“Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.”

I'm a firm believer that St. Thomas the Apostle gets a bad rap. He wanted to see Jesus to know that He was alive. Who wouldn't? His desire was perfectly reasonable! So, Jesus showed Him that He had risen.

We, unfortunately, don't have quite the same option, but it's still reasonable for us to desire evidence for belief. So, make sure you ask for it. Ask the Lord to show you He is Real AND Risen...and then open your eyes to see how He reveals Himself to you. It won't be with the same experience as St. Thomas, but in His own way the Lord will give you evidence that He is worthy of belief.

8:00 a.m. – Mass

Noon – Rosary

3:00 p.m. – Chaplet of Divine Mercy

Saturday – 4:00 p.m. Mass

Sunday – 10:00 a.m. Mass

Divine Mercy Devotions

To commemorate Divine Mercy Sunday, we will have a Holy Hour at 3 p.m. at Sts. Peter and Paul in Nauvoo. Along with adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy will be prayed, and there will be the opportunity to go to Confession. We hope you can be there!

Ladies of Hancock County – There will be a new Bible study beginning April 28. We will begin a study of the New Testament with the book of Matthew. The Bible Timeline study was met with such enthusiasm that we will be staying with Jeff Cavins and Ascension Press for this study. The study format will consist of readings to be done at home, discussion of the readings, and a video followed by further discussion. You will need a Bible and perhaps a notebook to jot your thoughts down. For those of you who wish to do more in-depth study, there is a workbook that you can purchase; it also gives you one year access to the videos online. The cost is $37.95. If you wish to purchase a workbook you can do so at ascensionpress.org or call me at 309-221-1564. We meet at St. Joseph House in Nauvoo from 9:30 to 11:00. It would be great to see you there. Bring a friend. For more information, you can call Deb at 309-221-1564 or Reba at 217-219-0507.

What's My Role in Change?

One of the more challenging parts of change is working with people who have different styles than we do. Someone at the parish might LOVE and EMBRACE changes of all kinds at any time – this could be frustrating for you if you're really into the beautiful traditions of our parish. When we know our own change style AND that of our friends, family, and fellow parishioners, we can work together to implement change that benefits everyone!! Part of "Change Style Training" is understanding ourselves, sharing our preferences, and learning from others about their preferences. THEN, we'll discuss what we can do as a parish to change more effectively! Join us at our Workshops on May 7 and June 4! It's not too late...contact Diane Foley at 217-256-3657 or warsaw@hancockcountycatholic.org to register.

This week's "Question to Reflect On" is: What was the hardest change you've gone through in your faith?

What Greater Gift Can You Give? When someone passes away, extend them a plenary indulgence. It is so easy. If you received Communion daily, went to Confession monthly, and fulfilled the conditions stated below, you could release a soul to heaven everyday of your life. There is an army of souls in purgatory ready to help you. If you help them, they are especially anxious to help you. They cannot help themselves. Those who are released by your prayers and sacrifices are indebted to you and full of gratitude. They will be your prayer partners forever.

Conditions for a Plenary Indulgence:

Be in the state of grace. Receive Communion each time a plenary indulgence is sought. Go to Confession within 20 days before or after doing the prescribed work. Have a disposition of Catholicism detachment of sin, even venial sin. Pray for the intentions of the Pope, preferably one "Our Father" and one "Hail Mary." Have at least a general intention to gain a plenary indulgence. Fulfill one of the following:

- At least a 1/2 hour of adoration of the Blessed Sacrament
- Family or group Rosary
- Private Rosary before the Blessed Sacrament
- At least a 1/2 hour of pious reading of Sacred Scripture
- Walking the Stations of the Cross in a church or with properly erected display of the Stations
