Being Rejected for the Sake of Christ

Very often, when people speak of Jesus, they emphasize His tolerance, His accommodation, and His acceptance of others. To be sure, He did these things. But these were not ultimate virtues to Him. In this Sunday's gospel we hear about how Jesus was rejected for words that He spoke... and this was not the only time that He was rejected for what He said!

As we live our lives as Christians, we should expect the same. To be sure, we are called to love, to kindness, to charity, to patience... but sometimes, we can live out all of those virtues, and still the world rejects us. That's OK. The world did the same to Christ. And if they rejected Him, that can and probably will happen to us, too... If we are living our Christian life well.

This effort is very important as we move forward with the mission and vision of Hancock County Catholic Churches. We, as a parish family, have changed so many lives in our community! In order to continue our mission and ministries, we encourage all parishioners to spend time in prayer and discussion with your family reflecting on the work we do. Our special Commitment Weekend will be celebrated on February 12 and 13. If you have any questions regarding the "With Christ We Can Do This" Program, please feel free to contact the Parish Offices.

MISSING DVD'S – If you've borrowed The Great Adventure DVD set titled Matthew, the King and His Kingdom, please return it to Immaculate Conception Church or Parish Hall. Thank you!
