Mother's Day May 9 was the kickoff for Care Net Pregnancy Services Annual Baby Bottle Blitz. Care Net is a crisis pregnancy center that offers free services to women, men, and their families who are facing unplanned pregnancy. There is currently legislation in the Illinois house to repeal the Parental Notification Act, that requires a parent or legal guardian to be notified when a minor under age 18 seeks an abortion. There was an article in the Catholic Times April 4, 2021 explaining the attempt to repeal this law and where it will lead. Please contact your state lawmaker, who for most of us would be Jill Tracy, and ask her to vote "No" to legislation that would repeal Illinois' Parental Notification Law.

St. Thomas Vacation Bible School - Planning is underway for VBS to be held August 2 -6. I am in a unique situation of needing multiple teachers and helpers this year. Please prayerfully consider helping either in a classroom, the kitchen or decorating. All help is needed, all ages. Our young children look forward to this week all year long and it's so rewarding, seeing the smiles on their faces. Please consider joining us. Please call or text, Kailyn Mast at 217-617-0282.

St. Thomas will be having their Ministry Sign Up starting May 16 after both Masses in the back of church. Please review the lists to make sure we have your phone number and email address correct. Cross out your name if you are no longer interested in the ministry your name is under. Add your name, phone number and email address under ministries you would like to sign up for. If you have questions, contact Claudia 217-593-7285.

Congratulations to the graduates from St. Thomas Parish!

From the Pastor's Desk

A borrowed reflection:

Today we celebrate Christ's ascension into heaven and his return to his Father's right hand. Soon, we will commemorate the birth of the Church at Pentecost. For over six weeks now, we have reflected on the glory of the risen Christ, and in the Gospel chosen specifically for today's Solemnity, Jesus gives his great commission to the disciples: Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature.

While the Scriptures don't indicate how far the Apostles traveled other than Peter and Paul, tradition has several of them getting as far as modern Russia, India, northern Africa, and Asia Minor. Regardless of where they did and did not go, they spent the rest of their lives fulfilling Jesus' final mission to go and baptize all who accepted him as the Risen One. All but John, it is believed, suffered a martyr's death – the ultimate witness of faith. Not a bad track record for a bunch of guys who came across as pretty clueless a lot of the time during those three years they traveled with Jesus.

With a great deal of patience, Jesus molded them into powerful witnesses of all they had seen and heard. By virtue of our baptism, we, too, have been given the same great commission to witness our faith in the Risen One. We must not be bashful in sharing our faith with anyone who might approach us about what it means to follow Jesus. We are guided by the gifts of the Holy Spirit that have been sealed upon our hearts. God's wisdom, God's strength is our wisdom, our strength, for we do not do this on our own, but always in Jesus' name.

No one is asking for us to stand on a soap box at the corner of walk and don't walk – although some do in fact do this. Rather, it is by going about our daily routine with the spiritual awareness that Jesus goes with us into every moment, every encounter of our day, if invited to do so. With Jesus at our side, we can and need to do this. Not everyone will be open, not every encounter will be a success. But as Saint Teresa of Calcutta is reported to have said, "God is not asking for us to be successful; God is asking for us to be faithful."

The dismissal at the end of the liturgy is purposeful. We are blessed and we are sent. We are sent to spread the Good News that the Risen One, who has ascended to the Father, walks with us and is anxious to walk with anyone who invites him into their lives.

-Fr. Aaron

Bulletin Short for Seventh Sunday of Easter – 16 May 2021

Two Acclamations. Because locked doors cannot keep him away, Jesus comes. He gives his standard Easter greeting: Peace be with you. Then he says: Go, I send you. To us, too, this very day. We cannot stay behind in locked rooms.

- What am I being sent to do?
- To whom am I being sent?
- What peace of Christ will I express in what I say and do?

Baby Bottle Boomerang

Thank you to all participating in the Baby Bottle Boomerang this year for the Pregnancy Resource Center. Baby bottles will be distributed on Mother's Day and collected on Father's Day. Contact Mary Koch, 217-506-2033, for other arrangements. Donations to the Center may be made in memory of a loved one. (Just fill out information on the form in the bottle.) Every gift is much appreciated and brings hope and help to families in our community.

IT ALL WORKS FOR GOOD!

Welcome back singers! Our Missal and Music Issue are in the pew. Please sing the hymns with us. The numbers are on the board.

If you aren't comfortable singing, read the words to yourself as they are sung. The hymns are chosen to enhance the liturgy of each mass.

Thanks!

DEANERY MEETING

All church women (all ages) are invited to the Wed. May 19 Deanery Meeting at St. Mary's Church and Parish Hall, Rt. 107, in Pittsfield-parking and easy access for all. Please consult the posted flyer for details, beginning with 9:00 a.m. Mass. This is our first meeting for a while and we look forward to Quincy ladies joining us!

Pittsfield is part of the Quincy Deanery and hosting this event (which meets 3 times a year). Because Quincy has not been active for several years, Pittsfield has been members of Jacksonville Deanery, but are hoping to reignite our Quincy Deanery Ladies Group. Each parish altar society/women's group is to be a member of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women and active in their Deanery. It's a very enjoyable event which connects local church women in Faith, service and friendship. No obligations-just come and experience.

