Archbishop's Call to Share – Maybe contributing to the Archbishop's Call to Share appeal feels like a risk. The key, however, is to never forget that we're not doing this alone. We're taking part in the Call to Share appeal as part of an archdiocesan community we trust, and with the love and support of a Lord who never leaves us. When we change our perspective from "fear" to "trust," how does our willingness to give change? Take some time today to ground yourself in trust of the Lord, and see how your heart responds.

Ever Wanted to Become a Knight?

Basketball Free Throw Challenge Today!!

This free contest is open to any child between ages 9–14 on Sunday, February 6, 12:30 p.m. at Louisburg Middle School. Kids compete by age groups and genders. The goal is to provide an athletic outlet, and encourage sportsmanship and healthy competition. Usually finished in less than an hour. Bring your kids and their friends! Sponsored by the Knights of Columbus.

A Thought to Ponder ~ During these times of fairly widespread infection, I invite each of us to ponder what we can do to help keep each other safe. I am not requiring anything of anyone at this time, and there are no county, state, or federal mandates effective on us.

However, I would ask you to be mindful that if somebody in your home is sick with the flu or has tested positive for any of the strains of COVID, that it would be prudent not to attend Mass until their symptoms have improved. The fact that a person may not feel sick does not preclude them from carrying it to others. Pax! – Fr. Bruce Ansems
