First Communions...and Failures

This Sunday we're celebrating First Communions at Sts. Peter and Paul – a great annual event! Unfortunately, as many of you realize, we're not celebrating them anywhere else...yet. The line that I've been saying – and you've been hearing – is still true: I'm/We're working on it. Honestly, I was hopeful that we would be in a better place organizationally than we currently are...and that a firmer plan for the future of faith formation (outside of the school) would be in place, but we're not there yet. So, that's a failure, and believe me, I'm aware of it. Our other parishes will prepare and celebrate the Sacraments, but for now, in the midst of failure to do so yet, I will repeat for you the important options for faith formation in the home:

Go to Mass as a family, pray in the home, and utilize our parishes' subscription on formed.org. (Honestly, I expect that Formed will be a big part of the way in which the Sacramental prep will happen. So, if you're not on it yet, get on our parishes' website and follow the link!) Home is where faith formation begins, and even if the parishes aren't in a place to do Sacramental prep (yet), good work can be done in the home. And after all, that's where the most successful faith formation takes place.

What's My Role in Change? Major life changes can cause stress which can affect our entire life. Going through a major change in our personal life can make us crave routine and stability at work – and even the reverse! In March of 2020 when we all had to change the way we were working, living, socializing, worshiping, and even grocery shopping – we saw an increase in stress and a resistance to change in other areas of life. When the world wouldn't stop moving and changing, most people craved old routines, going back to "normal," and finding every small thing they could do to get the wheels back on their track. What are some of these "major life changes"? Marriage, divorce, birth of a child, moving, job loss, new job, death of a loved one, or major illness or injury. Join us at our Workshops on May 7 and June 4!

This week's "Question to Reflect On" is: Have you been experiencing a "major life change" in addition to all of the "pandemic change" for work and school and the parish? How have you been handling it? It's not too late...contact Diane Foley at 217-256-3657 or warsaw@hancockcountycatholic.org to register. Each Workshop meets from 9:00 a.m. to Noon.

Warsaw Sacred Heart Reminder! Please remember to turn in your Bakeless Bake Sale money and sign up for a committee! Thanks!

IC Catholic Women's Club will host a Mother/Daughter Party on Monday, May 9, beginning at 6 p.m. in the Parish Hall. ALL women of Immaculate Conception Parish are invited, and this social gathering will serve as our May meeting! Please bring a side dish to go along with our fried chicken entree. RSVP is greatly appreciated by May 2 to Amy Graham at 702-496-2661 or amypgraham71@hotmail.com.

Catholic Women of Hancock County: I know that we have told you to mark your calendars for the first Monday of May for our salad supper fun, but extenuating circumstances arose that have caused us to have to move the date. May is so busy anyway, and since we all enjoyed the summer event last year, we are moving it to June 20, 6:30 p.m., at the NEW K of C Hall in Nauvoo. We apologize for any disappointment, but this has allowed us to make sure we give you the very best event that we can!
