Fourth Sunday of Lent

MARCH 27, 2022

Joshua 5:9a,10-12; 2 Corinthians 5:17-21;
Luke 15:1-3,11-32

[There are alternate Biblical texts that may be used for the first and second readings.]

The Fourth Sunday of Lent is usually called “Laetare Sunday.” (It’s pronounced “lay-TAH-ray.”) It means “Rejoice!” It is the first word of the Latin Entrance Antiphon or Introit.

Why do we rejoice during Lent? Our Opening Prayer says that we rejoice in God’s word. Our first reading speaks of the joy of the Israelites as they finally entered the Promised Land. Our Responsorial Psalm tells us to look to the Lord that we may be radiant with joy. The second reading encourages us to rejoice because we are a new creation. At the end of the Gospel, the Father says that “we must celebrate and rejoice” because the lost is found, the dead has risen.

There are other reasons for joy: In the ancient Church, the Lenten fast (and every day was a fast day) did not begin until Monday after the Fourth Sunday of Lent. Today, then, was a kind of “Mardi Gras” — a day of rejoicing before the Lenten Fast. Still later in the history of the Church, people rejoiced because Lent is half finished; we are half way to Easter.

Our primary reason for rejoicing, however, must always be God’s unlimited and unconditional love of us. Even when we were God’s enemies because of sin, God loved us and sent his Son to save us. Even when we are weak and when we fail, the Lord still reaches out to us with his love and mercy — just as the Father in the parable.

Do you know of someone who is burdened with sin? Tell him/her of God’s love. Do you know of someone who thinks he/she is nothing and that life is worthless? Tell him/her that God loves him/her with an everlasting love. Do you think that you are so rotten that not even God can help you? Read the story of the “Prodigal Son” and learn the love of our heavenly Father. Rejoice! God loves you! He can heal you and make you a person of joy!

Fourth Sunday of Lent, March 27, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

As we gather to celebrate together on this last weekend in our month of March, the liturgical calendar says that we are celebrating the Fourth Sunday in our season of Lent. As you should know, the Fourth Sunday is traditionally called “Laetare Sunday.” This is considered the midpoint in our season of Lent and the Church takes a break from its somber tone of fasting, prayer, and almsgiving and invites us to “rejoice” because our faith gives us hope that there is new life because of what our Lord has done for us. And the word to rejoice, when translated, comes to us as “Laetare.” If we were to look at the entrance antiphon for this particular Mass, it reads like this: “Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning.” And so, today is Laetare Sunday, a day in which we rejoice for each of us is coming home to the Lord. Perhaps a theme for this Mass is found in our second reading for our Mass this weekend. It is from Paul’s second letter to the Corinthians, where Paul writes: “Whoever is in Christ is a new creation; the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come. And all this is from God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Christ.” This my brothers and sisters is the cause for us to rejoice today and throughout our entire lives. It is not what we have done but what Christ has done for us – reconciling us to God. To reflect His attitude of rejoicing, the priest will be wearing rose colored vestments.

We want to welcome this weekend the Newman Singers from the Newman Catholic Student Center of the University of Iowa, in Iowa City, Iowa. We had this weekend scheduled with them months before the “listening sessions” with our bishop were announced. It was not fitting to cancel this concert as it had been scheduled, so those who can and want to attend are encouraged to do so. This group will also be singing at all of our Masses. Under the direction of Joe Mattingly, this group has traveled extensively, appearing in churches, schools, and conventions, sharing their gift of music. Then at 3:00 p.m. they will present their concert in St. Peter Church. Freewill donations will be accepted at the concert. Everyone is invited to attend and enjoy the musical talents of this young group of individuals.

On this same Sunday, I am asking any interested parishioner, and/or anyone in a leadership position in our parish, to join me and the other priests and parishioners in our Quincy deanery to a “listening session” at St. Francis Parish Center at 2:00 p.m. The bishop will be speaking to us virtually and then will invite us to share with each other several points for which he would like our input. I included some of the topics in last week’s bulletin. This is all in preparation for the worldwide synod that Pope Francis has called for later this year. Very much a part of a synod is dialogue, discussion, and collaboration. And that is what is our hope as we spend two hours together with other Catholics throughout our diocese. So please make time to join us for the afternoon. We hope to bring this meeting to a conclusion by 4:00 p.m. Again, I invite you for this listening session with Bishop Paprocki. Please reserve this time and join us as we try to reflect what it means to be a Church.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

I also bring your attention to another series of “listening sessions,” only this series has to do with envisioning a new way of thinking regarding Catholic schools. For years, we have been blessed with parochial schools, meaning schools supported by a particular parish. The sad reality of this approach is that we have seen too many Catholic schools close because of financial hardships. According to statistics, in 1960–70 enrollment was more than 5 million students in more than 11,000 Catholic schools. Between 2019–20, nationwide enrollment in Catholic schools dropped by 110,000 to about 1.6 million students. There were 11,000 Catholic schools in 1970; today there are 5,981 schools. Because of these stats, a new approach needs to be envisioned in order to continue this great legacy of Catholic education. And so I invite you to these listening sessions next Friday and/or Saturday at any of the Churches. Times and places are in our bulletin. Please consult.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A young executive was leaving the office late one evening when he found the CEO standing in front of the shredder with a piece of paper in hand.

“Listen,” said the CEO, “this is a very sensitive and important document here, and my secretary has gone for the night. Can you make this thing work?”

“Certainly,” said the young executive.

He turned the machine on, inserted the paper, and pressed the start button.

“Excellent, excellent!” said the CEO as his paper disappeared inside the machine. “I just need one copy.”

Lent, 2022

Dear Friends in Christ,

This Lent, our community is once again participating in CRS (Catholic Relief Services) Rice Bowl, a program that invites us to reflect on the challenges of global hunger - and our Gospel call to care for our global human family.

CRS Rice Bowl gives us a wonderful opportunity to encounter different people from around the world, know more about their lives, and recognize them as our sisters and brothers. We will see how, through our prayer, we encounter Jesus, who is present in the face of every member of our human family. When we fast, we encounter the obstacles that prevent us from fully loving God and our neighbor. And when we give alms, we share in solidarity with those who need our support. With this collection, we will be supporting people from around the world but also people within our diocese as 25% of this collection stays local to help those in need.

By joining our prayers, fasts, and alms this Lent with those of other parishes and Catholic schools in the United States, we will help millions of women, men, and children around the world whose economic challenges have been exacerbated by the pandemic. Together as a Church, through CRS Rice Bowl, we can contribute to the efforts of those who seek to build a better world for themselves and their communities.

CRS Rice Bowl provides many resources for daily reflection throughout the liturgical season. Consider these suggestions in your family's Lenten plan:

- Use your CRS Rice Bowl and Lenten Calendar each day to guide your prayer, fasting, and almsgiving.
- Read the Stories of Hope and daily reflections to inspire your Lenten journey.
- Use the CRS Rice Bowl recipes to prepare simple, meatless meals on the Fridays of Lent to eat in solidarity with our sisters and brothers around the world.
- Visit www.crsricebowl.org to watch videos of the people and communities you support through your Lenten gifts to CRS Rice Bowl.

Your sacrifices during this holy season have the power to change lives by providing enough nutritious food for families to thrive. And by practicing the pillars of Lent through CRS Rice Bowl, I hope both your faith and connection to our one human family deepens. Thank you for participating in CRS Rice Bowl with your family.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois
