February 20, Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time: 1 Sm 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23 / 1 Cor 15:45-49 / Lk 6:27-38
 Jesus' message in today's Gospel is a countercultural one. "Love your enemies," He says. "Lend, expecting nothing back." Jesus' message — and His example — is a selfless one. If we expect to grow in virtue, then we have to practice humility, generosity, and charity. The world still preaches the message of an eye for an eye, but we are better than that, aren't we? Regardless of how a person has treated us, we are still called to will the greatest good for him or her. Isn't that exactly what Jesus did for us? Aren't we called to love in extraordinary ways? Jesus says, "For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." The more we give, the more we are Given.

PSR Classes
Morning and evening classes will be held at their regular times this week. The 3rd and 4th grade students will attend Mass at 10:05 a.m. on Thursday.

Mark your Calendars: Totus Tuus will be held June 26–July 1 this summer.

Questions for Faith Sharing
The theme for this Sunday's readings is: Do unto others as you would have them do to you. Question for Adults: Jesus says, "Give, and gifts will be given to you." When have you experienced your generosity coming back to you? Question for Youth: How do you follow Jesus' teaching to "bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you?"
Lord, you treat us all with mercy as you forgive our sins and inequities. Send us your grace, so that we may pray for our enemies and want only the best for all people.

"May Christ be heard in our language, may Christ be seen in our life, may He be perceived in our hearts."
~ St. Peter Damian