A delicious luncheon will be served by Pittsfield Altar Society. All are welcome even if not signed up, but this gives us a ballpark figure on food amounts. We have a great program aligned for you so please join us!!

For any questions please call Angela Lipcamon 217-285-5483.

THOUGHTS ALONG THE WAY

"Put your heart at His feet. It is the gift He loves most." -St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

"Tell souls not to place within their own hearts obstacles to My mercy, which so greatly wants to act within them. My mercy works in all those hearts which open their doors to it. Both the sinner and the righteous person have need of My mercy. Conversion, as well as perseverance, is a grace of My mercy. Let souls who are striving for perfection particularly adore My mercy, because the abundance of graces which I grant them flows from My mercy. I desire that these souls distinguish themselves by boundless trust in My mercy. I myself will attend to the sanctification of such souls. I will provide them with everything they will need to attain sanctity. The graces of My mercy are drawn by means of one vessel only, and that is-trust. The more a soul trusts, the more it will receive. Souls that trust boundlessly are a great comfort to Me, because I pour all the treasures of My graces into them. I rejoice that they ask for much, because it is My desire to give much, very much. On the other hand, I am sad when souls ask for little, when they narrow their hearts." -Jesus to St. Faustina

"The Eucharist is the bread that gives strength... It is at once the most eloquent proof of His love and the most powerful means of fostering His love in us. He gives Himself every day so that our hearts as burning coals may set afire the hearts of the faithful." -St. Damien of Molokai

"Do you know what it is to be truly spiritual? It is for men to make themselves the slaves of God—branded with His mark, which is the Cross. ... Unless you make up your minds to this, never expect to make much progress, for as I said humility is the foundation of the whole building and unless you are truly humble, Our Lord, for your own sake, will never permit you to rear it very high lest it should fall to the ground. Therefore, sisters, take care to lay a firm foundation by seeking to be the least of all and the slave of others, watching how you can please and help them, for it will benefit you more than them. Built on such strong rocks, your castle can never go to ruin. I insist again: your foundation must not consist of prayer and contemplation alone: unless you acquire the virtues and praise them, you will always be dwarfs; and please God no worse may befall you than making no progress, for you know that to stop is to go back—if you love, you will never be content to come to a standstill." -St. Teresa of Avila

"Have caution in not allowing yourself to be struck down by adversity nor becoming vain by prosperity." -St. Clare of Assisi

"We must faithfully keep what we have promised. If through human weakness we fail, we must always without delay arise again by means of holy penance, and give our attention to leading a good life and to dying a holy death. May the Father of all mercy, the Son by his holy passion, and the Holy Spirit, source of peace, sweetness and love, fill us with their consolation." -St. Colette

"The glory of a good person is the evidence of a good conscience. Have a good conscience and you will always be happy. A good conscience can bear a great deal and still remain serene in the midst of adversity, while a bad conscience is fearful and easily ruffled. Only be glad when you have done well. Evil persons are never really happy, nor do they feel peace within them; for 'there is no peace for the wicked, says the Lord' (Isa. 48:22). Even though the wicked may protest that peace is theirs and that no evil shall harm them, do not believe them. For God's wrath will suddenly overtake them, and all they have done will be brought to nothing and their plans destroyed." -Thomas á Kempis

"Beloved brothers and sisters, we must strive with all our strength to repel the enemy of our soul, with full attention and vigilance, as he rages and aims his darts against every part of us that can be assaulted and wounded. This is what the Apostle Peter, in his epistle, warns and teaches us about, saying: 'Be sober, be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour' (1 Pt. 5:8)." -Paul Thigpen

"If we wish to make any progress in the service of God we must begin every day of our life with new eagerness. We must keep ourselves in the presence of God as much as possible and have no other view or end in all our actions but the divine honor." -St. Charles Borromeo

"My Jesus, it is truly easy to become holy; it just takes a little good will! And if He finds this minimum of good will in a soul, He quickly gives Himself to her. And nothing can stop Him, neither our faults nor our falls, absolutely nothing. Jesus hurries to help that soul; and if the soul is faithful to this grace from God, she can in a short time reach the highest levels of holiness that a created being can attain here below. God is very generous and does not refuse His grace to anyone. He gives even more than we ask for. The shortest road is faithfulness to the inspirations of the Holy Spirit." -St. Maria Faustina Kowalska

"Nothing great is ever achieved without much enduring." St. Catherine of Siena

"We must not wish anything other than what happens from moment to moment, all the while, however, exercising ourselves in goodness. And to refuse to exercise oneself in goodness, and to insist upon simply awaiting what God might send, would be simply to tempt God." St. Catherine of Genoa

"Whenever I go to the chapel, I put myself in the presence of our good Lord, and I say to Him, 'Lord, here I am. Tell me what You would have me do.' If He gives me some task, I am content and I thank Him. If He gives me nothing, I still thank Him since I do not deserve to receive anything more than that. And then, I tell God everything that is in my heart. I tell Him about my pains and my joys, and then I listen. If you listen, God will also speak to you, for with the good Lord, you have to both speak and listen. God always speaks to you when you approach Him plainly and simply." St. Catherine Laboure

"While the world changes, the cross stands firm." -St. Bruno
