The Trip to the Holy Land, will be August 23 to September 2, 2022. The itinerary has been assembled. Please go to the following website to the itinerary to see if you might like to join us: <https://www.theholylands.org>

On Sunday, April 24, Blessed Sacrament will hold our Annual Pancake and Sausage Breakfast on the Sunday following Easter. Andy and Jane Flachs have generously volunteered to lead this year's fundraising event. Today after Masses we will have Volunteer Sign-up Sheets for parish members to sign up to help with annual fundraiser for our parish. Please consider playing a part of this year's event.

During the Easter season, Blessed Sacrament Parish will be showing a 5-session set of 1-hour liturgical videos entitled The Art of Celebrating the Mass. Produced by the Mundelein Liturgical Institute and presented by Fr. Dennis Gill, these videos give an in-depth look into the theological and liturgical meaning of the Mass. Several of our Liturgy Committee members watched these videos in January/February and fell in love with the content. We now want to make this content available to the entire parish community during this very appropriate time of the Easter Season when we especially reflect on the presence of the Risen Christ in the Eucharist. Each of the weekly videos will be shown at three different dates and times each week:

Tuesday evenings, 6:00–7:30 p.m. (Gathering Space)
 Wednesday afternoons, 1:00–2:30 p.m. (Gathering Space)
 Thursday evenings, 6:00–7:30 p.m. (Lower Level)

The session dates and topics are as follows:

Week 1: April 19–21: Liturgical Theology & Pathway to Liturgical Participation
 Week 2: April 26–28: General Considerations
 Week 3: May 3–5: Introductory Rites and Liturgy of the Word
 Week 4: May 10–12: Preparation of Gifts and Liturgy of the Eucharist
 Week 5: May 17–19: Communion Rite and Concluding rites of the Mass

May the Peace of Christ be with you all,
 Fr. Tom

From the Pastor's Desk

Today we celebrate the 5th Sunday of Lent. In the gospel we hear the story of the woman caught in adultery. In an attempt to trap Him, the Pharisees and scribes ask Jesus what should be done with her. Jesus replies, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." Ultimately, her accusers leave one by one. Jesus extends to this woman a beautiful message of mercy, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin anymore." May we seek this same beautiful message of mercy from the heart of Christ Jesus.

Today our RCIA elect celebrates his Third Scrutiny. The Church teaches that the scrutinies are "rites for self-searching and repentance...The scrutinies are meant to uncover, then heal all that is weak, defective, or sinful in the hearts of the elect." We pray that our elect and candidates may join us throughout Lent to reflect on their own weaknesses and find healing in God's grace and mercy.

What Questions Do You Have About the Mass?

The Catholic Mass and Catholic Rituals are imbued with rich depth and symbolism, but sometimes there are actions, gestures, words, vestures, or aspects of architecture that we may not understand.

Every component of the Mass and the Church's Liturgy is purposeful. The Liturgy Corner is a place where you can have those questions answered!

Email faithformation@blessedscs.org to ask your questions or anonymously leave them in the form linked by the QR scan below:

Children's Catechumenate

The Children's Catechumenate is a program to help children prepare to be welcomed into full communion with the Catholic Church.

We are looking to begin a new session in the coming weeks. If you know of children or a family interested in converting to

Catholicism, please have them contact

School News

#beasaint

Fourth grade student Blakleigh Haubrich's Right to Life poster was recently awarded second place in a city-wide contest, and she received $50 for this recognition. At the end of the school day, Blakleigh gave the envelope to me asking that I return it to Right to Life so they could give the money to the mother who chose to keep her baby. Thank you Blakleigh for your loving heart and for being a saint to a mother and her baby.

Fourth grade student Brinna Stafford was nominated as being saint by a classmate who said, "Brinna is always so kind and is quick to congratulate others when they do well." Her entire class agreed! Brinna, thank you for having such an unselfish heart and for being a saint to others!

From Our Health & Wellness Council

April brings our focus to autism awareness. 2022 World Autism Month kicked off this year with World Autism Day on April 2. The diagnosis of autism spectrum disorder (ASD) has rapidly increased in recent years.

According to a study in 2018, about 1 in 44 children were identified with ASD according to estimates from the CDC's Autism and Developmental Disabilities Monitoring Network. These numbers have increased drastically since 2000 when only 1 in 150 children were diagnosed.

Brought to you by the Blessed Sacrament Parish

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

March 2022

Dear Friends in Christ,

We look forward to the liturgical celebrations of Holy Week, through which the Lord draws us more fully into the mystery of His death and resurrection.

I am writing to ask your financial support of two collections to be taken in all our parishes during these coming days. I know that I can count on you to be generous.

Each year, the Holy Father asks each Catholic parish around the world to take up a Good Friday Collection to keep Christians in the Holy Land. The Collection supports the work of the Franciscans in the sacred shrines, minister to the parishes, provide formation and education in the communities and schools, and care for the basic needs of the people in the Holy Land. During such a difficult season, your support is essential to their ministry.

At the Easter Vigil Liturgy and the Easter Sunday Masses, another special collection, the Seminarian Collection, will help our diocese to educate and form future priests. Our diocese has been blessed with an increasing number of young men who have generously said yes to God's call. We now have fourteen seminarians, two of whom at this time will be ordained priests for our diocese in June. You can take a personal role in their formation by a generous gift in the special Easter collection.

With best wishes and prayers for a blessed Holy Week and Easter, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Thomas John Paprocki

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois
