Baptism of the Lord

JANUARY 9, 2022

Isaiah 42:1-4,6-7 or Isaiah 40:1-5,9-11;
Acts 10:34-38 or Titus 2:11-14; 3:4-7;
Luke 3:15-16,21-22

The baptism of Jesus was his inaugural as the Suffering Servant of the Lord. Every prophet had an inaugural experience. Jesus' inaugural comes at his baptism. He identifies himself with sinful mankind by accepting a baptism leading to repentance and forgiveness. In so doing, he takes upon himself all the suffering and sins of the whole world.

The "Suffering Servant Songs" in Isaiah (of which our first reading is the first) tell of an "everyman" figure who humbles himself, who is gentle, and who takes all evil unto himself; by his own suffering, he vicariously heals all. This Suffering Servant Song begins with the words "Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one with whom I am well-pleased." In the original languages, these are almost identical with the words of the Father in the Gospel.

The Gospel according to Luke emphasizes the power of the Holy Spirit. In the baptism of Jesus, Luke emphasizes that the Spirit comes upon Jesus. Henceforth, everything he does is in the power of God. The dove was the symbol of Israel. The dove here may symbolize that Jesus becomes Israel personified – or the new Israel. In himself he will save all.

The second reading is the story of the conversion of Cornelius. God is no respecter of persons; Jesus came to save all peoples of all times and places.

In our baptism, we are freed from sin precisely because in his baptism Jesus took to himself the suffering and sinfulness of the world. Jesus' other "baptism" is when he gives his life for the sake of us all; he strips away all sin and nails it to the cross. Through this "baptism" he empowers the sacraments to be signs of his salvation among us.

Dear Parishioners,

With the celebration of the baptism of Jesus this weekend the Church continues to celebrate another epiphany in the life of Jesus. This particular epiphany recalls to mind when Jesus entered into the waters of the Jordan River, sinless though He was, to take upon Himself all the sins of humankind. Through being baptized by John, Jesus shows Himself as the Savior of the world, accepting our sins, nailing them to the cross, and saving us from them. With this celebration we are recognizing that we cannot save ourselves, but it took God becoming one with us to save us from ourselves. And so today as we celebrate this second epiphany, Jesus appears as our Savior and our Redeemer.

After being baptized by John our Scripture tells us of three events that follow that baptism. The first event was that the heavens were opened. This event recalls to mind that the heavens were closed, as sin separated us from the God who created us, who loved us. People cried, as the psalmist would tell us, asking God to tear open the heavens and somehow save us from ourselves. Thus, through His baptism the Word of God comes down among us and dwells in our midst, becoming our Savior and Redeemer. The second event was that the Holy Spirit descended upon Jesus in a bodily form like a dove. But this second event reflects a new creation. Just as we heard in the book of Creation, in the book of Genesis, God hovered over the chaos of the world and established order. The same God, in the bodily form like a dove, hovers over Jesus and establishes this new creation, a new beginning of grace as God takes it upon Himself to be our Savior. The third event is the words that we hear coming from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased." This final event leads us to realize that our God dwells among us, draws us ever closer to Him, if we only listen and heed the words of Jesus. And so today as we celebrate the baptism of Jesus, we remember what Jesus has done for us, the invitation that He has given to us to be one with Him, and the challenge that we have to listen to His words and to follow them. If we do that, we begin to understand this second epiphany called the baptism of Jesus.

During this past month of December, during the season of Advent, we were able to celebrate the Sacraments of First Communion as well as the Sacrament of Confirmation for all of our students in Saint Peter School. I found this to be a very moving experience for me as a pastor and as a priest as we were able to get our kids caught up with all the sacraments appropriate to their age. This means that students in our 2nd grade class will now be celebrating their Sacrament of First Communion as well as the Sacrament of Confirmation sometime next year at the Cathedral in Springfield. Hopefully, we will be able to do that as a class together at one time.

One of the great pluses that we have as a parish and school is a strong daycare program. Our current daycare coordinator is retiring after many years of service to our parish and school. I want to thank Loretta Goehl for her role in this ministry. I truly appreciate all that she has done to make our program so successful. In light of that, we are looking for someone who might be interested in assuming this role. If interested, please contact Cindy Venvertloh, our principal. For more information, please see our bulletin’s school page.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A man is driving down a country road when he spots a farmer standing in the middle of a huge field of wheat. He pulls the car over to the side of the road and notices that the farmer is just standing there, doing nothing, looking at nothing. The man gets out of his car, walks all the way out to the farmer and asks him, “Excuse me mister, but what are you doing?”

The farmer replies, “I’m trying to win a Nobel Prize.”

“How?” asked the man, puzzled.

“Well, I heard they give the Nobel Prize..... (get ready).... to people who are out standing in their field.” hahaha

Pro-Life Mass & March

The Diocese of Springfield invites you to join us for a diocesan wide pro-life Mass and march event on Friday, January 21, in Springfield at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. We will begin with Mass at 10:00 a.m. followed by an 11:00 a.m. march to the Illinois Capitol. Like last year, the diocese has decided to forego a trip to Washington, D.C. and focus on a local march. The Mass and march are intended for 7th-12th graders, college students, and adults.

We would love to see each school and parish bring a delegation to the Mass and march. Please visit this website (dio.org/youthministry.mfl) for more information and to register. Also on the website are pro-life resources for all ages. Please use these in your classroom, home, and/or parish. Bishop Thomas John Paprocki will celebrate Mass and we encourage your pastor and/or deacon to join us.

For those who are able to join us for the Mass but are unable to join us for the march, Eucharistic adoration will be going on at the Cathedral during the march.

The Cathedral cafeteria will be open to groups who would like to eat a sack lunch after the march. Please note that this space is limited and will be a first come first serve basis. You will be able to indicate this option on the registration form.

Please watch this video, (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=t7Q_OZGpBjE), from last year to better understand the event.

Office of the Bishop

January 2022

My dear friends in Christ,

Over the past couple of years, the pandemic has magnified the importance of communication. Whether it was announcing the obligation to return to Mass, reporting on our first March for Life in Springfield, updating people on life issues at the Statehouse, highlighting the gifts and talents of our clergy and lay faithful, and sharing incredible stories about people in our diocese, Catholic Times has consistently been in people's mailboxes and inboxes to provide the hope, inspiration, and education they need during these uncertain times.

Over the past year, Catholic Times has continued its emphasis on catechesis of the Catholic faith such as their Hey, Father! series, a special edition dedicated to the sacrament of confession, and a comprehensive look at what eternity looks like and why we must strive for sainthood. Feature reporting is also a major part of the magazine highlighting the stories of people, parishes, and schools that are building up the Kingdom of God in our diocese. The magazine's commitment to local coverage means when it is opened, readers will see stories that are important to their lives.

In the past year, the magazine refreshed its look, which included increasing the font size slightly. Father Dominic Rankin also launched a new series that promotes and inspires people about the vocation of marriage.

My column, "Lex Cordis Caritas," is on page 4 of each issue. It is one of the best ways that I can speak about the issues that we face as Catholics in Central Illinois and update readers on important decisions I make that impact the faithful. As bishop of this diocese, it is important for me to be an active participant in Catholic media.

It is all these reasons why I believe that Catholic Times should be available to every household in our diocese, either online (ct.dio.org), by email, or by mail. I invite you to support this important communication tool in our diocese. During the weekend of January 8-9, you will have the opportunity to respond gratefully and ensure the Catholic Times remains an inexpensive source of information on the vital issues I have noted.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

† Thomas John Paprocki
