Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FEBRUARY 6, 2022

Isaiah 6:1-2a,3-8; 1 Corinthians 15:1-11;
 Luke 5:1-11

From all eternity, God knew you! From all eternity, he planned to create you! From all eternity, he called you to be perfect as he is perfect! Everyone of us has a call from God to be a saint. Everyone of us has a call from God to serve him in a way which is unique: No other human being who will ever live will ever be able to give God the specific honor and glory that you, in your uniqueness can!

Today we reflect on our individual and specific call from God. What does God want you to do with your life? To know this and to follow it is the only way you'll ever be happy in this life and in the next! The first reading of Mass tells of the call of Isaiah. The scene is the splendor of God's glory in the temple. Isaiah protests that he is a sinner; God cleanses his sin, and asks whom he will send. Isaiah answers what we must answer: "Here I am, send me!"

Paul had been a terrible persecutor of the Church. Yet God called him to conversion of heart. Paul was unworthy, but God called him to be an apostle. Paul recognizes his sinfulness, but says that God's grace can do anything . . . even make him an apostle.

The Gospel tells of the call of Peter. We can hardly imagine a less likely person to be an apostle. He had hoof in mouth disease. He was impetuous. He was dense. He was good at fishing, but little else. He asks the Lord to leave him alone, for he is a sinner. Yet Jesus calls him to be "father of men."

Reflect on your own personal call from God. Especially today reflect and pray about our need for young men to respond to Christ's call to his priesthood. Jesus Christ is calling some from this very parish to be priests. Pray that they will have the strength to answer his call. May they – and all of us – answer God's call as Isaiah did: "Here I am, send me!"

What are our excuses for not doing God's work? Lack of talent? Sinfulness? Weakness? The Lord won't allow our excuses. He forgives. He empowers. He enables us to do things beyond our natural abilities. Don't refuse him.

SNOW DAYS! Snow is so beautiful and yet so much work. The nice thing I think snow does is slow us down. When we get these snow days, pause, rest, and enjoy the break. At least slow down, and rest in the Lord. We have a tendency to fill up and fill up our schedules and lives. It's good to pause and rest, and most especially to rest in Him. On days of rest know that it isn't just not doing things, but for the purpose of our well-being and recovery. Add a little prayer to the rest and it becomes even more effective. Read a Scripture passage, and say thank you to the Lord for the pause and rest and snow. In one of the Psalms we say, "Snow and ice bless the Lord."

Isaiah peers into the heavenly liturgy and we echo those words at every Mass we hear, "Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts." Paul tells us very clearly that God's grace doesn't just cover us, but it is effective. It makes us new. The gospel tells us that no matter how useless a work we do feels, when it is done in the Lord, God showers His abundance down upon you. His abundance is too much for us to handle on our own that we need each other to help in sharing in God's abundance together. We need those around us in the pews at Mass at our parish. As we wrap up Catholic Schools week, we remind ourselves, and most especially our parents at the school, that we need you at Mass as Catholic education begins with Sunday Mass. It is not enough for you to send your kids to a Catholic school, and it is not enough that your children go to Mass every week. If you aren't bringing them to Sunday Mass every weekend, you are failing them completely. We all must answer to the Lord for how we teach our children how to love the Lord or how we didn't teach them. Challenge yourself now. Teach your children the importance of Sunday Mass. Otherwise, it's just a private education, as Catholic education is only fully effective if it begins in the home with you. We need you here and you need the parish here all to support and pray and love one another. We need each other.

Lastly, this past Friday we had our farewell to our beloved Franciscans. We never really got to have a proper goodbye because of COVID, so I have been looking for a way to do that at a time when things were open enough to gather to truly say thank you to them. We dedicated the statue in the entry way and had a reception to enjoy the stories of those who have shared with us and to spend this time in thanking them. We also launched an endowed scholarship for our school to memorialize all we have been given by our beloved religious at St. Francis Solanus School. It will always be available to give to, and to remember it in your wills. This is a great way to remember all you have been given by our religious in your education and formation.

Small Groups

A few weeks ago, we asked for parishioners who participated in small groups to call the Parish Office and give us their information. With the feedback we have received, we know that there are small groups meeting in the parish but there are not as many active groups as when “Why Catholic” was a program here. We want to revive small groups here at St. Francis Solanus. Our parish will be stronger and more active when this is done.

We are asking that parishioners who are willing to lead a small group to call the office and give them your information. If you already know who will be in your group, please give them those names too. We want to help your group be successful.

Fr. Arisman has found a good training program to help with this success. When the group is formed, we will also help you find a program that interests the group. This is not meant to be one size fits all.

Please take this to your prayer time. Ask yourself if this is something that will deepen your relationship with Jesus.

Also, Fr. Arisman, the priests, the deacons, and other parish leaders may suggest that you consider this. Please do so.

Meeting in a small group (5–6 members) is fun and can be important to a persons faith life.

Women's Cursillo #350

Women's Cursillo #350 will be held February 17–20 at the Franciscan Retreat Center located at 1909 N. 18th Street in Quincy. For more information or to receive an application, please call Dwight and Barb Seeley at 217-224-5615 or go to www.quincycursillo.com "applications" and print one.

3rd Grade Confirmation & First Communion Retreat

On Saturday, February 12, we will be hosting a retreat at St. Francis for our 3rd Grade School and PSR children. Please pray for these children as they prepare to deepen their faith and become more faithful disciples of Christ.

Hospital Ministry

Lay Eucharistic Ministers are asked to consider expanding their ministry by providing Holy Eucharist to Catholic patients at Blessing Hospital. Eucharistic Ministers usually volunteer monthly for at least two shifts (about 2 hours each). They visit patients, pray with them, distribute communion, and make priest referrals for those in need. If you are interested in learning more, please contact your pastor or call Prudence Bickhaus-Martin at Blessing Volunteer Services, 223-8400, ext. 6825.

Protecting God's Children Sessions

Keeping our children safe is of the utmost importance at St. Francis Solanus and the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois. That is why we offer multiple child safety training sessions over the course of the year. If you are a volunteer, staff member or employee of St. Francis Solanus Church or School, or have contact with children in any way, you are required by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops to take this training.

Session Schedule:

Wednesday, February 23, 2022

Wednesday, April 27, 2022

Sessions are held in the St. Francis Parish Hall at 6:30 p.m.
