2nd Sunday of Easter (Sunday of Divine Mercy)

APRIL 24, 2022

Acts 5:12-16;
Revelation 1:9-11a,12-13,17-19;
John 20:19-31

Recall that for several centuries, the usual practice of the Church was to baptize adults only (unless infants and children were in danger of death). Adults were baptized only in the Easter Vigil, after they had completed an intensive two-year Catechumenate. This practice lasted from the third through the seventh century.

At their baptism, the newly-baptized were given a white robe. The neophytes came to Mass each day after Easter where they were given intensive instructions in the sacramental life. They wore these white robes until today. On this day, they put aside the white robes and took their place as full-fledged members of the Church. (This is the reason that this Sunday formerly was called White Sunday from the Latin for The Sunday for Putting Aside the White Garments.)

We might see today's Scripture readings in the context of this "Mystagogic Catechesis" (the final instructions in the sacraments) of the newly baptized. Today's lesson would be on the Sacrament of Reconciliation. All of us should be saints. We should be so conscious of our baptismal dignity that we would never stoop to sin.

But suppose we fail? The Lord gives us the Sacrament of Reconciliation or Penance. It is the Sacrament of his merciful forgiveness. It is, as it were, second baptism. On Easter Sunday night, Jesus gave his apostles the power to forgive sins. Catholics should memorize John 20:22-23 which occurs in today's Gospel: "Whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven..."

Who can forgive sins except God? Only those to whom the Lord gives the power. But Jesus told his apostles that they would do even greater works than he had done (John 14:12). The apostles show the power of Christ in the first reading. They and their successors will show even greater power in the Sacrament of Christ's mercy, Reconciliation.

If we say that we believe in this sacrament, then let us use it! This sacrament is not only for the forgiveness of serious sin; it is the means of our growth in holiness. Frequent Confession should be part of the life of every active Catholic.

Divine Mercy Sunday, April 24, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

This Second Sunday of Easter has been designated by St. John Paul II as “Divine Mercy Sunday.” The reason for this designation is found in our gospel for this weekend. In this gospel, the apostles are locked in their room together when Jesus came and stood in their midst and said, “Peace be with you.” Then Jesus said to them, “As the Father sent me, so I send you. Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.” Thus, the apostles were to continue the Reconciliation that Jesus brought; thus, they were to extend the mercy and forgiveness of God in a concrete and visible way. And so, the Sacrament of Reconciliation was instituted by Christ to give the grace of the Church to all those who open their hearts and lives to this grace.

Also, in this same gospel, we hear how Thomas was not with the other apostles when Jesus appeared to them in that closed room. When confronted with this reality, Thomas, the unbelieving one, said, “Unless I see the mark of the nails in His hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into His side, I will not believe.” Thomas’ response is a lot like our own responses when we are called to trust and believe. We want proof before we take that leap of faith. But the resurrection is a type of proof as we hear the testimony of Mary of Magdala, the apostles so convinced that they would die for it, as well as many others who have experienced the risen Christ in their everyday lives. Then, finally, Thomas gets what he requested. Jesus appears and Thomas is present. Jesus invites Thomas forward and fulfilled his demands by the sense of touch. And Thomas responds with those memorable words, “My Lord and my God.” Then Jesus in this same gospel addresses us when He says to Thomas, “You have come to believe because you have seen me. Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.” That’s us! We are in this gospel. And though we have not touched and seen, you and I do believe.

Personnel changes are always inevitable. You have experienced them firsthand in the transfer of pastors and parochial vicars. This year we are faced with a personnel change once again. Fr. Pavel Luczak, who is our parochial vicar, is being transferred to St. Thomas Church in Newton and St. Mary Church in Ste. Marie. When I was in Effingham, I knew these parishes well. This is a great new assignment for him. He will serve as a parochial vicar for a short time before he becomes the pastor upon the retirement of the pastor there. As his replacement, we will be receiving a newly ordained priest as our parochial vicar. His name will be Fr. Zachary Samples who will be ordained to the priesthood on Saturday, May 28, at the Cathedral in Springfield. He will be assigned here at St. Peter as our parochial vicar as well as being assigned as co-chaplain with me at Quincy Notre Dame. These personnel changes will occur on July 1, 2022.

Again, my thank you for all those who shared their time and talents in making our liturgies come alive during Holy Week. I can’t thank those enough who were involved in our music which was well done, to those who helped with the environment (also well done) and to all others who helped us this year in making our liturgies come alive and very meaningful. Thanks to all!

Week of April 24, 2022

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

The 7th grade students enacted the Stations of the Cross for students in grades K-8 as well as parent visitors on Holy Thursday.

WELCOME TO THE STAFF— Miss Emily Cintron

You may be aware that we have hired an additional kindergarten teacher. Her name is Emily Cintron. Due to our great numbers this year we felt it necessary to create a 3rd classroom for kindergarten.

Miss Cintron is so excited to start the 2022–2023 school year out as a kindergarten teacher at St. Peter! She has a passion for working with our youngest learners, and helping each child progress in all areas of their development — academic, social, language, and motor — is a challenge that she is honored to accept daily. She strives to create a community of learners that nurtures this growth in a positive, fun environment. She is also looking forward to starting the new school year off as Mrs. Riese for the first time, as her fiancé Austin and she will be married in June! She is excited to help students learn and grow academically and in their faith at St. Peter!

Daycare Coordinator Position Open For 2022–2023 School Year

Fr. Leo’s column continued..

During this past season of Lent, you were invited to share in the Rice Bowl collection. Through your fasting, the monies saved were to be placed in the rice bowl on your tables, reminding you of the poor and the hungry in the world. Now it is time to bring in your rice bowls. I ask you to put the equivalent amount in an envelope in the collection, or you can place the rice bowl itself in a box in front of the ambo. Whatever you do, do not leave them in the Narthex of the church. This only invites trouble and theft. So please help us by returning your monies to the parish to be sent for the poor. Thank you! Your sacrifices will be appreciated by so many people.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: An elderly couple were sitting on their front porch in their rocking chairs enjoying a cool spring breeze. The wife was feeling a little romantic and started to reminisce. She said, “Remember on our first date when you held my hand?” The husband smiled remembering, and reached over and gently placed his hand on her hand. The wife, feeling very comfortable, continued, “Remember on our second date when you took me to the picture show and put your arm around me?” The old gentleman started to get a sparkle in his eye as he reached over and put his arm around her. Feeling a little more brazen, the wife continued, “Do you remember how you used to nibble on my ear?” Suddenly the man jumped up and rushed into the house. Startled, the woman thought she had pushed things too far. But the husband returned. “Why did you run away?” she asked. “I wasn’t running away,” he replied, “I just went in to get my teeth.”
