From the Pastor's Desk

Today the Church celebrates Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord and the beginning of Holy Week. Our Liturgy begins joyously as Jesus' entry into Jerusalem is recounted and we hear and proclaim Hosanna in the Highest. Yet very soon the mood of the Liturgy changes, in a sense, as we hear the Passion of the Lord proclaimed in the Liturgy of the Word.

As we begin Holy Week, we recall the suffering of Christ, what He has done for us. Do we really know and understand and take the time to contemplate this and the salvation that Christ brings to us?! It is incredible and, frankly, should leave us in awe; though sadly, sometimes it doesn't. We are reminded that, indeed, we must enter into the suffering and death of Christ in order to share in the glory of His Resurrection. And really, that is what we live the entirety of our Christian lives for. And so, it is not only good but necessary for us to both reflect on this and keep it always in our minds and our hearts.

We are reminded also of the suffering of others and our responsibility for compassion; that being much more than just kindness or even concern but the entering into the suffering of another.

Each year on Palm Sunday, we recount the story of Jesus' Passion. We hear about the events leading up to His arrest, the agony of His prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane, and the passing of His case back and forth between Pilate, Herod, and the Sanhedrin. We can try to imagine what it was like for the very Incarnation of God to be judged by human beings.

Each year, we are invited to enter into this story, to remember it, to accompany Jesus during these trials. It is certainly not the pleasant escape that we might find when we watch a movie or read a book. Rather, with Jesus' eyes we see the crowd whom He loves, shouting for His very death. With Him, we witness His closest friends abandon, deny, or watch from a distance. We see the cruelty of rulers and soldiers who mock Him, beat Him, and gamble for His garments.

We are asked to remember the horrible death He endured, a public and agonizing death of being nailed to a cross. It is unpleasant, for sure, the suffering of Jesus and of the world - for Jesus' Death and Resurrection did not remove suffering from our lives or the lives of those we love.

It can be terrifying to experience suffering ourselves or to walk with someone who is in distress. And we have choices when we do. We can be like Peter who denies, or the soldier who jeers, an acquaintance who watches, or Pilate who washes his hands of the matter. Or we can be like Joseph of Arimathea, who refuses to participate in an unjust persecution, or like the women who do not run from the agony of Jesus' death, but tended to His broken, lifeless body. Perhaps we will be like the centurion who praises God, even in the midst of darkness.

It is much easier, in the midst of affliction and suffering, to find a distraction...to turn on the television, to shop for the newest gadgets, to escape. Yet each year, Palm Sunday puts suffering squarely in our midst. Why? Because our suffering, and the suffering of the world, are bound to Christ's. We are asked to enter into our Lord's Passion - to walk with Him, to accompany Him as He faces utmost cruelty, injustice, pain, abandonment - so that we may walk with others who suffer, that we may live out that responsibility of compassion.

Suffering is so very real for all of us and it's not just about physical pain. Suffering is found in our lives in a multitude of ways, often times hidden or unnoticed. As we enter into Christ's Passion and partake of His victory found in the Holy Eucharist, let us pray for the grace to see what is before us, to open our hearts to those who need us, and to be filled with compassion for those who suffer, just as Christ did, and continues to do for us.

And now just a few notes:

- HOLY WEEK - Following is a summary of the celebrations during Holy Week. The schedule of these celebrations for both parishes are toward the end. This is the holiest of weeks and I encourage you to be very deliberate in keeping it holy.

- PALM SUNDAY - Holy Week begins with Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord, this year, April 10.

- CHRISM MASS - For our Diocese, this takes place on the Tuesday of Holy Week in the evening (this year, April 12). Everyone is invited to attend, and I encourage that. The Mass begins at 6:30 p.m. at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Springfield. Priests gather at 4:00 p.m. at the Cathedral that day for a Holy Hour. Folks are welcome to join us for that as well. This Mass is particularly significant for priests since at this Mass, the priests renew their Ordination Promises and the Bishop blesses the Sacred Oils that will be used for the year throughout the Diocese. Each parish's new oils are sent home with the priests (or their representative) that evening. There are three Sacred Oils: Oil of Catechumens (used when bringing folks into the Church through Baptism); Oil of the Sick (used to celebrate the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick where a person's forehead and palms of hands are anointed with this oil); Sacred Chrism (this oil is infused with Balsam which gives it a very pleasing smell) - it is used in the celebration of the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Orders. All of the oils are olive oil. The previous year's oils are burned in the "Easter" fire at the Easter Vigil. The new oils will be brought forward at each parish just prior to the start of the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday.

- PASCHAL TRIDUUM - This is a continuous celebration that begins with the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday and concludes with Vespers (Evening Prayer) on Easter Sunday. Lent ends before Evening Prayer is celebrated on Thursday.

- HOLY THURSDAY (this year, April 14) - the celebration of the Lord's Supper. During the Liturgy, the priest (optionally) washes the feet of 12 people present. Enough hosts are consecrated for both that Liturgy and the celebration of Good Friday the following day since no Mass, anywhere in the world, is celebrated on Good Friday. At the conclusion of the Mass, there is a procession with the Blessed Sacrament around the church with the Blessed Sacrament being reposed at a "side" chapel or Altar. Folks are encouraged to spend time praying that evening by either, remaining after Mass or returning sometime during the night. Around Midnight, the Blessed Sacrament is reposed in a Tabernacle other than the main Tabernacle. The main Tabernacle remains empty and open until the Easter Vigil. After the Holy Thursday Liturgy, the Altar of Sacrifice is stripped, and the Sanctuary is mostly emptied. It will remain this way until the start of the Easter Vigil with the exception of a Good Friday Service where only the necessary items are brought into the Sanctuary when needed.

