Fifth Sunday of Easter

MAY 2, 2021

Acts 9:26-31; 1 John 3:18-24;

John 15:1-8

The Church should be a community of faith and love. The community should make use of all the talents and abilities of its members. But often converts find it otherwise.

Converts may have great abilities which are never used. They can easily become discouraged because they can't seem to "break in" to the community. Perhaps today's Mass might be a lesson in maturity for us all.

St. Paul was highly educated; he was zealous; he had tremendous abilities. Yet, after his conversion, the Church was suspicious of him. The community wondered if he really was converted, or was he a spy?

The apostles sent him off to Tarsus where he remained in seclusion for more than ten years! What a waste of talent. But all that time, Paul was building up the Church by his prayer and virtue, even though he could not build it up by his external witness.

The second reading tells us to love in deed and not merely in word. We often talk a good game of community and stewardship. But our faith is shown by what we do. If our talents are not used immediately, let us still please God in every way we can. We know that we are keeping his commandments by our peace of soul.

Jesus is the vine; we are his branches. All grace and virtue comes from him. Regardless of any other "branch" on the Christ vine, let us remain united with him. Let us seek to reflect his glory in all we do. He promises that whatever we ask in his name, he will do. Let us place our gifts and talents at his service.

Fifth Sunday of Easter, May 2, 2021

Dear Parishioners,

First of May has finally arrived. After a year of uncertainties with the pandemic, after a year of mixed messages with regard to this same virus, I am hoping that this new month brings warmer weather and a little less stress and perhaps a little more normalcy in all that we do. It has been a long year. Even though the virus is still a concern, and we still need to be cautious in what we do, I just hope and pray that we begin to live again and not be so consumed that we are paralyzed in everything we do.

This weekend we celebrate the 5th Sunday of Easter. I am always amazed at the workings of our God in the past, present, and future of the Church. I am more convinced than ever that He is still in charge, we just haven't figured that out in our lives. In the time of the apostles, as we hear in our first reading, they had experienced persecution which drove them out of their comfort zone in Jerusalem. When this happened, they recognized that the Good News was being accepted by the non-Jewish people, namely, the Gentiles. Again, the hand of God being revealed to them. Even though they were suspect of this man called Saul, especially since he was so much a part of the persecution of the Church, nevertheless, God called them to include him in the apostolate to the Gentiles. And they did even though they were reluctant for fear. Remarkable things started happening as they put aside their fears and anxieties and trusted in the Lord who was still guiding the Church. And we hear the final sentence of our reading which says so much: "The church throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria, was at peace. It was being built up and walked in the fear of the Lord, and with the consolation of the Holy Spirit it grew in numbers." My hope and prayer, my brothers and sisters, is that the same can be said of us, as we trust in the Lord and let Him guide and direct our lives as He always does.

On behalf of the parish family of St. Peter, I want to congratulate Fr. Pawel Luczak who was ordained to the priesthood on May 2, 2020. Hopefully after being with us for one whole year, he remains steadfast in his vocation to serve the Lord here in St. Peter Church, Quincy. Congratulations!

This Sunday, at 1:00 p.m., we will be celebrating Mass in which we will celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation for our 8th graders of the parish. As always, I ask you to pray for them as they allow the gift of the Spirit to be their "consolation," as our first reading stated, and be guided by His presence in all that they will say and do. It is also important that we realize that there are so many people who lead and direct our young people to this day. And so I want to thank first, their parents, who are to be the first teachers of their children in the ways of faith. Second, I want to acknowledge and thank Gina Berman, our DRE, Amanda Martin, Tom VanderBor, and Deacon Jeff Wolf. These are the teachers for our 8th graders. But I also want to thank our teachers who were with their students in celebrating not only Confirmation but also First Communion the last two weeks. Besides the parents and Gina Berman, I want to thank Cindy Brown, Pam Hagerbaumer, and Sandy Gallaher. I also thank our parish family who continue to support our efforts in educating our young people in the Catholic faith.

Fr. Leo's column continued....

There is still time to purchase your "Everybody Wins Mega Raffle Ticket." The drawing will be held at the St. Francis Parish Picnic on Saturday, June 12. Please consult the bulletin on further details.

I ask you to remember in your prayers, Fr. Raja, a priest from India, who served as parochial vicar here at St. Peter for two years. The people of India are struggling with this pandemic and need our prayers. We need to remember also our sister parish in Haiti and Fr. Delix who are struggling with poverty, hunger, and internal strife within the government.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: Now that the weather is better, I thought I would share the best remarks by golf caddies:

Golfer: Think I'm going to drown myself in the lake.

Caddie: Think you can keep your head down that long.

Golfer: Do you think I can get there with a 5 iron?

Caddie: Eventually.

Golfer: Do you think my game is improving?

Caddie: Yes sir, you miss the ball much closer now.

Golfer: This is the worst course I've every played on.

Caddie: This isn't the golf course. We left that an hour ago.

Golfer: That can't be my ball, its too old.

Caddie: It's been a long time since we teed off, sir.

Golfer: Do you think it's a sin to play on Sunday?

Caddie: The way you play, it's a sin on any day.

Golfer: How do you like my game?

Caddie: Very good sir, but personally I prefer golf. Magy. Leo J. Embor
