A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

Year B of the cycle of readings mostly consist of readings from the Gospel of Mark. But during the year we have a number of interruptions from the Gospel of John. This is one such week. Here we hear John the Baptist proclaim, “Behold the Lamb of God!” With this, the disciples who had been following John, seemingly left him without any further word and started following the Lord. Sensing these new disciples, the Lord turned to them and asked them what they wanted. What a divine offer... to have the Son of God ask them what they might desire or what they are looking for. How they might have answered seeking wisdom or riches or power, but instead they ask, humbly, “Where are you staying?” The response: “Come and see”. This invitation belongs to the disciples who left everything in faith to follow the Lord, but in reality, it is offered to anyone who sits down to read and receive the Word of the Lord. What do you seek? Where does he stay? What is his mission? The answer: “Come and see” and you will be amazed. You will be fulfilled. You will find it is what you are looking for. We begin at the beginning of the story yet again at the beginning of 2021, reading the Gospel week by week that we may immerse ourselves even more deeply in the mystery and the promise of God’s presence among us.

In December, Bishop Paprocki issued an Instruction on the Custom of Blessings During Holy Communion to the clergy of the diocese, regarding the pious custom of offering blessings to those (children, non-Catholics, and others) who present themselves in the Communion Procession without the intention of receiving Holy Communion. Typically, people appear before the minister of Holy Communion with their hands crossed over their chest, to signify they are not receiving.

Bishop Paprocki has been concerned about this issue for a while now, having asked Roman authorities on several occasions about the legitimacy of this practice. These authorities have deferred to the bishop in his role as the standard keeper for the liturgy in our diocese to rule as he sees fit in this matter. The instruction, decreed on December 1, made effective on January 1, is instructing priest, deacons, and other ministers of Holy Communion, that “no blessing is to be given at this time [Holy Communion]... [t]he entire congregation is blessed by the priest at the end of Mass just prior to the dismissal.” Further, no minister of Communion “shall extend a hand or touch the head or make a sign of the cross on or over someone in the Communion procession.”

It is suggested that those who are not receiving Holy Communion to remain in their place while the faithful form the procession to the altar to receive. An exception is, of course, made for small children who need parental attention, but they will not receive a blessing this time. They should be instructed to receive the blessing at the end of Mass. Further, those who are not receiving Holy Communion are invited to make an act of “Spiritual Communion” which might include a prayer, such as the one that follows: (This is also a great prayer if at home by TV)

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you in my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

There will be some habits that will have to be changed in order to observe this instruction given by the bishop. I expect that there will be catechetical materials available to further explain this instruction, which we will publish when it becomes available. I will make the text of the actual instruction available on our website at www.stanthonypadua.org

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

Disciples of Christ Experience Holy Moments

Our School Board and staff have a 5-year vision statement that begins with, “St. Dominic School will provide our students with learning opportunities to become the BEST person God created them to be.” Each of our goals align with the acronym BEST; therefore, B stands for “Become servant leaders as Disciples of Christ.” This year we plan to achieve this goal by completing the following two tasks. (1) Each class will lead morning assemblies about one Catholic Saint as a Holy Hero noticing the Holy Moments in their lives. (2) Each class will take on one “in-house” service project. This month, our 5th grade students and their teacher, Mrs. Ellerman, have learned that to be a disciple of Christ, it means they are a good steward of the knowledge that has been gifted by God, sharing it with others. Often, we find ourselves in circumstances where we could share our knowledge of the Lord. Yet, we hold back. We cannot allow opportunities to share our faith pass us. Our journey as disciples of Christ is an ongoing adventure filled with Holy Moments. While on this journey, we can listen to God’s voice in our lives, choose to be good stewards of what He has gifted us, and do what He calls us to do. The Lord will respond with, “Come, and you will see!”

Postponement of January Session of Grief Share

After serious consideration we have decided to postpone the Grief Share session which was to start January 7. We plan to reschedule later in 2021 just as soon as it is judged safe to do so. This was a hard choice, as each team member knows of persons struggling with grief and that there are others who we do not know who are looking forward to this session. We want to protect our participants and our devoted team. In the meantime, please reach out to team members. Our community is blessed with a wealth of counseling services if you feel the need for help. You are also welcome to contact Deacon Harry, Cindy Cramer, Jim Liesen or other team members with questions and for resources. While we are not counselors, we can give you ideas on resources that are available. Thank you.

Yearly Contribution Statements

If you are needing a contribution statement for 2020 from St. Anthony Church, please contact the Parish Office, 222-5996, to request a statement. These will only be printed upon request.

First Reconciliation Meeting

Due to COVID, there will not be the group meeting we usually hold, but Mrs. Nytes will be communicating the information through letters and email.

Question: So, what is the story about the moral implications of taking the COVID-19 vaccine? Have aborted human fetal cells been used in the design and manufacture of the vaccine?

Fr. Tom Replies: In classic moral theology, it is considered morally illicit to participate in the evil being perpetrated by another. For instance, one would be directly contributing the crime of a person who robbed a bank, if he or she were to drive a getaway car, or otherwise enabled or encouraged the perpetrator in the commission of the crime. On the other hand, one would be contributing to the crime only indirectly if you were the mechanic replacing the tires on the car a week before the robbery. Presuming you didn't know of the intended crime, you would be innocent of blame or of any moral fault in the evil to be perpetrated.

In the case of vaccines, medicines, and even surgical procedures, we are in an age where it is becoming increasingly important to be aware of the moral implications of medical interventions. Catholics of good conscience understand that we have a duty to promote and encourage drug manufacturers to use the most ethical of means to produce their medicines, refusing to receive products produced from the use of aborted human fetal cell lines. However, while many vaccines avoid using human cell lines for the production of 'biological products', most of the vaccines in production today have had at least some exposure to incidental testing using human cell lines. That being said, COVID-19 is a very serious disease which needs to be eradicated... a good in itself. Can we accept a vaccine or another treatment which has been generated through any level of use of unethical means? Of the vaccines which have been approved thus far, those manufactured by Pfizer and Moderna have not used cell lines derived from abortions in the manufacture of their vaccines. Both vaccines have used cell lines in incidental testing to demonstrate safety. While this is not good, it is extremely remote in its participation in the evil of abortion. Indeed, the vaccines could have been produced without the testing. There is a greater present good of promoting and protecting health produces a positive "double effect" can be cited as a sufficient intention to avoid evil and achieve a greater good. However, the Church also does recognize the right of individuals to refuse the vaccine on these grounds. This is a complicated issue which I hope to address further in the coming weeks, and also in the light of the upcoming March for Life.
