Easter Sunday

APRIL 17, 2022

Acts 10:34a,37-43;
Colossians 3:1-4 (or 1 Corinthians 5:6b-8);
John 20:1-9 (or Luke 24:1-12)

In all Masses of Easter, we renew our baptismal promises. Most of us were too young to remember our baptism; our sponsors and parents made the promises for us. But we must “ratify” those vows if we are to be Christians. We promised to renounce Satan and all his attractions; we promised to be loyal to Jesus Christ.

What does it mean to you to be a Catholic Christian? Do you just “go through the motions,” or does Jesus Christ make a difference in your life at every moment? If Jesus Christ did not rise from the dead, then the Church is a fraud and faith is a sham. But if he really did rise from the dead, his message is true! And if it is true, then you must follow him with all your heart and soul and strength and mind.

On Palm Sunday, the New Testament reading (Philippians 2:6) told us that our attitude must always be that of Christ. Don’t be a hypocrite; don’t be two-faced: If you say you are Catholic, then be one. If you don’t want to practice it, don’t pretend!

To be Catholic means some tough decisions in this world. It means absolute honesty. It means carrying our crosses joyfully, whatever they be. It means having hope even when things seem hopeless. It means doing the best we can, and putting our complete trust in the Lord.

To follow Christ means purity of heart and body. It means that we use our sexuality only in the context of marriage. It means the moderation of all our appetites and desires, using them only as God intends them. It means standing up for what is true and right, even when we are opposed and laughed at.

If some of these things seem hard, realize that it is liberating to follow Christ! He frees us from entanglements which drag us to destruction. He gives us absolute joy and eternal happiness, for he has conquered death by his resurrection!

The first reading is a sermon of Peter to Cornelius. He tells the story of Jesus, concluding with the death and resurrection of the Lord. The second reading (Colossians) tells us that we should be concerned about the things of heaven, since (in our baptism) we have been raised with Christ. The alternative second reading tells us that we should live a “Passover” being a pure dough in Christ who was sacrificed for us.

The Gospel translation may not convey the full impact of the words “wrappings on the ground.” In the original language, the words mean “wrappings laying in their folds.” The idea is that the wrappings still had the contour of the body of Jesus even though the body was not there. It was as if the body had evaporated! The only explanation can be that he had risen from the dead. (Otherwise, the wrappings would show wrinkles, or would show that someone had snatched the body away.) Christ has risen! Let us be loyal to him.

Easter Sunday, April 17, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

“At daybreak on the first day of the week, the women who had come from Galilee with Jesus took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb; but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were puzzling over this, behold, two men in dazzling garments appeared to them. They were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground. They said to them, “Why do you seek the living one among the dead? He is not here, but He has been raised.” Thus the words of the gospel at the Easter Vigil. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Jesus is risen from the dead. This is our Easter joy, this is the Easter message. If Jesus has been raised from the dead, then through our baptisms each of us is a new creation. Our sins and death have been conquered and Christ is the victor. Let each of us rejoice in the Easter mystery as it has changed all of us.

I want to thank all those who made our Easter celebration so special this year. Our decorating committee used their talents to reflect the celebrations of the Triduum as well as the solemn celebration of Easter. I also want to thank Frericks for the Easter flowers as well as the generosity of our parishioners who contributed to the beauty of our solemn celebrations with a memorial for a loved one. Then the music, from the cantors, musicians, choirs, as well as the entire church family — each enhanced our liturgies and made everything come alive. Your presence and participation helped make the joy of Easter present and active in our celebrations this year. After suffering from COVID for over two years, it was great to see people back to church, celebrating the Lord’s Paschal Mystery together through the Triduum and Easter Sunday. Then we had the greeters, ushers, lectors, servers, and our parishioners — each contributing by being present and worshipping and celebrating together as a parish family. On behalf of all of us, I thank you from the bottom of my heart. It is such a joy to celebrate with you and for you as we proclaim that Christ has died, Christ is risen, and Christ is present in our midst.

This past Tuesday, April 12, the Bishop celebrated the Chrism Mass at the Cathedral in Springfield. At this Mass, he blessed the following oils that will be used in all the parishes of our diocese: the Oil of the Sick, the Oil of Catechumens, and the Oil of Holy Chrism. A representative from each parish will bring these oils back to each parish, to be used in the celebration of the Sacraments as well as the Blessing of Altars and Churches. The old oils will be burned in our Easter fire for the Easter Vigil and the new oils will be stored in the ambry of the church, which for St. Peter’s is located in the back wall of the sanctuary.

On behalf of the parish family of St. Peter, I want to welcome the following people who through the Sacraments of Initiation are the newest members of our church: Michael Bicklein, Dustin Forrest, and Douglas Hartley.

We also want to welcome these new members who made their profession of faith in the Catholic Church: Scott Phillips and Jeffrey Terry.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

For your information, we are going to be reinstating our Stewardship prayer at all of our weekend liturgies beginning next weekend. This stewardship prayer will be highlighted on our screens and will be prayed as the final prayer to our Intercessions at Mass. This prayer will be a reminder of our desire to be a stewardship parish, thanking God for our blessings and gifts that He has given to us. May we pray these words and live them.

