ill due to any practices that we implement, so we are making plans thoughtfully, moving forward. IN ORDER TO PARTICIPATE IN THE CONGREGATIONAL SINGING, YOU MUST WEAR YOUR MASK. This is not the most comfortable way to sing, but it is the only safe way to proceed. As always, we rely on our ushers to keep family groups and singles separated at a distance of 6 feet for everyone's safety, especially since we are re-introducing singing to our liturgies.

We will continue with "paperless" liturgy and will use our screens on the weekends. We hope you find this accessible and are able to see the screens comfortably. As always, if you have questions or concerns, I am happy to hear from you! I can be reached at m.scholz@cospq.org.

Mass Sign-Ups

On weekend Masses, there will be 175 online sign-ups and 25 sign-ups available in the Narthex for each Mass. We will resume with our regular Mass schedule. Any slots left in the Narthex by 12:00 p.m. on Friday will be transferred to the online sign-up. You can find the sign-up on our website www.cospq.org. We will try to have this available on Wednesdays by noon.

There will not be sign-ups for the daily morning Masses and they will resume with the regular scheduled times.

Social Concerns Collection

Social Concerns is collecting canned chicken, tuna, mac & cheese, peanut butter, canned fruit. this weekend, September 5-6 for the 1st Sunday collection for the Ladies of Charity. Containers will be located in the Narthex. Thank you!