- GOOD FRIDAY (Friday of the Passion of the Lord) - this year, April 15. On this day, there is only a Service, no Mass. Stations of the Cross are often prayed on this day. Silence is observed by many from Noon until 3:00 p.m., with this time spent in prayer and reflection. The service includes three parts: Liturgy of the Word, Adoration of the Holy Cross, and Holy Communion (Consecrated the night before at the Mass on Holy Thursday). This is a Universal Day of Fast and Abstinence. The Paschal fast is observed everywhere and, if possible, should extend from this day until the Easter Vigil to honor the Suffering and Death of the Lord Jesus and to prepare ourselves to share more deeply in His Resurrection. On this day, the Passion of the Lord is proclaimed once again during the Liturgy of the Word and the Solemn Intercessions are offered.

- HOLY SATURDAY (Easter Vigil) - This is the Liturgy where the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, First Holy Eucharist) will be administered. The Easter Vigil is a more lengthy but beautiful celebration. The Vigil may not begin before nightfall and must be concluded before daybreak on Sunday. The Vigil begins outside (if possible) where a fire is made (if possible) and the new Paschal candle is prepared. The procession into the church then takes place. The lights of the church are off and those who are present will have individual candles that will be lit from the Paschal Candle during the procession in. After the procession in and the lights of the church are turned on, the Easter Proclamation (Exsultet) is made. This is followed by the Liturgy of the Word. In it, there are nine readings total, seven from the Old Testament (it is permissible to have only three) which is followed by the Gloria and the lighting of the Altar candles. Then there is one Epistle from the New Testament followed by the Gospel and a brief homily. The Baptismal Liturgy occurs after the homily. The Liturgy of the Eucharist follows, and the Mass concludes as usual with a Solemn Blessing and Dismissal.

- EASTER SUNDAY (of the Resurrection of the Lord) - While the celebration of the Easter Vigil fulfills one's obligation to participate in the celebration of the Easter Liturgy, the faithful who participated in the Easter Vigil are, of course, welcome and even encouraged to participate in one of the Easter Sunday Liturgies as well. Again though, this is not an obligation.

- PASCHAL FAST - As noted above, Good Friday (this year, April 15) is a Universal Day of Fast and Abstinence. The Paschal fast is observed everywhere and, if possible, should extend from this day until the Easter Vigil to honor the Suffering and Death of the Lord Jesus and to prepare ourselves to share more deeply in His Resurrection.

Following are the Lenten regulations concerning Fast and Abstinence:

1. ABSTINENCE - Everyone 14 years of age and over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.
2. FAST - Everyone 18 years of age and under 59 is required to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. On these two days of fast and abstinence, only one full meatless meal is permitted. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength may be taken according to each person's needs, but together these two should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids (including milk and fruit juices) are allowed.
3. To disregard completely the law of fast and abstinence is seriously sinful.

HOLY WEEK & EASTER SCHEDULE:

- Monday, April 11 - Communion Service at Holy Family, 7:00 a.m.

- Tuesday & Wednesday, April 12 & 13 - Weekday Mass at Holy Family, 7:00 a.m.

- Holy Thursday, March 14 - No morning Mass. Mass at St. Thomas at 5:30 p.m.; Mass at Holy Family at 7:30 p.m. The Blessed Sacrament will be reposed at a side Altar after each Mass for prayer and Solemn Adoration...at St. Thomas until 11:00 p.m. and at Holy Family until Midnight.

- Good Friday, March 15 - No Masses this day anywhere in the world. Services at 5:30 p.m. at St. Thomas and at 7:30 p.m. at Holy Family. Additionally, Stations of the Cross at Holy Family at 11:00 a.m. and at St. Thomas at 3:00 p.m.

- Holy Saturday, March 16 - No Masses until Easter Vigil. Easter Vigil begins at 8:00 p.m. at Holy Family.

- Easter Sunday, April 17 - 6:30 a.m. and 8:00 a.m. Masses at Holy Family; 10:00 a.m. Mass at St. Thomas.

- EASTER FLOWERS - If you would like to make a contribution toward the Easter flowers, you still have time. If you do not have an envelope for this, simply place your contribution in an envelope and mark it "Easter Flowers." These contributions are often times made in memory of someone. If you are making such a contribution, please include the names of those folks either on or in the envelope so that I may offer prayers for them.

- FIRST CONFESSIONS - Recently, I have been celebrating First Reconciliation with our Second Graders. It is always exciting to celebrate the Sacraments. Thank you to those who have helped to prepare our young children for this Sacrament. The Sacraments are wonderful gifts to us, a real encounter with Christ that help us to grow in holiness as we receive Sacramental Grace from God. Let us rejoice in what the Lord has given us and in our children who so eagerly await the Sacraments.

- MOWING - We've already had to begin mowing. At Holy Family, we could still certainly use more volunteers to help occasionally. Thank you to those who have already offered to help. If you can help, please let Tammy know as soon as possible. Thank you for your consideration. I sincerely appreciate it.

Please know of my prayers each day for each of you and thank you for your continued prayers and support for me, one another, our parishes and school, and the Universal Church. May you have a most blessed week.

- Fr. Aaron

Bulletin Short for Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion
April 10, 2022

Reflecting on the Procession. We read and hear the Passion Gospel today. But first, at the procession when we bless palms, we hear what precedes it. There is a colt, there are cloaks spread on the road, there are shouts, "Blessed is the king" ... "Peace in heaven."

- What cloak will I spread before Jesus to make it easy for Him to come to me?
- So that stones do not cry out, what will I proclaim about Jesus Christ?
- How will I clear my calendar so I can come to my parish church for all the celebrations of the Easter Triduum?

Holy Family Bosco Kids and
