Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FEBRUARY 27, 2022

Sirach 27:4-7; 1 Corinthians 15:54-58;
Luke 6:39-45

How often we open our mouths to insert our feet! The author of the first reading tells us that we reveal ourselves to others each time we speak. Sad to say, we don't reveal ourselves to ourselves!

In the Gospel, Jesus asks us why we see the speck in our neighbor's eye and fail to notice the plank in our own eye. The old Greek philosopher said, "Know thyself." That's the first step toward integrity or maturity or just being a virtuous person.

Cervantes remarked that to know oneself was the most difficult lesson in the world to learn! The old Scottish poet, Robert Burns, said: "Oh wad some power the giftie gie us To see ourself as others see us!" ("O would that God some grace would give us to see ourselves as others see us.")

The point is that not too many of us really want to face ourselves honestly. We might discover that we are boring windbags, when we thought we were brilliant conversationalists. We might find that we were idle gossipers, when we thought we were conscientiously interested in others.

We might find that we are attention seekers or victims or whiners or braggarts or hypocrites or that we have a lot of bad traits. But no one wants to tell us the real truth. No one wants to tell us that we have bad breath or that we have annoying habits.

Perhaps it's best that we don't always tell the truth, for most of us really don't want to know ourselves. But Christ dares us to know ourselves truly, to face ourselves honestly. If we find ourselves wanting, he still loves us. He forgives us. He empowers us to change. He can give us strength to overcome our rough spots if only we face ourselves honestly.

Our mothers probably told us, "When you are perfect, you can correct others." Good advice! Let's know ourselves and correct ourselves. That will be a full time job; we won't have time to search for specks in others' eyes.

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate the 8th Sunday in Ordinary time. An interesting fact about our celebration of the 8th Sunday is the fact that it is rather rare that we celebrate it. Because Easter is so late this year, these extra Sundays of Ordinary time are added to the liturgical year. Apparently, we have celebrated this 8th Sunday of Ordinary time in 2001 and 2019, so you see we do not hear the readings very often in our liturgical year.

As I read over the first reading for our Mass, I had to smile as I find this reading so realistic in human life. The book of Sirach confronts the use of speech. It says, “When a sieve is shaken, the husks appear; so do one’s faults when one speaks. The fruit of a tree shows the care it has had, so too does one’s speech disclose the bent of one’s mind. Praise no one before he speaks, for it is then that people are tested.” The shortened version would be that our language reveals our character; what we speak unveils our thinking. Our language often reveals the deepest recesses of our minds and hearts, both good and bad. So if there is any warning given, our reading tells us to be careful in what we say. Perhaps as we reflect upon this reading, ask yourselves what is our language when we get angry; or how does our language reflect our frustrations. Unfortunately, when we lose control of our feelings, it is reflected in our language and that is not always the greatest.

This Wednesday, March 2, is Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent. Our Mass schedule for this day will be the following:

- 8:30 a.m. – Mass with the Grade School Students
10:00 a.m. – Mass at QND in the QND gym
12:10 p.m. – Mass
6:30 p.m. – Mass including PSR students

With the start of Lent, I am planning on continuing the tradition of having an evening Mass during the weekdays of Lent at 6:30 p.m. And to encourage the celebration of the Sacrament of Reconciliation (confession), we will be hearing individual confessions each weekday evening from 5:45–6:15 p.m. This time will allow our 2nd graders to celebrate their First Confession along with encouraging their families to celebrate this same Sacrament.

Also, immediately after the weekday Masses on Tuesday and Thursdays, we will be sharing The Creed, a new film series by Bishop Robert Barron. This film is used to help us rediscover the great intellectual and spiritual depths of Christian doctrine and reclaim the unity, clarity, and conviction of the Christian faith. So please join us each Tuesday and Thursday, beginning March 3.

Also, for those who are interested, there are books in the Narthex for your use during Lent. It is called The Art of Living, by Edward Sri. This book presents the Cardinal Virtues and the Freedom to Love. Please take one per family if you are interested in using it during the season of Lent to grow as a person.

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

PROUD TO HELP OUR COMMUNITY SOUPER BOWL OF CARING CAMPAIGN

We challenged our students to try to top the donations collected last year (7000 items) during the Souper Bowl of Caring Campaign. Our faculty and students met the challenge by collecting 7506 items. Wow!! The generosity shown is truly overwhelming!! We wish that we could have shared with parents the smiles and laughter that we witnessed every morning as the children brought in their items and helped stack them in the gym lobby. They truly had fun adding items each morning. Just think of all the families in our community that this challenge will help and hopefully bring a little comfort to their lives.

We congratulate Mrs. Simons' 6th grade class! Their classroom won the out-of-dress-code week for bringing in the most items per student. Their class brought in 1741 canned goods which came to an average of 97 items per student! Way to go! They were awarded a week of out-of-dress-code for their efforts.

Because of the tremendous effort given by all we are also rewarding the entire school for their outstanding participation in this worthwhile event with an out-of-dress-code day.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

Also, rice bowls are available to our parish families to use during the season of Lent. You are invited to take one and place it on your dining table, and then as you eat to be conscious of those in the world who go to bed hungry each day. The intention is to pray for them and in whatever way possible to sacrifice some of your change each day and place it in the rice bowl. In doing so, you are creating an awareness in your family for those who are without and provide an avenue to make a sacrifice for them during the days of Lent. Your contributions will be collected after Easter.

I also ask you to review the Lenten regulations and to make a serious attempt to live by them. Also, even though our young people are not bound by some of them, nevertheless I challenge these young people to live by them also. If parents abstain from meat on Fridays, I would expect the children to do the same. Same with fasting. These Lenten regulations will not cause much harm to anyone if we live by them as families.

Parish in Action

February, 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Pope Francis wrote of our need not only to care for people with disabilities but also "to ensure their 'active participation in the civil and ecclesial community'" (Fratelli Tutti, no. 98).

People with disabilities in Belarus face challenges of social isolation, especially if they rely on wheelchairs. If they lack close relatives, friends, or guardians to help them, they can find it difficult to access services, information, and accessible transportation. As a result, they often lack the opportunity to build relationships, work in groups, and meet their social and spiritual needs. These challenges become even greater in times of disruption, such as the political unrest and protests surrounding the national elections in Belarus in 2020 and continuing into 2021.

The Tabita program – an initiative begun in June 2018 that is run by Caritas Belarus and supported through funding from the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe – assists people with disabilities by bringing them together to socialize, share their experiences, and pray in an environment where volunteers, as well as a volunteer coordinator and a part-time social worker, are available to assess and assist participants with their physical, social, psychological, and spiritual needs.

When you support the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe, you help programs like Tabita break down the walls of isolation separating people with disabilities from the community and from each other.

Please be generous to the collection, because your support helps the Church in Belarus alleviate the loneliness and isolation facing people with disabilities. Consider giving at Mass or through your parish online giving platform. #iGiveCatholicTogether also accepts funds for the collection.

For more information about the collection and who it supports, visit www.usccb.org/ceee. Thank you for your help to restore the Church and build the future in Central and Eastern Europe.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
