Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

JANUARY 23, 2022

Nehemiah 8:2-4a,5-6,8-10;
1 Corinthians 12:12-30;
Luke 1:1-4;4:14-21

Except for Lent and Easter, all of our Sunday Gospels will be taken from the Gospel of Luke this year. Luke is the only non-Jewish writer of any book of the Bible. He was well-educated; he was a doctor; he accompanied Paul on some of his missionary journeys. Luke has a sense of delicacy, and he often smoothes the “rough” language of Mark. He omits anything which would be offensive to good taste. His Gospel emphasizes the Lord’s mercy and forgiveness. Luke takes note of secular history, and places Jesus in historical perspective. Women play a very important part in Luke’s Gospel. Remember these characteristics as you read Luke this year.

Today’s Gospel contains the first four verses of the Gospel; then it skips to the time immediately after Jesus’ baptism by John the Baptist. Jesus goes to his hometown synagogue, opens the scroll of Isaiah to give the reading. He then sits down and proclaims that the reading has been fulfilled in their presence! The Spirit of the Lord is upon him. He is anointed to proclaim Good News to all.

The first reading today describes the renewal of the covenant under Ezra about 450 B.C. Moses had received the Torah from the Lord on Mt. Sinai about the year 1290 B.C. Then the Israelites had promised to be loyal to the covenant, but they were not. Because of their constant infidelity, the nation was destroyed, and they were captives at Babylon from 587 to 538 B.C. God delivered them; they returned home; and under Ezra they renewed their pledge of loyalty to the covenant. “Amen” means “with all my heart and soul, I agree to this!”

The second reading continues Paul’s discussion on the use of all our gifts and talents for the building up of the Church. The Church is the Body of Christ. Although we shall use the short form of the reading at Mass today, read and reflect on the longer form. Each of us receives the one Body of Christ in Holy Communion. We are united with him. Through our union with the Person or Body of Christ, we become one Body in him! Therefore we must show our unity with each other by our bonds of love and caring. Each person must seek to contribute to the upbuilding of the Body of Christ, and not to tearing it apart.

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 23, 2022

In the first reading this Sunday we hear about a Jewish liturgy. There is the reading of the law and call and response, and then the call to feast on the choicest of foods; a prefiguration of the Mass. Readings, call and response, prayers, and a meal of the choicest of foods, this is the Mass that we celebrate where we receive the choicest of foods, the Eucharist. This is just one of the moments that the Mass is prefigured in the Old Testament. Which brings us to the gospel where Jesus announces who He is, and where Jesus announces what He will do. He tells us very clearly that He is the long-awaited Messiah. That He will bring about the re-creation of the world and establish a year acceptable to the Lord, where all is forgiven, and feasting is the foundation of that year! May we realize that this is where we are today – in the year acceptable to the Lord where the Lord forgives us and feeds us with the finest food, the Eucharist.

Please make sure you get your picture taken for the directory, and please make sure you participate in the event to show our gratitude to the Franciscans. Someone asked if the Franciscans will be here, and I want you to know they all have been invited. And I hope especially all the Franciscans that were assigned here are able to come for the event. Let's make this a fitting farewell and fun event.

Small Groups

A few weeks ago, we asked for parishioners who participated in small groups to call the Parish Office and give us their information. With the feedback we have received, we know that there are small groups meeting in the parish, but there are not as many active groups as when "Why Catholic" was a program here. We want to revive small groups here at St. Francis Solanus. Our parish will be stronger and more active when this is done.

We are asking that parishioners who are willing to lead a small group to call the office and give them your information. If you already know who will be in your group, please give them those names too. We want to help your group be successful. Fr. Arisman has found a good training program to help with this success. When the group is formed, we will also help you find a program that interests the group. This is not meant to be one size fits all.

Please take this to your prayer time. Ask yourself if this is something that will deepen your relationship with Jesus. Also, Fr. Arisman, the priests, the deacons, and other parish leaders may suggest that you consider this. Please do so.

Meeting in a small group (5-6 members) is fun and can be important to a persons faith life.

Did You Know??

St. Francis Solanus has our own app for iPhone and Android smart phones. This allows us to better communicate with you throughout the week and keep you updated with relevant parish news or updates. The app is very well designed and very intuitive. It will be a great resource for parishioners by providing daily Mass readings, Catholic news and prayers, convenient prayer and Confession reminders, our bulletins, and more.

We hope our app will be a tool for fostering stronger parish life at St. Francis Solanus and better engaging the New Evangelization.

Step 1: Download the app from the App store for iPhones or iPads. Download the app from Google Play for Androids or tablets. Search for myParish app.

When asked about notifications – respond “Allow.” When asked if app can use location information respond “Allow for it to find St. Francis data.” (If you travel and would like to use to find a nearby church, “Discover Mass” allow when using the app.)

Step 2: Enter or choose St. Francis Solanus.

Step 3: Tap on the 3 lines at top left. Choose Sign in. Set up your account with your email and name, etc.

Step 4: Tap the 4 squares icon at top right and explore the buttons!

Note: You will get notifications in the same manner you get texts only when a new message is sent.

Franciscan Farewell Party and Statue Dedication

February 4, 2022

6:30 p.m.

We will begin with a small prayer service in the church to begin the blessing of the statue. Immediately following the prayer service, we will have a cocktail hour with appetizers and desserts to celebrate the gift of 160 years of Franciscans. During 2020 when they left, we were not able to do a proper goodbye and thank you to the Franciscans. This event is our opportunity to truly recognize them and thank them. This will be a formal event with a chance to say goodbye and thank the Franciscans in a real way! As part of the thank you, please come ready to hear a new opportunity of a way to memorialize your gratitude for the gift of the Franciscans over these many years.

More information to come!

As part of this event, I would like you to write BRIEFLY one memory, maybe one or two paragraphs, about a story where they touched your life and shared Christ with you. These will be shared publicly so be careful what you share. Also, if you can bring a COPY (you will not get them back) of one or two photos of memories with the Franciscans over the years at the parish. Please turn these into the Parish Office. We will also have a box in the north Gathering Space for you to drop them off.

Please RSVP to the Parish Office at 222-2898 BY February 2, 2022.
