Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Thursdays 9:00 a.m. – 9:00 p.m. and
Sundays 7:30 – 8:30 p.m. (with Vespers)

PLEASE CONSIDER COMMITTING TO AN HOUR
WITH THE LORD ON THURSDAY EACH WEEK!!

Eucharistic Adoration on our part is the appreciation for the total gift of Christ's presence among us. It expresses to Him that He is truly welcomed and loved by us.

Becoming a saint is between God and us. No excuses needed; He knows our inner most thoughts. Most of the time we just have to adjust our schedules to make time for our spiritual growth. Eucharistic Adoration is a means at our disposal that we can use to grow in holiness.

And on Sundays, join us for Exposition & Adoration with Benediction & Vespers from 7:30–8:30 p.m. Come and spend an hour with the Lord to end your weekend and start your week.

Divine Mercy Minutes from the Diary of St. Faustina

Oh, how much that wounds My Heart! Remember My Passion, and if you do not believe My words, at least believe My wounds.” (Diary, 379)

Theological Thoughts with Deacon Michael

It can get really confusing this time of year to figure out: When does Christmas end? Surprisingly, the answer can be quite simple: It ends after the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord (this weekend). Technically, after Second Vespers of this Sunday (which we pray together as a parish during our weekly Holy Hour on Sunday nights).

It can be confusing because for most of church history – until within the last century – Christmas lasted 12 days, from Christmas Day through the Epiphany on January 6. In fact, in most of the rest of the world and in Canon Law and liturgical norms, that’s still the case. So if you’re paying attention to Catholics in other parts of the world, you might see that Christmas ends on January 6 with Epiphany – NOT with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord.

The popular song “The Twelve Days of Christmas” referred to these 12 days and was used in Catechesis to help children remember key things about our faith.

As Father Chris House, our diocesan Judicial Vicar recently noted, “The Epiphany is universally [note: meaning through the rest of the Church around the world] celebrated on January 6 as a Holy Day of Obligation. National conferences of bishops were allowed to lift obligations or move feast days with the permission of the Holy See in the late 1960s. The celebration of Epiphany was moved by the US bishops in 1970 to the first Sunday after January 1. This is a sad fate that has fallen on many holy days in Protestant dominated countries; in majority Catholic countries, many holy days are also civil holidays. There are ten obligatory holy days in the Code of Canon Law; only five have remained on their actual dates, with obligation, in the US (six in a few dioceses where Ascension is still obligatory on Thursday).”

So the United States bishops, in 1970, moved Epiphany (for us in the US) from the traditional and universal date of January 6 to the first Sunday after January 1. Additionally, we now celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord the following Sunday, “replacing” what would otherwise be the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, and concluding the Christmas Season here.

In some places, Epiphany still holds a special place as a marker of the (now-unofficially-in-the-US) end of the Christmas season. In Alton, St. Mary’s Church takes part in a “Twelfth Night” celebration in a city park, where people bring their (real) Christmas trees and burn them in a huge bonfire under the watchful eye of three community leaders dressed as the three Magi, and the priests and deacons of the parish.

To complicate things further, we celebrate Christmas Day, the Christmas Octave, AND the Christmas Season (as outlined above.) It’s that important to us as we celebrate the Incarnation!

Christmas DAY, December 25 (and its Vigil the evening before) begins the OCTAVE which lasts the 8 days until January 1, “the Octave Day of Christmas,” on which we celebrate the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God. (It’s a Holy Day of Obligation, but the US bishops have removed that obligation when it falls on a Saturday or a Monday, which is why it wasn’t a day of obligation this year.) During that whole Octave it’s like we’re stuck on Christmas – the Psalms that priests and deacons pray at Morning Prayer (Lauds) and Evening Prayer (Vespers) each day are the same throughout the whole Octave.

Then the Christmas SEASON continues through the Baptism. But yet again, longer ago, the season actually continued all the way to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2! (40 days – there’s something about that number.) There are beautiful traditions around the liturgy (Candlemas) on that day, some of which we’ll celebrate this year, explaining in a future bulletin. Mark your calendar to join us for an evening Mass by candlelight on February 2, though.

Here’s a good compromise that many Catholics who have sensibilities for the old and current calendars have settled upon: Keep the Christmas trees up for the whole Christmas SEASON (from at least Christmas, if not before, until the Baptism this weekend). Then the Christmas trees and most of the decorations can come down... but the Nativity stays up until February 2 for the Feast of the Presentation.

It's not too late to join us for the 99 Masterclass! Interested in helping our church grow, in sharing the Gospel, but not sure where to start? DIocese OF SPRINGFIELD IN ILLINOIS

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

January 2022

Over the past couple of years, the pandemic has magnified the importance of communication. Whether it was announcing the obligation to return to Mass, reporting on our first March for Life in Springfield, updating people on life issues at the Statehouse, highlighting the gifts and talents of our clergy and lay faithful, and sharing incredible stories about people in our diocese, Catholic Times has consistently been in people's mailboxes and inboxes to provide the hope, inspiration, and education they need during these uncertain times.

Over the past year, Catholic Times has continued its emphasis on catechesis of the Catholic faith such as their Hey, Father! series, a special edition dedicated to the sacrament of confession, and a comprehensive look at what eternity looks like and why we must strive for sainthood. Feature reporting is also a major part of the magazine highlighting the stories of people, parishes, and schools that are building up the Kingdom of God in our diocese. The magazine's commitment to local coverage means when it is opened, readers will see stories that are important to their lives.

In the past year, the magazine refreshed its look, which included increasing the font size slightly. Father Dominic Rankin also launched a new series that promotes and inspires people about the vocation of marriage.

My column, "Lex Cordis Caritas," is on page 4 of each issue. It is one of the best ways that I can speak about the issues that we face as Catholics in Central Illinois and update readers on important decisions I make that impact the faithful. As bishop of this diocese, it is important for me to be an active participant in Catholic media.

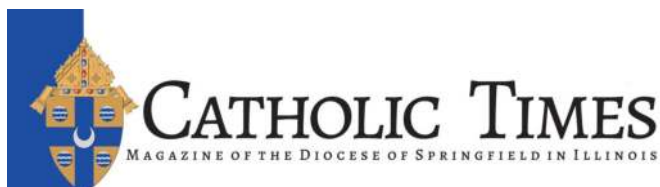

It is all these reasons why I believe that Catholic Times should be available to every household in our diocese, either online (ct.dio.org), by email, or by mail. I invite you to support this important communication tool in our diocese. During the weekend of January 8-9, you will have the opportunity to respond gratefully and ensure the Catholic Times remains an inexpensive source of information on the vital issues I have noted.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois
Publisher, Catholic Times
