FROM THE RECTOR – Most Holy Family

It is fitting to celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family precisely because this celebration reinforces our faith in the Incarnation and further expands on the implications of God becoming man. The Lord's presence in the flesh serves not only to reconcile us to the Father but also to restore mankind's dignity. As a consequence, every aspect of human life presents an opportunity to make manifest the glory of God. The human condition and all its aspects no longer need be drudgery and toil. Family life, when it is modeled after that of the Holy Family, opens up opportunities to grow in virtue. Our Collect and Lessons today remind us that through the virtues of charity, obedience, mutual help and regard the Holy Family made family life holy. As always, we are presented the chance to practice these same virtues in our own families. Through the intercession of Jesus, Mary and Joseph let us courageously work to redeem family life from the pernicious lies of society and culture. By lives of virtue, let us find joy and peace in our own families and in the family of Holy Mother the Church

EPIPHANY WATER/CHALK AND SALT

For those who were not able to be present for the celebration of the Epiphany of Our Lord, there is still blessed water and chalk available. There are also water bottles available for anyone to use. These items may be found on the Oratory table in the vestibule of the Church

IN GRATITUDE

I want to express my gratitude to all those who assisted during the liturgical celebrations for the Christmas, the Octave of Christmas, Epiphany and the Octave of Epiphany: to the servers, MCs, sacristans, musicians, schola, choir and those who assisted with the decorations. The Oratory continues to be blessed with abundant graces made manifest in the generosity of so many of the faithful of our community who make it possible for us to give our best to God in our prayer, praise and adoration of Him.

PRO-LIFE INFORMATION

January 22, 2022 marks the 49th anniversary of the Supreme Court decisions that legalized abortion in the United States (Roe v. Wade & Doe v. Bolton). Since establishing the first U.S. diocesan pro-life office in 1973, the Archdiocese of St. Louis has consistently marked this tragic occasion with activities that focus on what hopeful, faith-filled people of God do to build a "culture of life and civilization of love" and accompany those facing unplanned pregnancies.

Please consult the Archdiocesan website for more information about the various pro-life activities during the month of January. (<https://www.archstl.org/respect-life-apostolate>).

CATECHESIS ON CONFESSION

It is a humbling experience being charged with the responsibility to hear confession and to dispense God's justice and mercy. The beauty of the sacrament is clear in that often the lines are long for confession here at the Oratory. This is a blessed problem to have. It is hoped during the Lenten season to offer times for confessions that are advantageous for the whole community. As we strive for greater holiness through the remission of our sins, I want to offer again a few words on the nature of confessions

The Catechism of the Council of Trent provides a thorough and complete explication of the Sacrament of Penance. I want to draw particular attention to the exhortation that confession should be complete and entire. The Church teaches us that we are responsible for confessing all of our mortal sins in both number (how often) and kind (nature of the sin itself). As such when we come for confession, we should not only present those sins that are on our hearts or that have easily come to mind but also confess all sins we can recall after a thorough examination of conscience.

Moreover, please keep in mind that if we are aware of mortal sin, we should not present ourselves for Holy Communion; rather, we should approach the sacrament of confession at the first available opportunity, confess our sins and only then come forward for Holy Communion. One should never feel embarrassed or ashamed to remain in the pew during the reception of Holy Communion because there are a host of reasons why people refrain from receiving Holy Communion and not all of those reasons are connected to mortal sin.

While the Oratory has increased the times for confession, I am aware that these times may not always be convenient for the various schedules we keep. If the times for confession do not work well with your schedule, I am always willing to meet you in Church for the sacrament itself. Finally, I encourage everyone to access a thorough and complete guide for examining your conscience. This will assist you in recalling your serious sins as well as venial sins which also work against growing in holiness
