Third Sunday of Lent

Exodus 20:1-17 or Exodus 20: 1-3, 7-8, 12-17; 1 Corinthians 1:22-25; John 2:13-25

[There are alternate Biblical texts that may be used for the first and second readings.]

It would be a wonderful world if everyone kept the Ten Commandments! In the first reading, God gives the commandments to Moses. If everyone kept the commandments, there would be no crime. There would be no illegitimate or unwanted children. There would be no theft or murder or dishonesty. There would be respect among all peoples.

If everyone kept the commandments, we would be truly wise. The second reading tells us, however, that true wisdom goes beyond the commandments. True wisdom is to accept Jesus Christ as Lord over every aspect of our lives.

A lot of “sophisticated” people (the “Greeks” of the second reading) look for a secular philosophy or another wisdom. Some of us are like the Pharisees or Jews of old: We want to see signs and wonders or we won’t believe! But we have true wisdom if we are loyal to Jesus Christ even in his cross. The wisdom of God is wiser than that of any human genius.

In the Gospel, Jesus angrily drives the money changers out of the temple. He calls for a spirit of prayer, and not for a lot of buying and selling and “doing things” in the name of religion.

How genuine is our faith? Do we just “go through the motions?” Do we truly keep God’s commandments? Do we think that we shall somehow find wisdom elsewhere? Let us renew our loyalty to the Lord.

Today, we celebrate the first of three Scrutinies with our Elect. In the ancient Church, the Scrutinies were tests which catechumens had to pass before they were judged worthy to be baptized. Nowadays, they are simply prayers for the Elect. But we might ask ourselves if we could pass the Lord’s test in order to be a member of his people!

Third Sunday of Lent, March 7, 2021

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate the Third Sunday in our season of Lent. This Sunday, according to the Rite for Christian Initiation of Adults, celebrates the first of three Scrutinies. In the early Church, the Scrutinies were tests which the Catechumens (the Elect or non-baptized) had to pass before they were advanced toward baptism. Thankfully, our Elect no longer have to pass these tests. Instead, they are simply prayers over the Catechumens. But it would be interesting to see how much we know about our own Catholic faith in a series of tests in order to renew our baptismal promises at Easter. Again, we can be relieved that there are no tests and our faith is not dependent upon right answers but rather on our living out daily our faith in the midst of struggles and crosses.

According to the ritual of the RCIA with regard to Scrutinies, these prayers are based upon and reflect the readings from Cycle A of our three year cycle of readings. Since we are in Cycle B of this three year cycle, we will only use the cycle A readings for the 9:30 a.m. Mass in which the Scrutinies will be celebrated. This means a little more work on the homilist since he will be having both the 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. Masses which will have two differing sets of readings. Oh well, for those who think priests work only on Sundays, this will only be an additional homily to which we must prepare.

I want our parishioners to note that there are variety of scams taking place in our Quincy area. I don't know about you, but I've been told that I won several millions of dollars in the Publishers Clearinghouse Sweepstakes. All I had to do was to send them money. Please, if it sounds too good to be true, IT IS. And yet that is what people are peddling. We also have people say that they are from the Social Security agency, calling especially our elderly population, to get information from them like their social security numbers. From these differing scams to the one concerning the warranty on my car, I have been plagued by an onslaught of deceptive people, fraudulent people, who will do anything and say anything to increase their riches. I am hoping and praying that you take heed of these scams as they will say anything in order to cheat you from your money. Another recent practice involves our bulletin advertisers. I ask our advertisers to please look closely at their bills received for advertising in our bulletins. All bills will have Sunday Missal Service letterhead on them. If you receive anything from LocalCatholicChurches.com, please ignore it. That is not advertising for our Church and bulletin.

We will have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in Church from Noon to 6:00 p.m. on Sundays during Lent. Anyone is welcome to be present in front of the Blessed Sacrament during this time period. We are having people sign-up only to make sure that each hour is filled by an Adorer. As we did last weekend, we will end our day of Adoration with the Stations of the Cross at 5:30 p.m. Please join us as we hunger to return the Eucharist to a full house of parishioners.

Also, I remind you of our weeknight Masses at 6:30 p.m. with individual Confessions being heard each weeknight from 5:45-6:15 p.m. Then on Thursdays after Mass, Bishop Barron will enlighten us with his sacraments talk.

Fr. Leo's column continued....

This weekend, we celebrate what has been designated as QND Commitment Weekend. Some of our QND students will be speaking at all of our Masses, thanking us for our support and dedication to the mission of Quincy Notre Dame High School. In a day and age in which our culture is trying to remove God from all walks of life, it is important to have our Catholic institutions promoting, supporting, and encouraging the faith experience of our young people. QND is a gift to our community and I ask you to support it through this annual collection. Recently each of you as a parishioner of St. Peter Church received a letter from me asking you to give a gift to support this Catholic educational experience. Please remember our Catholic High School with your prayers and treasures. Your treasures can be placed in our collection basket or mailed directly to QND. Please see the bulletin for further details. Also, I ask your prayers for our senior class members who will be on a mini-retreat this Friday, March 12. May God enlighten their minds and strengthen their wills as they know, love and serve Him in this world.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: Our pastor says Mass in our convent each morning and then remains for breakfast with the Sisters. One morning he had an appointment immediately after Mass and so, just before the final words of the liturgy, he announced, "I won't be staying for breakfast this morning."

Sister Carmen, somewhat deaf, answered loud and clear, "Thanks be to God!"

Office of the Bishop

March, 2021

Soon our diocese will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection. Your support of this collection serves Jesus in the guise of the poor and vulnerable in some of the most marginalized communities in our world.

Sailors, fishers, harbor workers, and their families have unique pastoral needs because of mariners' long periods away from home. In addition to access to the Mass and sacraments on ships, seafarers also need hospitality and pastoral care in port cities as well as assistance with errands such as shopping and medical appointments. For the past hundred years, Stella Maris – also called Apostleship of the Sea – has ministered to the pastoral needs of mariners through chaplaincies and centers in port cities. This apostleship currently serves the community with more than 100 chaplains and lay ministers in 48 ports across the United States.

In November 2019, 21 bishops, 11 apostleship chaplains, and lay ministers and staff from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Subcommittee on Pastoral Care of Migrants, Refugees, and Travelers (PCMRT) gathered to discuss the experiences and challenges of chaplains and how best to take on the challenges of maritime ministry. They invited bishops to engage in efforts to raise awareness of the Apostleship of the Sea in their own dioceses. By gathering chaplains with bishops, the apostleship can address challenges in the maritime world and continue to meet the needs of mariners.

Apostleship of the Sea is one of the PCMRT ministries funded through The Catholic Relief Services Collection. When you give, you help to support this valuable ministry.

Your support of this collection makes a difference for so many around the globe. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the collection this year. To learn more about the collection and the people who benefit, please visit www.usccb.org/catholic-relief.

Thank you for your generous support of The Catholic Relief Services Collection.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois

QND Commitment Weekend is March 6 and 7

All parishioners should have or will be receiving a letter and pledge card to consider a gift to support the students of Quincy Notre Dame. Students will speak this weekend at all Masses to share their gratitude for the opportunity to continue their Catholic education in high school. Gifts and pledge cards will be accepted at Masses during Commitment Weekend. Contributions can be placed in the offertory or mailed directly to QND, PO Box 1014, Quincy, IL 62306. Gifts support QND's 44th Fund Drive, which bridges the gap between the cost to educate and the tuition charged to families. To learn more about QND, visit www.quincynotredame.org. Thank you for your consideration!

Rice Bowls

What is CRS Rice Bowl? CRS Rice Bowl is a Catholic Relief Services' Lenten faith-in-action program. It offers opportunities for your family to engage daily with the spiritual pillars of Lent: prayer, fasting and almsgiving. And it's an opportunity for our parish/school to come together as a community and practice the works of mercy with our neighbors and our brothers and sisters around the world. Please pick up your family's Rice Bowl and join thousands of other Catholic communities across the United States, in this lifechanging Lenten journey. Bowls will be collected April 10 and 11 – the weekend after Easter. You can return the money in an envelope, with your name on it, and mark it Rice Bowl. If you return the rice bowl itself, please add your name on it and tape it closed.

Catholic Cemetery Clean-Up

Calvary, St. Boniface and St. Peter's Cemeteries 2021 clean-up will be held March 15-19. You must have everything off the graves by Sunday, March 14, as clean-up will start early on March 15. You may leave the Shepherds' hooks, but clean-up is a good time to take them home and repaint them. Also, if they are rusting you don't want the stone damaged due to the rust dripping on the stone. Please mark your flowers with the name on the stone and your contact number so if they come off there is a better chance of having them returned to the right spot. Markings should be weather proof if possible.

Greenmount Cemetery Cleanup

Greenmount Cemetery will have the annual clean-up of the cemetery grounds from March 15-19. We ask families to remove all items by March 14 and not to replace them until March 20. This is a complete cleanup – everything must be removed, except for the Shepherds' hooks/staffs, but all items need to be removed from the hooks.
