The Passion and Perseverance

When I was in grade school (second grade maybe) our pastor told us that we could all sit during the reading of the Passion (and not just those physically unable to stand). At the time I loved it! It's the longest Gospel reading of the year, and for someone in grade school, any opportunity not to stand in one spot for a long time was a great thing. Now that I look back, I'm glad that that was the only time that I experienced that. To be sure, the reading of the Passion is LONG. However, there is so much to be learned from it: the horrors of Jesus' last days, the love that Jesus showed to those around Him, the heroism of some of His followers...and His perseverance through it all. In our small way our perseverance in reading it is a tiny way in which we can recall His suffering, and along with Him, it prepares us for the joy that is to come in the celebration of the Resurrection.

Altar Servers – Some Changes

A number of parishioners have asked about altar servers and when we will start to see them returning to the altar. The first steps in that direction are in motion – with an eye to making the work of altar servers more organized in the long run. You will notice (or maybe you have already) that the priests and deacons are being joined on the altar by adult men, who will be assisting at the altar and will have the task of training our younger servers when we start to reintroduce them. Thanks for your patience!

What's My Role in Change? Did you know your body is ALWAYS changing, growing, and adapting?

Red blood cells regenerate every 3 to 4 months

Skin replaces itself every 3 to 4 weeks

Stomach lining is replaced every 3 to 4 days

Change is always happening – we can either embrace it and be fascinated by it or cling to the past because we're afraid of the future. Join us at our Workshops on May 7 and June 4!

This week's "Question to Reflect On" is: How do you feel about change? Skeptical, excited, fearful, worried, nervous, anxious, joyful, anticipatory?
