Love One Another

In this Gospel this Sunday, Jesus says very plainly: "I give you a new commandment: love one another." It's a pretty simple command and one that most of humanity would embrace as worthy of following, but we need to ask ourselves what it means. There are so many different meanings and understandings of love, and not all of them match up with the teachings of Christ and His Church. For our purposes, let's go with the definition of love that comes from St. Thomas Aquinas (found in the catechism): love means willing the good of another. This is a simple but profound definition! It doesn't exclude feelings, but it doesn't mean that there have to be feelings involved. It might include both simple and heroic actions. When we will the good of another person, we choose what is best for them - just like the Lord does for us. So, love one another...choose their good! It's a pretty simple commandment, but it can be lived heroically!

The Hancock County Catholic Churches offer their prayers and congratulation to our newly baptized! Fulton Eugene Gray, son of Logan Andrew Gray and Rebecca Marie (Macak) Gray, was baptized on Saturday, May 7, 2022, at Sts. Peter and Paul Church, Nauvoo. May God bless you Fulton, and welcome to our church family!

GRADUATION MASS: Our final Mass for the 6th graders will be on Thursday, May 19, at 5:30 p.m. at Sts. Peter and Paul Church. We will be celebrating with Cole Boyles, Grant Feikert, Kinnick George, Emma Henson, Max Siegfried, and Audrey Sullivan. GOOD LUCK IN 7TH GRADE!!

St. Peter and Paul parishioners: Sunday Mass, May 29, we will have quite a few visitors – close to 50 more in church. There is a very large family(s) reunion of the Reibold, Moffitt, Faulkner, and Veith families. Somehow, they are all related. Our church could be quite full, and I would say that is a very good thing. Please go out of your way to make them feel welcome. Personally, I would like this to be their best experience while in Nauvoo. And, by the way, a great deal of you are probably also related. Thanks. – Dcn. Dan

We apologize for these being left out from the original list of Easter Lily memorials: Karen Nutt in memory of Tom Nutt, Elizabeth and Jerry Nutt, and Maxine and Earl Rogers; Pam and Rick Gambrell in memory of Deacon Bill Gray, Denise Land, and Dan Gillepsie; Chris and Sharon Goetz in memory of Kathy and Carl Rose and Doc and Pat Goetz; Barb Drozd in memory of Jim Drozd and Stephanie Watson.

Hospitality Coordinators – Please remember to count all attendees at each weekend Mass and record the number in the Hospitality binder. Also, since we only have lectors scheduled at this point in time, the sign-in sheet isn't necessary as long as you know that the lector is present for Mass. As scheduling expands in the future, please use the sign-in sheet as needed. Thank you!!!

SAVE THE DATE – There will be a farewell party for Fr. Szydlik on Sunday, June 12. Details to follow!!!
