...And Two Years Later...

Next Sunday (Palm Sunday!) the dispensation from attending Sunday Mass will officially be lifted. This has been a long two years coming, and so much has happened during them. How appropriate it is for us to look at the last two years in light of the upcoming Holy Week. From 2020 until now we have witnessed and experienced moments of heroism, moments of great suffering, moments of sadness, and moments of rejoicing. Through it all, we have been accompanied by Jesus, who lived all of these things during the last week of His life. As we are once again required by the Church to attend Sunday Mass, it's a great opportunity – as we begin this important week – to remember why: His Passion, Death, and Resurrection make sense out of everything. We experience these events of His life every time we go to Mass, and they help us to understand the Lord's work in our lives...even in crazy times.

What's My Role in Change? Trigger Warning: We're going to talk a little about change!

We're focusing on GROWTH and INNOVATION this year and that means we need to all get a little more comfortable with change. We can't just keep doing what we've always done because we've always done it. The culture changes and we need to adapt and change with it to share the ever-relevant Good News! Change is inevitable – just today you've probably made a few changes either at work or at home. Maybe a slight adjustment to a recipe because you were missing an ingredient. Maybe a new route to work. Maybe a new walking path to get a little perspective. Maybe a new prayer to deepen your spiritual life. Maybe you just started a new book. Our lives are full of change – the world is always moving forward. We don't get to choose IF we change, only HOW we navigate a change. Join us at our Workshops on May 7 and June 4! This week's "Question to Reflect On" is: What's the first thing you think of when someone says the word change?

Holy Hour, Thursday night from 7:00–8:00 p.m. • April 7 – Hamilton and Nauvoo.

Lenten Fish Fry, Dallas City, Friday, April 8 from 5–7 p.m., Fr. Schramm Hall. Freewill offering. Dine in/Carry out.
