August 29, Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time: Dt 4:1-2, 6-8 / Jas 1:18 / Mk 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23
 Consider your own discipleship in light of Jesus' reference to Isaiah in today's gospel: "This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines human precepts." We may believe we are doing a good job because we are being, well, good! We go to Mass and read our Bibles. We say our Rosary every day and always make a significant financial contribution to our church. All of these are wonderful things! But if they are only done out of ritual and obligation, they are not serving to help us grow in holiness. If our hearts are full of bitterness, grudges, and pride, then we are really no better than the Pharisees who uphold the religious laws, but do not have hearts for God. We must make an intentional effort to connect our obedience to a loving heart, and not simply a habitual mind!

A Special Thank You For 25 Years

This week Pat Wendell has stepped down as Thursday Adoration Coordinator for St. Anthony's Parish. Pat, thank you for a job well done for so many years of service to this ministry. RELIGIOUS EDUCATION & YOUTH MINISTRY

PSR Classes

Morning and evening classes will be held at their regular times this week. The 1st and 2nd grade students will attend Mass on Thursday at 9:10 a.m.

Questions for Faith Sharing

The theme for this Sunday's readings is: Your heart must be full of faith. Question for Adults: Based on this reading from James, what is the sign in one's life that faith is present? Question for Youth: Jesus warns about the things that will lead us away from God. What tempts you away from being the person that God created you to be?

Let us pray that our faith may come alive and be the core of all our decisions and actions.

"Prayer reveals to souls the vanity of earthly goods and pleasures. It fills them with light, strength and consolation, and gives them a foretaste of the calm bliss of our heavenly home."

~ St. Rose of Viterbo
