Sunday’s Mass Readings

Take, Eat, Drink. Oh, some of us still long to gather with the Church on Sunday to do Eucharist, to give thanks. Some of us still yearn to come to Mass and share in Communion. We long to both eat and drink the Lord Jesus Christ. This holy dining tells us who and whose we are. Soon, pray.

♦ If I can come to the church on Sunday, for what do I give thanks?
♦ How can I help those who still cannot come because of COVID 19 mitigations?
♦ If I cannot come to the church on Sunday, how will I still choose to give thanks?

Divine Mercy Minutes
from the Diary of St. Faustina

“Once, the image was being exhibited over the altar during the Corpus Christi procession [June 20, 1935]. When the priest exposed the Blessed Sacrament, and the choir began to sing, the rays from the image pierced the Sacred Host and spread out all over the world. Then I heard these words: ‘These rays of mercy will pass through you, just as they have passed through this Host, and they will go out through all the world.’ At these words, profound joy invaded my soul.”
(Diary, 228)

Almighty and Eternal God, protect the members of our Armed Services as they discharge their duties. Protect them with the shield of your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm. May the power of your love enable them to return home in safety, to all who love them. May they ever praise you for your loving care. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

4:40 FOR SEMINARIANS- Six months ago, the diocese launched a campaign called 4:40 for 40 Seminarians. We invited the entire diocese to pray a Hail Mary every day at 4:40 so that, with the help of Mary, we can have 40 men answer the call to be a seminarian for our diocese. If you have been faithfully praying every day, thank you! If you are just hearing about this, we invite you to jump on board. May is the month of Mary and we know with her help, anything is possible! PRAY BIG!

Our class is away this weekend at our "canonical retreat", the retreat required prior to ordination by Canon Law. Canon 1039 reads, “All who are to be promoted to any order must make a retreat for at least five days, in a place and in the manner determined by the Ordinary. Before he proceeds to the ordination, the Bishop must have assured himself that the candidates have duly made the retreat.”

I wish I could be there with you as you celebrate this great Feast of Corpus Christi, the Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ, but I’m also grateful to be on this retreat with my brother classmates as we enter the final weeks leading up to ordination. I love this Feast of Corpus Christi!

St. Thomas Aquinas proposed to Pope Urban IV a feast focused solely on the Holy Eucharist, the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ. The Holy Father instituted the feast in 1264 as a Solemnity (a liturgical day of the highest rank) and made it a universal feast for the whole Catholic Church.

At the end of the Holy Mass on this day in many places, there is a procession of the Blessed Sacrament in a monstrance, followed by Benediction. Perhaps this Sunday evening you could join us for our Sunday Evening Holy Hour with Vespers and Benediction, in order to spend a bit more time in quiet and peaceful prayer with Our Lord, and in worship of Him.

While he is well-known for his Summa, an "encyclopedia" of theological thought that anchors much of our theology, devotion to the Eucharist led to some of St. Thomas Aquinas's most beautiful and poetic writing. He wrote the prayers for this Solemnity’s liturgies at the Pope's request, including the sequence, one of the great poems chanted or recited before the proclamation of the Gospel. Today the Church has three Sequences in use on different feasts: Victimae Paschali Laudes (Christians, To the Paschal Victim) for Easter Sunday; Veni Sancte Spiritus (Come, Holy Spirit) for Pentecost, and Lauda Sion Salvatorem (Sion, Lift Up thy Voice and Sing), for Corpus Christi.

St. Thomas Aquinas also wrote a hymn for Vespers: Pange Lingua (Sing, tongue, the mystery of the glorious Body), from which we have the Tantum Ergo (Down in Adoration Falling) verses sung at Benediction. His hymn for Matins, Sacris Solemniiis (Sacred Solemnity), includes the great Panis Angelicus (Bread of Angels) meditation best known in the setting by Cesar Franck. From his hymn for today's Lauds, Verbum Supernum Prodiens (Word Descending from Above), we take the other Benediction hymn, O Salutaris Hostia (O Saving Victim). Finally, he wrote a hymn of Eucharistic thanksgiving, Adore Te Devote (Devoutly I Adore Thee), which we may recognize from the hymn with the starting line, "Godhead here in hiding." This hymn expresses the mystery and wonder of our reception of Jesus in Holy Communion.

In his 2003 encyclical on the Holy Eucharist, Ecclesia de Eucharistia, Blessed John Paul II praised these hymns and poems of the Solemnity of Corpus Christi: “Let us make our own the words of Saint Thomas Aquinas, an eminent theologian and an impassioned poet of Christ in the Eucharist, and turn in hope to the contemplation of that goal to which our hearts aspire in their thirst for joy and peace”. Each of these hymns provides great doctrinal statements of the truths of the Incarnation, the Paschal Mystery, and the Eucharist while expressing devotion to Jesus Christ as Lord and Redeemer.

Yours in Christ the Servant,
Deacon Candidate Michael Halbrook

Top Reasons to Oppose Assisted Suicide

Read the full version at respectlifeprogram.org/reasons-against-assisted-suicide.

Some polls indicate that the public is receptive to assisted suicide. But the same polls show that people’s views shift when they learn about its dangers—especially the dangers for those who are poor, elderly, disabled, or without access to good medical care. Consider that, in Oregon and California, some patients’ health insurance offered to pay for assisted suicide, but not treatment. And in states where assisted suicide is legal, often no psychiatric evaluation or treatment is required. Additionally, assisted suicide fosters discrimination by creating two classes of people: those whose suicides we spend millions of dollars to prevent and those whose suicides we assist and treat as a positive good.
