From the Pastor's Desk

Today is Palm Sunday. We celebrate Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem with palm branches, imitating the crowds who sang, "Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Peace in heaven and glory in the highest." It is a victory march that will lead Him to the cross... and to our salvation. May we take this week as an opportunity to march along with Christ.

There will be one final "City Wide" Lenten Penance Service for Quincy area Catholics to attend. Many priests will be available to hear confessions.

<https://www.theholylands.org>

On Tuesday, April 19, at 1:15 p.m. we will hold our first official meeting of our new Legion of Mary Presidium. We have several active and auxiliary members who have agreed to be part of this new apostolate within Blessed Sacrament Parish. Please hold us up in your prayers as we begin.

On Sunday, April 24, Blessed Sacrament will hold our Annual Pancake and Sausage Breakfast, the Sunday following Easter. Andy and Jane Flachs have generously volunteered to lead this year's fundraising event. We have Volunteer Sign-up Sheets for parish members to sign up to help with this annual fundraiser for our parish.

During the Easter season, Blessed Sacrament Parish will be showing a 5-session set of 1-hour liturgical videos entitled The Art of Celebrating the Mass. Produced by the Mundelein Liturgical Institute and presented by Fr. Dennis Gill, these videos give an in-depth look into the theological and liturgical meaning of the Mass. We now want to make this content available to the entire parish community during this very appropriate time of the Easter Season when we especially reflect on the presence of the Risen Christ in the Eucharist. Each of the weekly videos will be shown at three different dates and times each week:

- Tuesday evenings 6:00-7:30 p.m. (Gathering Space)
- Wednesday afternoons 1:00-2:30 p.m. (Gathering Space)
- Thursday evenings 6:00-7:30 p.m. (Lower Level)

The session dates and topics are as follows:

- Week 1: April 19-21: Liturgical Theology & Pathway to Liturgical Participation
- Week 2: April 26-28: General Considerations
- Week 3: May 3-5: Introductory Rites & Liturgy of the Word
- Week 4: May 10-12: Preparation of Gifts and Liturgy of the Eucharist
- Week 5: May 17-19: Communion Rite & Concluding rites of the Mass

Anyone wishing to watch the video series on your own, you may do so by going to the following website address:

HOLY WEEK CHALLENGE | Opportunity for 4th–8th grade

Journey through Holy Week with the help of the Holy Week Challenge guide. 4th–8th grade students who attend each Holy Week Service noted, complete the questions in the guide, and receive a signature from an adult who attended the service with them, will receive an Easter prize and feature in the bulletin. Think of this as a scavenger hunt for the liturgical treasures of Holy Week. Once the guide is completed, please turn them in to your teacher or the Parish Office no later than Wednesday, April 20. Please use the “Pray Together” in the pew to follow along. This will help answer questions.

Holy Week Challenge Guides can be found on the table in the Gathering Space.

The Art of Celebrating the Mass Study

Join us in the Easter season for the Art of Celebrating the Mass study. If you have ever wondered about the meaning behind certain gestures, actions, or prayers, this study is for you! Fr. Dennis Gill will walk us through the General Instruction to the Roman Missal while explaining the proper liturgical actions and their meaning as seen in the Introductory Rites, Liturgy of the Word, Preparation of the Gifts, Eucharistic Prayer, and Communion Rite. This study will help you enter deeper into this Eucharistic celebration and learn more about how Christ is using the ancient and beautiful Liturgy to speak to your heart. We offer three times each week for one installment of the 5-week study:

Week 1: April 19–21

Tue., 6:00–7:30 p.m.; Wed., 1–2:30 p.m.; Thur., 6:00–7:30 p.m.

Week 2: April 26–28

Tue., 6:00–7:30 p.m.; Wed., 1–2:30 p.m.; Thur., 6:00–7:30 p.m.

Week 3: May 3–5

Tue., 6:00–7:30 p.m.; Wed., 1–2:30 p.m.; Thur., 6:00–7:30 p.m.

Liturgy Corner

Why Do We Move the Eucharist to the Side After Holy Thursday Mass?

At the conclusion of Holy Thursday Mass, a procession forms and the Eucharist is reserved in a ciborium and is processed to the altar or chapel of repose. During the procession, the faithful sing Pange Lingua (Sing My Tongue), a medieval poem composed by St. Thomas that echoes many chants even older than St. Thomas’ composition. The faithful will take shifts all throughout the night to stay and pray in the presence of our Eucharistic Lord.

This is often mistakenly understood as Jesus being placed in the tomb, but liturgically, we have yet to recall Christ’s Passion on Good Friday. Rather, this should call to mind Jesus’ Agony in the Garden. Some countries decorate the altar with olive tress and wheat stalks to emphasize this fact. In the Scriptures, Jesus asks His disciples to stay and pray (unfortunately the fall asleep). Jesus asks us like His disciples to stay and pray with Him.

Blessed Sacraments’ Holy Thursday Service is 4/14 at 7 p.m.

Thanks to Jared Haugh, QBCO, and all who joined us for April’s Theology on Tap. May 3 we will hear from Deacon Dennis Holbrook.

School News

#beasaint

Grayson Haugh, Elliott Hendrian, Austin Shull and Logan Lenae volunteered to be greeters at Kindergarten Round Up and did a great job welcoming our future kindergarten families.

Sam Argabright During a "turn to talk" to your partner activity there was a student that did not have a partner. Sam instantly made room for him to join his group because he cares about his friends and wants to include everyone.

Charley Peters without being asked, Charley stepped up to be an amazing friend and leader for a student in her class who had been absent several days. She helped this student in each class and even went slowly with him in PE so he had someone to stretch with.

Karson Huner cleans up his classroom throughout the day and always pushes in the chairs after library.

Stone Flesch is a very hard worker. Also, he is always on the "lookout" for ways to be helpful in our school, always willing to assist anyone that needs help.

Emma Vogel shows reverence in Mass, singing and following along with the readings. Emma quietly listens to the homily and reverently receives communion. She is a model of good Mass participation and behavior.

Harper Hills helped a student in her class with a sprained ankle walk up the stairs.

From Our Health & Wellness Council

As the numbers of autism spectrum disorders (ASD) continue to rise, so does the need for support services in and around our community.

The Illinois Center for Autism is a non-profit agency that provides education and services for children and families affected by ASD. Their mission is to help individuals achieve their highest level of independence in their home, school, and community. Referrals are made through local school systems or health care providers. You can find more information at <http://www.illinoiscenterforautism.org>.

The Quincy Area Autism Support Group is a local organization that provides individuals and families the chance share and gain support from other members of the community. Annually, the support group hosts the Quincy Autism Group Acceptance and Awareness Walk. The goal of this event is to celebrate friends and loved ones living with autism and spread awareness throughout Quincy and the surrounding area. To get involved, call 217-222-6550 or visit <http://www.facebook.com/QuincyAutismSupport>.
