The Quietness of the Resurrection

We celebrate Easter with great fanfare – it's the most important feast day of the year! Along with a lengthy (and beautiful) Vigil Mass, our churches are packed, and there are often large family gatherings. Looking back on the first Easter, though, we should keep in mind how quiet it was. To be sure, it was a big deal for those who knew about it, but many people were not aware that Jesus had risen from the dead. In our own lives, the Resurrection of Christ can happen in similar ways. There might be great things happening in our lives, and we might not even know about it. The quiet nature of the Resurrection of Jesus encourages us to keep our eyes open for the ways in which the Lord is at work in our lives. He might be working in a very quiet way...but it might be very powerful. So, keep watch! God's work isn't always accompanied with trumpet blasts!

Ladies of Hancock County – There will be a new Bible study beginning April 28. We will begin a study of the New Testament with the book of Matthew. The Bible Timeline study was met with such enthusiasm that we will be staying with Jeff Cavins and Ascension Press for this study. The study format will consist of readings to be done at home, discussion of the readings, and a video followed by further discussion. You will need a Bible and perhaps a notebook to jot your thoughts down. For those of you who wish to do more in depth study, there is a workbook that you can purchase; it also gives you one-year access to the videos online. The cost is $37.95. If you wish to purchase a workbook, you can do so at ascensionpress.org or call me at 309-221-1564. We meet at St. Joseph house in Nauvoo from 9:30 to 11:00. It would be great to see you there. Bring a friend. For more information, you can call Deb at 309-221-1564 or Reba at 217-219-0507.

Altar Servers – Some Changes

A number of parishioners have asked about altar servers and when we will start to see them returning to the altar. The first steps in that direction are in motion – with an eye to making the work of altar servers more organized in the long run. You will notice (or maybe you have already) that the priests and deacons are being joined on the altar by adult men who will be assisting at the altar and will have the task of training our younger servers when we start to reintroduce them. Thanks for your patience!

What's My Role in Change?

It's not about being BAD or GOOD at change – but knowing what you NEED to change!

We know change is inevitable – we've all been through it, and we'll all go through it again soon, either here at the parish or at work or at home. When it comes to change, it's not about being BAD or GOOD at change; rather, it's about knowing your style of change.

What's a style? It's how you're hardwired to process change. You might love structure, so you like incremental changes. Or you might just appreciate something new all the time – throwing out structure.

How do you know your style and what you need to make it through a change successfully? Take the Change Style Indicator!! How?? Join us at our Workshop on May 7 and you will have a chance to learn about your unique style of change and what you need to be successful at change! The follow-up Workshop is June 4.

This week's "Question to Reflect On" is: What's the most successful change you've made?
