Third Sunday of Lent

MARCH 20, 2022

Exodus 3:1-8a,13-15;
1 Corinthians 10:1-6,10-12; Luke 13:1-9

[There are alternate Biblical texts that may be used for the first and second readings.]

“Get with the program!” might sum up the theme of today’s Mass.

The first reading describes Moses’ encounter with the Lord in the burning bush. The Lord calls on Moses to return to Egypt to lead the Israelites out of slavery. Moses is an escaped felon. He has a good thing going. He has married well, and would be perfectly content to live the rest of his days in the land of Midian.

Here, and elsewhere, Moses puts up every possible objection as to why he should not return to Egypt. God reveals his name as “I AM” or “he who is, who was, and who will never cease to be.” This is the Hebrew word “Yahweh.” (So sacred is the Name that even today Jews will never pronounce it! We might well imitate their reverence!)

In the second reading, Paul draws an analogy for the Corinthians. They had grown smug and self-satisfied. They had been baptized. They had received the Holy Spirit. They had the Eucharist. Paul tells them that all this is worthless unless they show forth the good fruit of virtue — especially charity. He says that the Israelites in the desert were “baptized” in Moses (when they passed through the Red Sea); they had spiritual food and drink (water from the rock and manna); the cloud of God’s presence was with them.

But they were not pleasing to God! They were grippers, whiners, and rebels. It is an object lesson not only to the Corinthians but to us. (Jewish tradition said that the rock followed them throughout forty years’ wandering, and that they always had fresh water. Paul goes a step further and says the rock was Christ!)

The Gospel is not one of the best in the lectionary, but its meaning is clear: Some people think that catastrophes happen because of sins. Jesus uses some examples known to his hearers and says that they weren’t any worse sinners than other people.

All are called to bear good fruit. If a fruit tree doesn’t bear fruit, you prune it and fertilize it. If it still doesn’t bear fruit, you cut it down. This will be our lot unless we bear good fruit. Get with the program! Stop your whining and griping! Stop hesitating! Start bearing the good fruit of righteousness in the community of faith!

INSPIRING FAITH, KNOWLEDGE & SERVICE

March 14, 2022

Dear Members of St. Francis School and Parish Family,

I have been blessed over the years to have had the honor and privilege to work with such wonderful people here at St. Francis in Catholic education. It has been more than a team effort; it has been a family. Our end goal has always been to provide the spiritual guidance, social and emotional support, and academic excellence for each one of our students. I feel the Lord has been with us each step of the way.

The journey has been joyful, yet challenging at times, but always rewarding! I am so very thankful for the many opportunities that the Lord has provided me throughout the years, and as I turn 65 in the near future, I am ready to take a step back and transition into retirement. I will be happy to stay on and take the role of Principal Mentor, as the new Principal steps into the role. I hope to provide a strong foundation for him/her to take the necessary steps to continue to lead St. Francis to the next level of success.

Much progress has been made over the last 9 years since I have been here, but there is still much work to be done. We are always striving to improve at St. Francis, and we will move into the next school year with confidence and assurance that we will continue to provide a quality Catholic education for our students that will enable them to be strong, productive members in our community, and the future leaders of our Church.

I thank you all for the love and support you have shared with me over the years. Thank you to the pastors I have worked with for their tremendous support! I am eager to spend more time with my family, especially my grandson, who is 10 months old! My heart will always hold a special place for St. Francis, and I look forward to supporting the next Principal who will lead us into the future.

Warm

Regards,

Lori Shepard, Principal

Solemnities in Lent! Some have asked the question about what we do when a solemnity falls on a Friday during Lent. Jesus gives us the answer in the gospels, when He answers the Pharisees and the Sadducees asking why don't your followers fast like John the Baptist's followers and other leaders' followers fast. Jesus states there will be time for fasting, but when the bridegroom is present you don't fast, you feast! Well, all solemnities and Sundays are like little Easters. They are when we truly feast to celebrate Jesus the bridegroom being with us! So therefore, we SHOULD NOT fast at all during a solemnity and Sunday. Instead, we SHOULD feast. So, if a solemnity falls on a Friday during Lent, like the Solemnity of the Annunciation or the Solemnity of St. Joseph, then we should not fast, abstain from meat, etc., but instead we should feast and celebrate! And no, St. Patrick's Feast Day is not a solemnity unless you belong to a church or parish named after St. Patrick. Someone asked about the solemnity of St. Joseph falling on a Saturday, does that mean we can feast after 4 p.m. on Friday? If you want to truly stretch you could almost argue that, but I believe that is a bit much. BUT Friday, March 25, is the Feast of the Annunciation when we celebrate Jesus Christ taking on flesh in the womb of the blessed virgin Mary to be with us. This feast is when we remember that Jesus took on our humanity and walked our walk and lived our life and died our death, so that we might take on His divinity in heaven, we call the "divine exchange." Nine months from that day we celebrate the birth of Christ into the world! Yes, the Church, in the liturgical calendar, planned the annunciation to be nine months before the birth of Christ. What a glorious gift!

Feast to celebrate this Friday, March 25!

Catholic Cemetery Clean Up

The clean up for this year for Calvary, St. Boniface, and St. Peter's Cemeteries will be held March 28 – April 1. You must have everything off the graves by Sunday, March 27, as the clean up will start early on March 28. Please do not replace flowers until the clean up is over on April 1.

You may leave the shepherds hooks, but this would be a good time to take them home and clean them. Also, if they are rusting, you don't want the stone damaged due to the rust dripping on the stone!

Please do not replace flowers until after April 1.

We suggest you mark your flowers with the name on the stone and your contact number, so if they come off there is a better chance of having them returned to the correct spot.

Volunteers Needed for the Food Pantry

The St. Francis Food Pantry has remained open and serving clients throughout the COVID-19 Pandemic these past two years. Volunteers have stepped up to fill the void for those who were unable to serve. Now that we are in recovery mode from the pandemic, it is time to replenish our volunteers in a variety of areas. Isn't Lent a great time to commit to serving others less fortunate?

The food pantry could use help in the following areas:

*An extra phone volunteer (takes calls from clients to schedule pick up or delivery).
This can be done at home at your convenience.

*A driver who has a pickup truck that will deliver a donated order once a month on a Monday morning.

*Someone willing to do inventory, order, and accept a grocery delivery each month.
This can be done as your schedule allows.

*Volunteers willing to bring groceries to the pantry after weekend Masses.

*Helpers who are available every other Wednesday at Noon to receive a Hy-Vee damaged container delivery.

*Volunteers who can join Monday morning stockers each week and help with the Midwest Food Bank Delivery once a month on Monday.

*Individuals and families that want to help at Horizons Soup Kitchen on Sunday, April 10, for the evening meal and the last Tuesday of each month for a Noon meal.

Email ambmcgee1416@gmail.com or call Mary Beth McGee (217-430-1533) to join us for one of these times, or stop into the Food Pantry (Parish Center Basement) this coming Monday at 8:30 a.m. to help stock and learn more about these opportunities to serve others.
