Third Sunday of Easter

APRIL 18, 2021

Acts 3:13-15,17-19; 1 John 2:1-5a;
Luke 24:35-48

Two key words are found in each of today's three Scripture readings: sin and forgiveness. The last sentence of the first reading is: "Reform your lives...that your sins may be wiped away." The second reading tells us that Jesus is "an offering for our sins and for those of the whole world." The last sentence of the Gospel is: "In his (Jesus') name penance for the remission of sins is to be preached to all the nations...."

Sin is real. It is not merely a social maladjustment. It is not merely dysfunction. Sin is a willful offense against God. Usually we offend God by offending other people; we rarely attack God directly. When we offend one of God's children, we slap God in the face; we offend him. Jesus said that what we do to others, we do to him; and what we neglect to do to others, we neglect to do to him.

We can never "make up for" sin. We can apologize to others and make it right with them, but we cannot make up for our offense against God. But just as there is sin, so also there is forgiveness. Our sins can only be forgiven because of the saving suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ! He gave himself in order that we might be forgiven.

If we are grateful for his gift of salvation, we must turn away from sin. We must do all in our power to avoid sin. We must strive to "make it right" with those whom we have offended. There is no forgiveness without a genuine plan to avoid sin for the future.

Let us be grateful for the salvation which Jesus has brought to us. Let us be willing to humble ourselves to face our sins honestly. Let us be confident that we can have forgiveness because of the Lord's mercy – if only we seek to change our ways.

Third Sunday of Easter, April 18, 2021

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate the Third Sunday of Easter. In our Gospel reading we have the risen Christ once again appearing to His disciples. Of course His first words are always, “Peace be with you.” As this Gospel relates, “They were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost.” His appearance in a risen body was something beyond their grasp and understanding. It was a miracle beyond their comprehension. I can understand why they were terrified and startled and even thought they were seeing a ghost. What other rational explanation could be given? Again, this was beyond anything that they had ever experienced let alone understood. And this is when Jesus calms them and invites them “to touch Him and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have.” With so much of our learning coming from our senses, we also know that these senses can fool us. Sight and hearing can be deceptive; but touch is the sense of certitude for all of us as it was for the apostles. Then while they were “still incredulous for joy and amazed, He asked them for something to eat.” Once again, this became a proof of the resurrection and thus became their initiation as witnesses to the resurrection of Jesus.

This next paragraph, I want to air some frustrations. Ever since the pandemic we have tried to follow the guidelines that have been given to us concerning protecting ourselves and our community from spreading the virus. I have heard from parishioners about their fear of this virus and demanded that I demand parishioners to wear masks. I have heard also from other parishioners who have stated that they will not be coming to Church if they have to wear masks. Others had left the Church to attend other Catholic Churches who might be more relaxed in wearing masks. Throughout it all, I have tried to do what I thought was right for those who are gathering to celebrate our Eucharist. I never demanded masks, but I encouraged for the sake of others to wear them. Personally, I will look forward to the day that we can return to normalcy, namely, worshipping together free of all facial coverings. Until that time, I am sorry that some of our parishioners have taken a leave of absence from the parish because of my request to wear a mask. I am also sorry to have lost other parishioners who have decided to leave the Church altogether because of our response to how we dealt with this virus. Whatever the case, I have been placed in a frustrating position as I realize our Church is far from perfect, is continually in need of forgiveness, and no one has all the answers. We just pray that we are open to God’s direction in all of our lives because He’s the only one to provide any certainty in life.

This Sunday, I want to congratulate our Third Graders who will be receiving their First Holy Communion and Confirmation at two separate Masses, 1:00 and 4:00 p.m. I have been granted this privilege which in the future will be celebrated at the Cathedral with the Bishop. I ask you to pray for these young people as they complete their Rites of Initiation in the Catholic Church with the celebration of these two sacraments. The next two Sunday afternoons, our 8th grade classes will be celebrating their Confirmation at Masses at 1:00 p.m. As a parish family, I ask you to keep them all in your prayers. Special thanks to their teachers and parents who have assisted them in their preparation.

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

SERVING OUR COMMUNITY

St. Peter School students made 'lap' blankets for our Veterans who are living at the Veteran's Home. These blankets will be used to help cover their laps while they are sitting in a chair or if they are in a wheelchair. We hope that this brought them happiness during the Easter season.

SCIENCE OBSERVATIONS

Students in Mrs. Erd's 5th grade homeroom observe and draw crickets as part of their animal interaction lesson.

Stay tuned for next week to see pictures of the students with green anoles (chameleons.)

Fr. Leo's column continued....

This weekend, there will be people present in the Narthex selling raffle tickets for the "Everybody Wins Mega Raffle." I ask you to support their efforts if you are able by purchasing a ticket for $100. Please consult the bulletin for details on the various winning prizes. One thing I do know is that our students all benefit from this raffle as the proceeds go to help keep our tuition affordable.

I'm still looking for a parish nurse or its equivalent to help in a special ministry in our parish family. If you know of someone interested in working with the elderly, the bereaved, the sick, please give me a call and we can discuss this ministry further.

If you haven't yet turned in your rice bowls, that money collected from your self discipline this Lent, please either put a check in the collection with that amount or deposit the rice bowl itself in the special container located before the altar. Thank you in advance.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A good and pious man fell on hard times. As he was saying his prayers one night, he asked God to let him win the state lottery in exchange for his long years of devout service.

The next day, he was optimistic, but after nothing happened, he pleaded his cause in prayer once again. Still God was silent.

Finally, the man got down in his knees and complained, "Why don't you give me a break?"

Suddenly the voice of the Almighty was heard, "Why don't you give me a break? At least buy a ticket."

Office of the Bishop

April, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In their 2000 pastoral letter Responsibility, Rehabilitation, and Restoration, the bishops of the United States called the faithful to embrace an approach to criminal justice that takes into account the dignity of crime victims and their families, communities, and offenders.

The Catholic Home Missions-funded Diocese of Santa Rosa is answering this call for an approach that upholds justice and healing in its six counties of northwestern California, stretching from Napa in the south along the coastline to the Oregon border. The Diocese's Catholic Restorative Justice Ministries program (www.restorejusticesantarosa.org) works to fulfill the bishops' vision through various activities that include support for inmates reentering society, as well as pastoral ministries for crime victims and their families, justice system personnel, and inmates. The program's broad range of goals are being implemented, expanded, and refined yearly with financial assistance from the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. When you participate in the appeal, you join in the Church's healing mission of mercy to all.

Your support of this appeal makes a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters right here in the United States. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the appeal this year. To learn more about the appeal and those who benefit from it, visit www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Thank you for strengthening the Church at home.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois
