Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Thursdays 9:00 a.m. – 9:00 p.m. and Sundays 7:30–8:30 p.m. (with Vespers)

PLEASE CONSIDER COMMITTING TO AN HOUR WITH THE LORD ON THURSDAY EACH WEEK!!

Eucharistic Adoration on our part is the appreciation for the total gift of Christ's presence among us. It expresses to Him that He is truly welcomed and loved by us.

Becoming a saint is between God and us. No excuses needed; He knows our inner most thoughts. Most of the time we just have to adjust our schedules to make time for our spiritual growth. Eucharistic Adoration is a means at our disposal that we can use to grow in holiness.

And on Sundays, join us for Exposition & Adoration with Benediction & Vespers from 7:30–8:30 p.m. Come and spend an hour with the Lord to end your weekend and start your week.

Altar Flowers & Mass Offerings

The flowers on the Altar of Reservation this weekend are for the greater glory of God and for the living and deceased members of St. Elizabeth Parish.

You can provide fresh flowers for the Altar of Reservation for a weekend and through the following week for the greater glory of God and in honor or memory of someone, for a $50 offering. Contact the Parish Office for information and to schedule a week.

Mass offerings and 14-Day Candle memorials are also available. Contact the Parish Office for more information.

Sunday's Mass Readings

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
January 30, 2022

Jeremiah 1:4-5, 17-19. Psalm 71:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 15, 17.

1 Corinthians 12:31–13:13. Luke 4:21-30.

Believing God Who Protects. Proclaiming God's Word can be costly. For the grueling work of prophet Jeremiah, God declares he will not be alone. In proclaiming Good News in His hometown, Jesus is faced with reproach and the threat of being thrown over the cliff. Proclaiming Good News is the task of each of us because of Baptism into Christ. So, how do we do it? As faithful, hopeful, loving Christians.

- ♦ What words of faith will I share with others this week?
- ♦ What is part of the great hope I have in believing in Christ?
- ♦ Because God keeps me safe in a protecting embrace, how can I love? Whom will I love – even those who are not “one of us”?

In Memoriam

THE 14-DAY CANDLE will be burning in memory of Mary Catherine Bugnitz.

Divine Mercy Minutes

from the Diary of St. Faustina

Write: I am Thrice Holy, and I detest the smallest sin. I cannot love a soul which is stained with sin; but when it repents, there is no limit to My generosity toward it. My mercy embraces and justifies it. With My mercy, I pursue sinners along all their paths, and My Heart rejoices when they return to Me. I forget the bitterness with which they fed My Heart and rejoice at their return. (Diary, 1728)

Pride of our School

What St. Elizabeth School Means to Me

By Lily Meyenburg

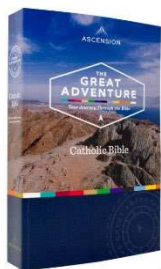

Saint Elizabeth School has been my home away from home since Pre-K. That is around 10 of my 14 years on this earth. Teachers have become parents, classmates become siblings, and every day is like a family reunion. You see your “cousins” from other classes at lunch and can catch up with them. At St. Elizabeth, good values and strong morals are instilled in your head every single day. We are taught the importance of friendship, kindness, and, most importantly, God. This is what St. Elizabeth School means to me.

Even though I have been here most of my life, it doesn't even feel like a week. Everyone and everything changes continuously, whilst remaining nostalgic and familiar. From things like new school bathrooms and water fountains to new teachers and faculty members, it seems like nothing stays the same. Still, it has the same smell on the first day of school; the sign out front was there when I first started kindergarten. I still remember shadowing the preschool class and not wanting to leave. Everyone still treats one another like family. Sometimes, I forget how truly amazing this school has been for me; but I am reminded by the teachers who have adopted us as their own, who ask how we are doing, and who really care about our futures.

One of the most important things that I have learned here is that we aren't so different from one another, even though we might not recognize our similarities at first. We all have things in common; like our undying love for our middle school teachers. They are hilarious and silly, while still remaining like authority figures instead of your best friend. They make sure you are being the best version of yourself you can be. The teachers here have become more like fun parents than teachers. I would consider them family.

I know how easy it is to forget that I've been here for so long and that I will be graduating this year. I too get caught up in all of the teenager problems, schoolwork, drama, and other things that are distracting me from being happy. I might seem excited and worry-free, but internally, I am the opposite. I am terrified of leaving and going to a new, bigger place where I know no one and no one knows me. I will be leaving everything I've ever known and starting anew, and that is frightening. But I know that no matter where I go, God will always be with me. I learned that at St. Elizabeth; that God is always there, even when you feel alone.

Thinking about graduating and starting a new phase of my life is scary, but exciting. I know that St. Elizabeth will always have a special place in my heart and will always be an important part of who I am. This school has helped instill good morals and values that I will carry with me for the rest of my life. It has helped me become a good Catholic and a helpful, considerate human being. I have learned the importance of community service and helping others in need. That is what St. Elizabeth School means to me.
