The New Jerusalem

I have had the opportunity to visit Jerusalem on three different occasions over the last ten years, and I wouldn't trade them for anything. It's such a neat city! To be sure, the best parts surround the death and Resurrection of Jesus, but there is so much else to love. The food and history are incomparable, and it's fun to encounter people of different faiths and cultures. With that said, the city is pretty dirty, and there are some elements that are not particularly safe. The different cultures don't always get along, and even the holy sites can be chaotic. So, taking all of this into account (the good and the not-so-good), it's interesting to read the account of the New Jerusalem in this Sunday's reading from the Book of Revelation. That version of the Holy City is radiant and gleams with the splendor of God. It's redeemed, and all of the bad parts have been restored in Christ. What a great reminder this is for us. We all have good and not-so-good parts to ourselves and to our lives, but it will not always be that way. In the life to come, the Lord will restore and elevate us, and our darker parts will be transformed. So, if you're down on yourself or your life (or any part of your life), take courage! This life will not last forever, and a better one awaits us.

St. Peter and Paul parishioners: Sunday Mass, May 29, we will have quite a few visitors – close to 50 more in church. There is a very large family(s) reunion of the Reimbold, Moffitt, Faulkner, and Veith families. Somehow, they are all related. Our church could be quite full, and I would say that is a very good thing. Please go out of your way to make them feel welcome. Personally, I would like this to be their best experience while in Nauvoo. And, by the way, a great deal of you are probably also related. Thanks. – Dcn. Dan

Hospitality Coordinators – Please remember to count all attendees at each weekend Mass and record the number in the Hospitality binder. Also, since we only have lectors scheduled at this point in time, the sign-in sheet isn't necessary as long as you know that the lector is present for Mass. As scheduling expands in the future, please use the sign-in sheet as needed. Thank you!!!

THANK YOU to all who attended the Change Workshop on 5/7 at SPPS. There's still time to sign up for the next Change Workshop on 6/4 from 9 a.m. to Noon at Immaculate Conception Parish Hall. Please contact Diane Foley at 217-256-3657 or warsaw@hancockcountycatholic.org to register.

Sts. Peter and Paul School Auction: The Sts. Peter and Paul School in Nauvoo will be hosting their 23rd Annual God's Portion Day Auction on Sunday, June 5. The live auction begins at 10 a.m. and runs most of the day. The auction will be held at the school gym, located at 1115 Young Street, Nauvoo, Illinois. If you cannot make the auction and would like to support our school, please mail your donations to SPPS, Attn: GPD Auction, P.O. Box 160, Nauvoo, IL 62354, or contact the school at 217-453-2511. Hope to see you there!

Catholic Women of Hancock County: I know that we have told you to mark your calendars for the first Monday of May for our salad supper fun, but extenuating circumstances arose that have caused us to have to move the date. May is so busy anyway, and since we all enjoyed the summer event last year, we are moving it to June 20, 6:30 p.m. at the NEW K of C Hall in Nauvoo. We apologize for any disappointment, but this has allowed us to make sure we give you the very best event that we can!
