Second Sunday of Lent

MARCH 13, 2022

Genesis 15:5-12, 17-18; Philippians 3:17—4:1
Luke 9:28b-36

Close your eyes; imagine yourself on Mt. Tabor with the Lord Jesus Christ as he is transfigured in glory. His divinity shines through his humanity. Brilliant, awesome, radiant, ecstatic. How can you describe the scene? But wait: Only three disciples ever saw this glory, and they only saw it once in their lives. Jesus is the divine Son of God at all times; but he did not show it.

Now imagine yourself transfigured in glory! Yes, you are a child of God; he lives in you; you share his life through baptism. You are a temple of the Holy Spirit, a member of Christ's own Body. But you can't see that glory; you must have faith to realize your dignity.

If you had this kind of faith, how would you act? Would not every thought, word, and deed of yours be different if you realized the glory of God within you? Well, realize it! Think of it! And act accordingly. By your baptism, you received this glory. You may have hidden that glory by indifference, weakness, or sin. But now is the time to repent, restore, and renew.

Abraham saw the glory of God when he made a covenant with him. God promised to be Abraham's God; he promised to bless him. Abraham promised to be faithful. We enter the covenant with God through Christ in our baptism. Let us be loyal.

In the second reading, Paul reminds us that we, too, will be transfigured: The Lord will give a new form to these bodies of ours so that his glory shines through. Let us live, even now, as citizens of heaven.

In the Gospel scene, the "cloud" is the cloud of God's glory. It appears in the Exodus, engulfing the tabernacle; it appears when Solomon dedicates the temple; it will also be the cloud into which Jesus enters in the ascension. The three "booths" of Peter probably refer to the Jewish feast of Succoth, which was the most joyful and glorious of Jewish festivals. Peter, in his limping way, is probably saying, "This is better than Succoth! Don't let it end!" Moses and Elijah summarize the entire old covenant: the Law and the Prophets.

Second Sunday of Lent, March 13, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

Have you ever had a life changing experience? Some people might say that a life changing experience was getting married, or perhaps the birth of the first child, or even a tragic accident that might have shaken us at the very core of our being. There are many differing human experiences that might challenge us, but very few that are life changing of themselves. In our gospel we find one of those life changing experiences of the three apostles: Peter, James, and John. Jesus had done some amazing things as these apostles witnessed miracles from healing the sick, calming the sea, and even raising the dead. But none of these experiences would shake them at the core of their very being until they accompanied Jesus up the mountain to pray. While praying, they witnessed something beyond their imaginations, for they saw Jesus being transfigured before their eyes, and for the first time, got a glimpse of Jesus' divinity shining through His humanity. And all that the Scriptures could say in describing such an experience, "His face changed in appearance and His clothing became dazzling white." The first reaction of the apostles were that they were getting a taste of heaven on earth. Yes, God's glory was there and they didn't want to leave. Then a voice from the heavens proclaimed who this Jesus was, "This is my chosen Son, listen to Him." Can you imagine what they felt, the experience that embraced them? This was one of those life changing moments from which they would draw strength when the cross became a struggle for them. And then the gospel in a few words states, "They fell silent and did not at that time tell anyone what they had seen." But it would be remembered.

Next Sunday, March 20, we will be having one of two community Penance Services at 2:00 p.m. in St. Anthony Church. The other service will be at St. Peter Church on Sunday, April 10, also at 2:00 p.m. Please use these opportunities to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation and truly prepare your hearts and lives for the Easter celebrations. There will be a number of priests present for individual confessions.

This next week, our students, teachers, and administrators will be on spring break. Even though school will not be in session, it might give an opportunity for grace for many to attend the Mass either in the morning or in the evening at 6:30 p.m. We will also continue to view the Bishop Robert Baron's series on the Nicene Creed after our Masses on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Come and join us as we grow in our faith and grace before God.

"As part of our diocese's response to Pope Francis' call to provide input for the Synod of Bishops that will take place at the Vatican in October of 2023, I invite all the faithful of our diocese to a diocesan wide listening session on Sunday, March 27, at 2:00 p.m. Groups will gather locally in the deaneries and connect together with me and across the deaneries by video." This was the invite from Bishop Paprocki in the latest Catholic Times. Please read for more information. As the Quincy deanery, we will gather at the St. Francis Parish Center, Quincy, from 2:00–4:00 p.m. Anyone interested from the parish is invited.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

For the past year and a half, we have been looking for a parish nurse to work part-time with our shut-ins and elderly of our parish. Since COVID has limited our access to these parishioners, we have been unable to serve them as I think we should. Since Kathy Harman retired, we have been trying our best to find this part-time person. Finally, we have found her. Her name is Rebecca Knuffman, and she comes bringing an enthusiasm to learn and a willingness to serve. We praise and thank God for bringing Rebecca to us. The first couple of months will be a learning experience for her before she takes on her full duties in late spring.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: The crumbling old church desperately needed remodeling, so the preacher made an impassioned appeal, obviously directed at the wealthiest man in town. At the end of the message, the rich man stood up and announced, “Pastor, I will contribute $1,000.” Just then a chunk of plaster fell from the ceiling and struck the rich man on the shoulder. He promptly stood up again and shouted “Pastor, I will increase my donation to $5,000.” Before he could sit back down, plaster fell on him again, and again he virtually screamed, “Pastor, I will double my last pledge.”

As he sat down, a larger chunk of plaster fell, hitting him on the head. He stood up once more and hollered, “Pastor, I will give $20,000.”

At this a deacon of the church shouted, “Hit him again, Lord, hit him again.”

Calvary, St. Boniface, and St. Peter Cemetery Clean-up

The Clean-up this year for Calvary, St. Boniface, and St. Peter's Cemeteries will be held March 28–April 1. You must have everything off the graves by Sunday, March 27, as the clean-up will start early on March 28. Please do not replace flowers until the clean-up is over on April 1.

You may leave the shepherds hooks, but clean-up is a good time to take them home and repaint them. Also, if they are rusting you don't want the stone damaged due to the rust dripping on the stone!

Please do not replace flowers until the clean-up is over. We suggest you mark your flowers with the name on the stone and your contact number so if they come off there is a better chance of having them returned to the right spot. (Markings should be weather proof if possible.)

Easter Flowers

To make a donation for Easter flowers in memory of a loved one, please fill out the envelope in your packet or, for those who do not receive envelopes, please put your donation in a plain envelope labeled "Easter Flowers" along with this form and place it in the collection by Sunday, April 10.