Next Tuesday, April 19, Fr. Pavel Luczak will be going home to Poland to visit his family and friends. I ask your prayers for him as the situation in Poland is uncertain. We hope and pray that he enjoys his home visit and will return to us refreshed and renewed, around May 11.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: When Sherlock Holmes, the great detective, arrived in heaven, St. Peter said to him, "Can you help us solve a mystery? You see Adam and Eve have been missing for the past two thousand years. Can you find them for us?"

Sherlock began his investigation, and after several days, he returned and told St. Peter: "You will find Adam and Eve over there beyond the gate." He pointed them out.

"How did you find them?" St. Peter asked.

"Elementary, my dear St. Peter," Sherlock replied.

"They are the only two up her who have no navels."

On behalf of the parish family, school administration, and teachers, I wish each of you a very Blessed and Happy Easter.

April, 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

A trait of home mission dioceses is that many have a small Catholic population dispersed over a vast territory. The Melkite Eparchy of Newton, with about 35,000 members, covers the entire United States. Melkite Catholics are members of one of the Eastern Catholic Churches, with their own cultural and liturgical traditions in full communion with the Holy Father and Catholics from the Latin Rite. The nationwide reach of the eparchy means that its parishes and administrative offices are found in locations all around the country. Communications through the internet and the diocesan quarterly magazine are crucial ministries that keep members in touch with each other and their bishop despite the challenge of geographic distance.

With generous support from Catholic Home Missions, the eparchy's Sophia Press distributes its quarterly magazine to 12,000 members. It publishes liturgical books that the faithful need to participate fully in the liturgy. The eparchy's Office of Communication also maintains the eparchy's website and conducts the Annual Bishop's Appeal. When you contribute to the Catholic Home Missions Appeal, you provide a lifeline that allows members of mission dioceses to remain in contact with each other, even if they live across the country.

Your support of this appeal makes a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters right here in the United States. Please be generous to this appeal through the collection offertory envelope or your parish's e-offertory platform.

#iGiveCatholicTogether (<https://usc.cb.org/givecatholictogether.org/organizations/usc.cb.catholic-home-missions>) also accepts funds for the collection. To learn more about the appeal and those who benefit from it, visit www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Thank you for strengthening the Church at home.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois

“Everybody Wins” Mega Raffle

The “Everybody Wins” Mega Raffle is back with 42 cash prizes totaling nearly $170,000! Tickets are on sale and can be purchased through a Catholic school family or online. The Super-Early Bird Drawing for $25,000 will be held May 20, and tickets must be turned in by April 29 to be entered. Last year, tickets sold out before the Super-Early Bird deadline, so don’t wait to turn in your tickets.

Since it began, the Mega Raffle has raised more than $2 million to support the Quincy Catholic Elementary Schools Foundation, the QND Foundation, tuition assistance, technology updates, and more. Thank you for your continued support of the raffle, the foundations, and our schools. To learn more or to purchase tickets, visit www.quincymegaraffle.org.

CRS Rice Bowl

CRS Rice Bowl is a Catholic Relief Services’ Lenten faith-in-action program for families and faith communities. Through CRS Rice Bowl, we deepen our personal experience of Lent. We can devote our Lenten prayers, fasting, and gifts to transform our relationship with God and neighbor. Please pick up your families Rice Bowl and join thousands of other Catholic communities across the United States in this lifechanging Lenten journey.

Bowls are in the Narthex and will be collected April 23 and 24, the weekend after Easter.

Welcome to Those Who Are Joining the Cath

I am Michael Bicklein. I am a lead hand at Manchester Tank. I will be married to Jennifer Blickhan this fall at St. Peter Church.

I spend most of my free time playing video games or watching movies. One of my long-term goals is to buy a house, remodel it, and sell it. I always love to learn new things.

My name is Scott Phillips and I am Vice President/Board Director with Town and Country Bank Midwest. My wife Cindy and I have four children plus six grandchildren.

My interests are spending time with my family, coaching, and watching sports. I want to thank my St. Peter family for their friendship and look forward to continuing this journey with you.

My name is Dustin Forrest and I am a foreman at Wiemelt Plumbing & Excavating. My wife Erin and I have two boys.

I was in the Army National Guard for 13 years and served one tour in Iraq.

In my free time I enjoy spending time with my family and going camping.

Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil at St. Peter's

I am Jeff Terry, I am an attorney and a Partner in the Schmiedeskamp Law Firm here in Quincy. My incredible wife Jessi and I have been blessed with three beautiful daughters, Madison, Emma, and Olivia, and one son, Jeffrey Jr.

My interests include following my favorite sports teams, grilling, spending time outside, playing tennis, hunting, reading, writing, and, most importantly, spending time with my family.

I am happy to become Catholic.

My name is Douglas Hartley. I am 33 years old and am employed at Knapheide. My wife Teal and I have four amazing kids.

I enjoy hunting, fishing, and being outdoors.

I am looking forward to getting to know more about the Catholic church.
