Blessed Sacrament Parish
Divine Mercy Sunday
April 24, 2022

Pastor's Column Continued

Today (Sunday, April 24) Blessed Sacrament is holding our Annual Pancake and Sausage Breakfast. Andy and Jane Flachs have generously volunteered to lead this year's fundraising event. Please join us!

During the Easter season, Blessed Sacrament Parish will be showing a 5-session set of 1-hour liturgical videos entitled The Art of Celebrating the Mass. Produced by the Mundelein Liturgical Institute and presented by Fr. Dennis Gill, these videos give an in-depth look into the theological and liturgical meaning of the Mass. We now want to make this content available to the entire parish community during this very appropriate time of the Easter Season when we especially reflect on the presence of the Risen Christ in the Eucharist. Each of the weekly videos will be shown at three different dates and times each week:

Tuesday evenings, 6:00-7:30 p.m. (Gathering Space)
Wednesday afternoons, 1:00-2:30 p.m. (Gathering Space)

Thursday evenings, 6:00-7:30 p.m. (Lower Level)

The session dates and topics are as follows:

Week 2: April 26-28: General Considerations

Week 3: May 3-5: Introductory Rites & Liturgy of the Word

Week 4: May 10-12: Preparation of Gifts & Liturgy of the Eucharist

Week 5: May 17-19: Communion Rite & Concluding Rites of the Mass

Anyone wishing to watch the video series on your own, you may do so by going to the following website address:

On Sunday, June 5, we will celebrate our 5 p.m. Mass in Riverview Park. The Pastoral Council will be planning a Potluck picnic to go along with this Mass. Please stay tuned for more details.

On Sunday, June 19, after the 10:00 a.m. Mass we will have a Corpus Christi Procession as part of our celebration of the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. A sub-committee is being formed to plan this liturgical event. Please let us know if you are interested in joining this committee. Please stay tuned for more information.

Finally, I would like to say Thank You to all of our ministers who enhanced our liturgies throughout the celebration of the Easter Triduum. I offer thanks to our Liturgy Committee members, Deacon Terry, sacristans, lectors, altar servers (youth and adult), cantors, ushers, greeters, Extraordinary Ministers, and live-streamers who ministered throughout the week. Thanks to our Art and Environment Committee who beautifully decorated our church. Thanks to Music Director Steve Buckman and members of our choir for leading our beautiful liturgical music. Thanks to all who made our Holy Week and Easter liturgies a Spirit-filled encounter with our risen Lord.

May the Peace of the Risen Christ be with you all,

Fr. Tom

Pastor's Column

On this 2nd Sunday of Easter we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. We celebrate the loving mercy of Jesus exemplified in His Easter Sunday message of peace to His disciples. Without mercy and forgiveness there can be no lasting peace. May we reflect on the great gift of God's loving mercy in our lives.

Next Sunday, May 1, we will offer the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick at all Masses. We last offered this sacrament in November, so it would be good to offer this sacrament again after six months.

On the Sunday Mornings of the Easter season before 8:00 a.m. Mass, we will celebrate Solemn Morning Prayer in the context of a Holy Hour of Eucharistic Exposition. The Sunday early morning schedule will look as follows:

6:50 a.m.	Eucharistic Adorations begins
6:55-7:20 a.m.	Confessions
7:25-7:40 a.m.	Solemn Morning Prayer (Lauds)
7:40-7:50 a.m.	Benediction and Reposition
8:00 a.m.	Morning Mass

Liturgy Corner

What Is with All of the Chanting?

You may have noticed in the Lenten season more singing, specifically, chanting. For some of us, chant is relatively new. For others, maybe it is a small memory from childhood. Regardless of your experience, chanting is an opportunity to enter deeper into the text of the Mass intentionally.

Sacrosanctum Concilium, the document from the Second Vatican Council on the liturgy, explains that “the Church acknowledges Gregorian chant as specially suited to the Roman Liturgy; therefore, other things being equal, it should be given pride of place in liturgical services.” (SC, no. 116)

Here are a few benefits of chant:

1. Chant has really only existed within the context of the Liturgy. Praise and Worship or other forms, as wonderful as they are, could easily be found in a secular setting if the content of the lyrics were different.
2. Chant is text-oriented. Rather than adjusting words and phrasing to fit a melody, the text is always primary in chant. This is especially important when we are chanting Scripture (the Responsorial Psalm). We are able to have music that accentuates the text rather than the other way around.
3. Finally, singing is proper to the one in love. St. Augustine writes, “Only the lover sings.” When we are in love, we don’t just want to talk about it; we want to sing it! There is a reason some of our greatest pop songs are love ballads. When we chant the dialogues of the Mass, Jesus, the bridegroom of our souls, is able to sing to us, and we are able to respond. The way chant is written requires us to slow down and quiet ourselves. We are able to focus on God’s love letter to us — Sacred Scripture.

If you are interested in learning more about chant or joining our Chant Schola (Choir), please contact Ginny Steinkamp at faithformation@blessedscs.org

The Art of Celebrating the Mass Study

Join us in the Easter season for The Art of Celebrating the Mass study. If you have ever wondered about the meaning behind certain gestures, actions, or prayers, this study is for you! Fr. Dennis Gill will walk us through the General Instruction to the Roman Missal while explaining the proper liturgical actions and their meaning as seen in the Introductory Rites, Liturgy of the Word, Preparation of the Gifts, Eucharistic Prayer, and Communion Rite. This study will help you enter deeper into this Eucharistic celebration and learn more about how Christ is using the ancient and beautiful Liturgy to speak to your heart. We offer three times each week for one installment of the 5 week study.

Reflections for the Spiritual Adoption of an Unborn Baby

Written by Lisa Menich

Week One

“Here I am! Because of God’s divine creativity, I am here! I have only begun with two tiny little cells that came together, but I am already wonderfully designed in God’s image. By the end of this week, I will make up only 100 cells. Yet, everything that I need to grow is right here in my mother’s womb. It’s already been decided whether I am a boy or a girl, what color hair I will have, what color my eyes will be, if I’ll have my father’s dimple or my mother’s crooked smile. They don’t even know I am here yet...but God does...now you do too!”

What is Spiritual Adoption?

Spiritual Adoption is a way to prayerfully bond to one particular, yet unknown, baby as he/she begins the journey from conception to birth. This is a prayerful way to open our hearts to those who are voiceless and to be a strong witness to the sanctity of all life!

Temperance Berhorst picks up book boxes that are knocked over and helps clean up the classroom throughout the day.

Haley Terwelp is always kind to her classmates, teachers, and staff. She is so cheerful and always has a smile on her face, which makes you want to smile too!

Asher Richards Asher often steps forward to help classmates that fall behind in their work. He patiently works with them and encourages them to do their best.

Samuel Genenbacher is a quiet helper; he doesn’t announce that he’s helping or tell everyone what he has done. He cleans up messes that are not his without being asked and he is the first one to jump up and help someone with a class job. He holds the doors for others, picks up equipment at recess, runs errands, and even helps with technology. Sam is a great friend and many of his classmates nominated him to #beasaint.

- Support local events. Quincy celebrates the annual Autism Walk at the beginning of each April and there are support groups that provide information and updates online.
- Be an advocate. Bring to light the positive qualities that individuals with autism possess and include them in activities just like anyone else.
