Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord

JANUARY 2, 2022

Isaiah 60:1-6; Ephesians 3:2-3a,5-6;
Matthew 2:1-12

The word “epiphany” means “manifestation” or “glorious appearance.” Originally, the word referred to the big showy event when a monarch visited his provinces. There were parties and banquets and parades; there was a general amnesty for prisoners; everyone enjoyed the “epiphany” of the prince.

The word came to be used in a theological and liturgical sense: It refers to the glorious appearance of Jesus Christ as King and Savior of the entire world. He is not merely the Messiah of the Jews; he is Lord of all peoples and nations and places. Epiphany is, thus, the original feast of Christ the King. Epiphany is a kind of Mission Sunday.

All of the texts of today’s Mass teach urgent will of God to include the non-Jews (the Gentiles) in God’s saving plan. The Magi or Wise Men (not astrologers!) represent all the nations of the world: They were not of the “Chosen,” but they came from afar to do homage to Jesus. The Gospel emphasizes the irony that these people who had been in darkness work hard to find the light; meanwhile the people who should have seen the light preferred darkness.

The first reading speaks of people coming from “afar” to bring gifts to the Lord. “Afar” means that they were not worshipers of the one God. The second reading is Paul’s marvel at the mystery of God’s plan: He now intends to include non-Jews (Gentiles) in salvation.

In the western Church, Epiphany was associated with three events: the coming of the Magi, the baptism of Jesus, and the miracle at the wedding feast of Cana. Nowadays, we separate these three events. But each of them is a manifestation of the glory of Jesus Christ.

We need to examine our consciences: God intends all persons to come to the knowledge of the truth and be saved. But they cannot do this unless we reach out to them. Each of us is called to be a witness of Christ to our neighborhood, our community, and to the world. If we do nothing, the world will continue to sink, and the Church will continue to lose ground. Let us pray that we may have zeal for the missions at home and abroad.

The Epiphany of the Lord, January 2, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Epiphany. In the Universal Church this solemnity is celebrated on the 12th day of Christmas, that is, January 6. In the same Universal Church this particular solemnity is also a Holy Day of Obligation for all Catholics. However, in the Roman rite of the Catholic Church the Bishops of the United States moved this Solemnity to the Sunday following the Feast of the Holy Family. Whatever the case, the Solemnity of the Epiphany is an important celebration as it continues to unveil the mystery of Christmas. As the Jewish nation was present, represented by the shepherds and Mary and Joseph, so today the Gentile world, represented by the Magi, is now present as this celebration brings to completion that mystery of Christmas. Perhaps the best reflection of this solemnity is found in our responsorial Psalm for the day, as we hear proclaimed what is celebrated today, “Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.” Thus, those words are now fulfilled with the arrival of the Magi. The mystery of Christmas is not complete as this mystery is unfolded for all peoples and for all times. “Lord, every nation on earth is now to adore you.”

It is said in our gospel that the Magi arrived in Jerusalem from the East. No one is certain who these men from the East really were. Sometimes they are pictured as kings in our presentation of the creche in our homes and in our churches. Sometimes we think of them as stargazers, following a star that settled over the house of Mary and Joseph in Bethlehem. Whatever the case, we seem to conclude that there had to be three by the number of gifts that they brought. But these gifts were symbolic and proclaim to generations in the future who this child was. The gift of gold that was brought declared Jesus to be a king; the gift of frankincense was that declaration of the divinity of Jesus; and the final gift, that of myrrh, was symbolic of an upcoming death, perhaps the reality of the cross. The number of Magi really doesn't matter, but rather it is a proclamation that God became man for all people and for all time; that He is the Savior for all humanity.

As a point of trivia, the word epiphany means a manifestation, one of those moments that we might call an “aha” moment, as it finally clicks that this newborn Savior is the Lord for all nations to come and adore. In the 7th century of our Church, there was a man named Venerable Bede who gave names to these strange people from the East. Bede said that their names were Melchior (gold), Gaspar (frankincense), and Balthasar (myrrh). After leaving that day the scripture says nothing about their lives. Never had a lost legend filled the vacuum. Many years after Christmas, Saint Thomas the apostle visited the Magi, and after catechizing them he initiated them into the Christian faith. Then, according to legend, they were ordained priests and later bishops. According to further legend, toward the end of their lives, the Christmas star revisited them, this time leading them to one another for a reunion. According to medieval legend, in the 6th century their relics were brought from Constantinople to Milan, and from there in the 12th century to the city of Cologne where their relics remain. Interesting point of trivia to ponder and to reflect upon.

As we gathered for the celebration of Christmas, I was deeply concerned about COVID and how it might affect our celebrations; and it did. Our attendance was down, but it was still so great to see people present celebrating the mystery of Christmas together rather than virtually. I cannot thank you enough for being present and celebrating together as a parish family. Last week, I gave praises to our decorating committee who made the church look so beautiful. This week, I sing the praises for our music, canters, musicians, pianist, and a special thank you to Monica Scholz. I was so proud of all of you as it made our celebration of Christmas come alive with much joy and happiness. Thank you.

I also want to thank all of our parishioners who remembered Saint Peter Church and School in their end of the year contributions. I'm so thankful and grateful to each and every one of you. I also thank all the many people who remembered us priests with cards and gifts. You are truly appreciated and my heart is filled with gratitude for all of you. May God bless you.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: This one is an old one but a good one:

A father and his son were looking at a Nativity scene in a London gallery. It was Titian’s world famous painting of the scene at Bethlehem. The boy said, “Dad, why is the baby lying in such a crude cradle in a pile of straw?”

“Well, son” explained the father, “they were poor and couldn’t afford anything better.”

Said the boy, “Then how could they afford to have their picture painted by such an expensive artist?”

Pro-Life Mass & March

The Diocese of Springfield invites you to join us for a diocesan wide pro-life Mass and march event on Friday, January 21, in Springfield at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. We will begin with Mass at 10:00 a.m. followed by an 11:00 a.m. march to the Illinois Capitol. Like last year, the diocese has decided to forego a trip to Washington, D.C. and focus on a local march. The Mass and march are intended for 7th-12th graders, college students, and adults.

We would love to see each school and parish bring a delegation to the Mass and march. Please visit this website (dio.org/youthministry.mfl) for more information and to register. Also on the website are pro-life resources for all ages. Please use these in your classroom, home, and/or parish. Bishop Thomas John Paprocki will celebrate Mass and we encourage your pastor and/or deacon to join us.

For those who are able to join us for the Mass but are unable to join us for the march, Eucharistic adoration will be going on at the Cathedral during the march.

The Cathedral cafeteria will be open to groups who would like to eat a sack lunch after the march. Please note that this space is limited and will be a first come first serve basis. You will be able to indicate this option on the registration form.
