Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

JANUARY 16, 2022

Isaiah 62:1-5; 1 Corinthians 12:4-11;
John 2:1-11

We return to “Ordinary Time”, the season of the life of the Church. Green is the color of life and of hope; our vestments and altar frontals will be green until Lent begins (March 6). Because of the Gospel selection, today is often called “Cana Sunday.” The basic story is simple: Jesus and his followers go to a wedding feast; the host runs short of wine; Mary tells Jesus who seemingly rebuffs her. Mary tells the waiters to do whatever Jesus says. Jesus then changes the water into wine.

But the rest of the story is much deeper. John’s Gospel always has at least two levels, one obvious and one deeper and not so obvious. The purpose of John’s Gospel is to show the replacement of all the forms of Judaism with something new and better.

Jesus works seven “signs” to do this. This first sign alludes to the Jewish manner of purification (the water jars). This is replaced by the lavish (about 125-150 gallons) new wine of Christ (representing the grace of love and salvation). Jesus calls his mother “woman”, alluding to the “woman” in Genesis 3:15 whose son will stamp out evil. The old woman Eve and her heritage is replaced by the new woman, the Church, represented by Mary. The marriage of God to Israel is replaced by the marriage of the Church to Christ. The theme is newness, richness, joy, and love.

Do you think you are a nobody? Then you’ll act like one! But if you think that you are a beloved son or daughter of God, you should act as one. The second reading tells us that God has given each of us distinct talents and gifts. And he calls on us to “give them away”, to use them in service to others for the building up of the Church.

Insofar as we try to serve others and “give away” our gifts, the Lord will lavish on us even more abundantly. Let us pray to know our gifts and to use them in joy for others. If we seek to serve, we shall be amazed at

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 16, 2022

We begin Ordinary Time again in the liturgical calendar. Ordinary Time is not ordinary. It means ordinal, which references to the counting of weeks of Ordinary Time as we count towards the end of the liturgical and the end of time, as in we are in the second week of Ordinary Time this weekend. It also references ordinal as in directional. Ordinal directions are north, south, east, and west, which means that during this time we are called to redirect ourselves to the Lord. Don't become complacent and ordinary during this time, but use this time to redirect and count the weeks that prepare us for our end, both to redirect to union with God and prepare for union with God in this time and at the end of our time. Don't be ordinary during this time, but use this time to become extraordinary.

During the next few weeks, I will be writing to talk about and understand the corporal works of mercy. Corporal literally means "body." They are what Jesus and His teachings model; an example teaching us how we should treat others, as if Christ were in disguise in those we encounter throughout life. The Catechism of the Catholic Church says, "The corporal works of mercy are the charitable actions by which we help our neighbors in their bodily needs." The seven-corporal works of mercy are: feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, shelter the homeless, visit the sick, visit the imprisoned, bury the dead, and give alms to the poor.

Make sure you take note of the event coming up for the Franciscan Farewell. PLEASE, I am begging you to make sure you get your picture taken for the pictorial directory. I have heard all kinds of things over the years: I don't like my picture taken, I don't want to pose for a picture alone, this is a waste of my time or money, etc., etc. These directories not only help parishioners come to know each other, but they give the priests and staff the ability to reference a picture; when they hear a name for one reason or another to be able to place the name and face. And they help us learn names and faces better. There are so many reasons for these directories, and they are immensely helpful. I hate to put it this way, but if you wait for me to see your photo in your obituary to help me finally learn your name and face, then it's a little too late to get to know you for your funeral Mass. Please take the time to get your picture. The last directory didn't have very many photos, and that cannot be the case this time. Please do your part in helping build this parish community by getting your photo taken.

Lastly, on a personal note, thank you for your prayers for my mom and dad. Mom is doing so much better from her fall and head injury, although still some healing to go as it takes time. Dad was up and down last week and it was pretty terrible and scary, but finally seems to have turned a corner and is showing great improvement this week. He still has some healing to go, but at least we are out of the weeds and making improvements. Thank you for your prayers and your continued prayers!

Franciscan Farewell Party and Statue Dedication

February 4, 2022

6:30 p.m.

We will begin with a small prayer service in the church to begin the blessing of the statue. Immediately following the prayer service, we will have a cocktail hour with appetizers and desserts to celebrate the gift of 160 years of Franciscans. During 2020 when they left, we were not able to do a proper goodbye and thank you to the Franciscans. This event is our opportunity to truly recognize them and thank them. This will be a formal event with a chance to say goodbye and thank the Franciscans in a real way! As part of the thank you, please come ready to hear a new opportunity of a way to memorialize your gratitude for the gift of the Franciscans over these many years.

More information to come!

As part of this event, I would like you to write BRIEFLY one memory, maybe one or two paragraphs, about a story where they touched your life and shared Christ with you. These will be shared publicly so be careful what you share. Also, if you can bring a COPY (you will not get them back) of one or two photos of memories with the Franciscans over the years at the parish. Please turn these into the Parish Office. We will also have a box in the north Gathering Space for you to drop them off.

Please RSVP to the Parish Office at 222-2898 BY February 2, 2022.

Small Groups

There are many Catholic organizations helping parishes engage the faithful making them more vibrant. Their research into successful parishes tells them that having active, faith-sharing small groups is a big factor in doing this.

Maybe you remember when St. Francis participated in the “Why Catholic” program a few years ago. Maybe your group still meets using a different format. Maybe your group would get together again if you could find another format to use.

The first step for St. Francis to put together a strong Small Group program is to take an inventory of what small groups are meeting in the parish on a regular basis now. This could be a “Why Catholic” group, a Cursillo (or similar program) prayer group, a Bible study, a book discussion group, a Lectio Divina group, or any group where faith is shared. If you happen to be meeting regularly, please have a representative contact the Parish Office. We would like to know how many are in your group, the type of group, and how often you meet. This is for information only.

There is no intention to change what your group is doing now.

* PREPARE IN CASE *

Parents, we will have a smaller cafeteria staff on Tuesday, January 18–21, due to a person being out of town for a funeral. If any other issues arise, we may ask that you pack a cold lunch for your child on short notice. We do have a couple of menu changes that may help with this potential situation, but we just want to cover all areas and give you advance notice that this may be our “Plan B” if necessary. In the event that you will need to pack a cold lunch for your child, we will send a text alert. We are currently working on a sub list for the cafeteria. If you know of a retired person, or if there is a parent who would be interested in subbing on short notice, please call the office and let us know if anyone would be available to help.

We appreciate your help in advance! Lori Shepard, Principal
