Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

JANUARY 23, 2022

Nehemiah 8:2-4a,5-6,8-10;
1 Corinthians 12:12-30;
Luke 1:1-4;4:14-21

Except for Lent and Easter, all of our Sunday Gospels will be taken from the Gospel of Luke this year. Luke is the only non-Jewish writer of any book of the Bible. He was well-educated; he was a doctor; he accompanied Paul on some of his missionary journeys. Luke has a sense of delicacy, and he often smooths the “rough” language of Mark. He omits anything which would be offensive to good taste. His Gospel emphasizes the Lord’s mercy and forgiveness. Luke takes note of secular history, and places Jesus in historical perspective. Women play a very important part in Luke’s Gospel. Remember these characteristics as you read Luke this year.

Today’s Gospel contains the first four verses of the Gospel; then it skips to the time immediately after Jesus’ baptism by John the Baptist. Jesus goes to his hometown synagogue, opens the scroll of Isaiah to give the reading. He then sits down and proclaims that the reading has been fulfilled in their presence! The Spirit of the Lord is upon him. He is anointed to proclaim Good News to all.

The first reading today describes the renewal of the covenant under Ezra about 450 B.C. Moses had received the Torah from the Lord on Mt. Sinai about the year 1290 B.C. Then the Israelites had promised to be loyal to the covenant, but they were not. Because of their constant infidelity, the nation was destroyed, and they were captives at Babylon from 587 to 538 B.C. God delivered them; they returned home; and under Ezra they renewed their pledge of loyalty to the covenant. “Amen” means “with all my heart and soul, I agree to this!”

The second reading continues Paul’s discussion on the use of all our gifts and talents for the building up of the Church. The Church is the Body of Christ. Although we shall use the short form of the reading at Mass today, read and reflect on the longer form. Each of us receives the one Body of Christ in Holy Communion. We are united with him. Through our union with the Person or Body of Christ, we become one Body in him! Therefore we must show our unity with each other by our bonds of love and caring. Each person must seek to contribute to the upbuilding of the Body of Christ, and not to tearing it apart.

Our Parish Family

Dear Parishioners,

Today we gather to celebrate the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time. This particular Sunday was designated by Pope Francis in 2019 as “Sunday of the Word of God.” On these particular Sundays in Ordinary Time, the Church will be using throughout the year the gospel of St. Luke. Today we hear the opening of this gospel which states the following: “Since many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the events that have been fulfilled among us, just as those who were eyewitnesses from the beginning and ministers of the word have handed them down to us, I too have decided, after investigating everything accurately anew, to write it down in an orderly sequence for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may realize the certainty of the teachings you have received.” What a beautiful testimony of St. Luke of why he is presenting his gospel, the Word of God to us. We, on our part, are named, “Theophilus,” meaning “Lover of God.” So as we celebrate this day designated as the Word of God, I challenge you to open your hearts and your lives to be touched, changed, and challenged by God’s Word throughout this year of Luke.

But as we think about our Scriptures today, I ask that you concentrate on our second reading from Paul’s Letter to the Corinthians. In this reading Paul uses the analogy of a body to help us realize the significant role that each of us plays as a member of the Church. When we look around, however, at the abilities and talents of people, we might get the impression that we don’t have an important role since we are less talented or less capable. And then if you toss in the idea that because of age and disability, we might even be less important. But Paul challenges those mistaken impressions as he sees every person as significant, playing an important role. Not all of us might be the head; some might be the foot. Together, we need each other to make the body function properly. Then Paul also realizes that when one part of the body suffers, the entire body suffers. How clear is that to us who have an ingrown toenail. No matter how small, it brings hurt to the entire body. So all of us have an important role in the Body of Christ, the Church. Whatever role we have, the Lord gives us His grace and strength to fill it. Let all of us realize our roles in the Body of Christ and live them out.

Next weekend, we begin what is termed as National Catholic Schools Week. It is during this week that we acknowledge and are thankful for the gift of Catholic Schools. We are forever grateful to the parishioners and pastors who saw the need many years ago and built the foundation of St. Peter School. It is this school that has been front and center to the ministry of evangelization in our parish. I want to thank our parishioners today who through their generosity have helped us continue what has been handed down to us – a legacy of Catholic education. I also want to thank all of our administration, teachers, and staff, who have been and continue to be a part of this tremendous gift given to us. Not only do we have a pre-K to eighth grades, but we also have ownership of a Catholic High School. For a community our size, our Catholic schools have made a lasting impact on the community in which we live and work. Thank you to all!

The School of St. Peter

Week of January 23, 2022

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK SCHEDULE

All week students are asked to bring in a canned food item to support the Souper Bowl of Caring Campaign. We are collecting canned food items to help the needy in our community. The highest collecting homeroom (per student) will earn an out-of-dress-code week! The final count will be taken Friday morning to determine the winning homeroom.

Tic Tac Toe: Students will learn about specific saints each day during morning announcements while playing Tic Tac Toe each morning.

Saturday & Sunday, January 29 & 30: IN OUR PARISH

Parishioners will enjoy a slideshow prior to each Mass depicting the appreciation we have for our families, parishioners, and community. Students will take on leadership roles during the 9:30 Mass.

Monday, January 31: IN OUR COMMUNITY

Dress Code: Pajama Day! Wear your favorite pjs. Shoes or slippers must be worn indoors; only shoes can be worn outdoors.

Activity: Educational videos will be featured in the morning. Students may bring in a drink with a screw top to enjoy during the movie. GSA will generously provide popcorn for the students.

Project: Souper Bowl of Caring – Bring in your canned food item by Friday – win an out-of-dress-code week.

Tuesday, February 1: IN OUR STUDENTS

Fr. Leo’s column continued..

This weekend we are asking our parishioners to donate toothpaste, toothbrushes, regular size bars of soap, deodorant, washcloths, and combs for our sister parishes in Haiti. When I visited with them and handed out these simple items, one would have thought we were giving them a pot of gold. Very appreciative of these gifts! Please consider donating some of these items. Boxes will be in the Narthex. Hoping to ship containers to them in the spring.

This year the QCES (Quincy Catholic Elementary Schools) will be honoring the work of the Franciscans with regard to Catholic education here in Quincy. If you would like to be a part of this recognition, please join us at a dinner on Saturday, February 5, at the Atrium here in Quincy. Consult the bulletin for more information.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: After the Fall in the Garden of Eden, Adam was walking with his sons, Cain and Abel. As they passed by the ruins of Eden, one of the boys asked, “Father, what’s that?” Adam replied, “Boys, that’s where your mother ate us out of house and home.”

As a junior in college, I wanted to be more involved in church. They were always looking for new members in the choir. So, I decided to join. After about five minutes of practice, the individual seated on my left got up and moved. I didn’t think much about it until five minutes later the individual seated on my right got up and moved. So I said to myself, “Lord, I guess singing isn’t one of my gifts.” First and last choir practice.
