MAY 22, 2022

Acts 15:1-2,22-29; Revelation 21:10-14,22-23;
John 14:23-29

Jesus Christ did not leave us orphans when he ascended into heaven. He promised the Holy Spirit who would guide the Church and confirm her in the truth. Our Gospel tells of his promise of the Spirit: The Spirit would call to mind everything that Jesus had taught; he would instruct the Church in everything. He also told us that anyone who loved him would be true to his word.

We know the word of Jesus through the Church, which is protected from teaching error by the power of the Holy Spirit. Jesus did not solve all problems or give his instructions in minute detail. Nevertheless, everything that is taught by the Church throughout the centuries comes integrally from the “deposit of faith” which Jesus imparted to the Spirit.

Jesus did not solve the question of the relationship of Jews and Gentiles in the Church. Did a person need to become a Jew before being a Christian? Were the non-Jews even invited to share salvation? Did Jewish Christians still need to follow the Law of Moses? These and many other questions were solved by the Church some years after Jesus had ascended to heaven. They were solved by the Church guided by the Holy Spirit.

Today’s first reading tells us of the council of apostles at Jerusalem who determined that Gentile converts do not need to practice the Law of Moses. The Church is still developing and growing and understanding the teaching of Jesus more perfectly.

The Spirit gives the Church the charism of infallibility. The Church cannot teach error on matters of faith and morals. The chief agencies of this infallibility are the pope when he speaks “ex cathedra” at an Ecumenical or General Council.

Even though we do not see Jesus with eyes of body, we are confident that he guides the Church through the power of the Holy Spirit. He is with us. Let us be faithful to him and to his teaching.

Our Parish Family

Dear Parishioners,

We continue to celebrate our Easter season, with this weekend being the 6th Sunday of Easter. In our first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, we begin to realize that Jesus did not give to the apostles a blueprint in how to form the Church. They realized two things, namely, that they were given the gift of the Holy Spirit, and that they were to spread the good news to the world. We also have to realize that the apostles expected Jesus to return soon, so they apparently were content with staying in their comfort zone in Jerusalem. But it's amazing how things work out. God seems to have a way to push, shove, and challenge in order to pursue His Will. We find that also in the early Church. When the apostles finally left Jerusalem it was because of tremendous persecution. During this struggle, the apostles found a receptive audience in the non-Jewish people, namely, the Gentiles. Then they faced a difficulty, especially when the Jewish people expected that the Gentiles conform to Jewish ways. So what were the apostles to do as Jesus never instructed them in such concrete ways. What the early Church did, as it continues to do, is to call a council together, this being the council of Jerusalem, and through prayer, discernment, and the gift of the Holy Spirit to resolve the issue. And like it does today, it confronts the problem, and through prayer and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, it settles the issue. In this case, it declared the following: "It is the decision of the Holy Spirit and of us not to place on you any burden beyond these necessities, namely, to abstain from meat sacrificed to idols, from blood, from meats of strangled animals, and from unlawful marriage." For a Church with no blueprint it continues to remain today the conduit of God's presence as the Holy Spirit continues to guide and direct it toward Jesus and His Will.

Next Tuesday, May 24, the 8th graders from St. Peter School will have their graduation at 6:00 p.m. in the church. I ask you to keep these young people in your prayers that they remain ever faithful to the Church who assisted them in their Catholic formation and education, and always open to the grace of God in their lives. I pray that the Eucharist remains a source of strength as they celebrate this sacrament each weekend throughout their lives. I challenge them to realize that there is no vacation from their vocation as Catholic Christians. We are very proud of their achievements and ask God to continue to bless them and keep them safe as they continue their educational experience.

Our last day of school at St. Peter will be next Friday, May 27. We will have a Mass at 8:45 a.m. followed by our annual school picnic with school dismissal at 12:30 p.m. I hope and pray that our young people will remain faithful to their faith and live it this summer.

Next Saturday, May 28, there will be NO MASS IN THE MORNING, NOR CONFESSIONS, as we will be heading to the Cathedral in Springfield to concelebrate at 10:00 a.m. the ordination Mass of our two young priests, Fr. Paul Lesupati and Fr. Zach Samples. The ordination to the sacred order of Presbyterate will be celebrated by our Bishop through the Laying on of Hands and the Invocation of the Holy Spirit. Please keep these men in your prayers as they begin their service to the Church in our diocese.

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

CONGRATULATIONS 6th GRADE DARE GRADUATES

We congratulate our sixth grade students who have graduated from DARE (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) this past Thursday. Over the last ten weeks, Officer Hastings has met with the students to teach them about the skills that they will need to avoid involvement in drugs, gangs, and violence. We also congratulate Sophia D. for winning the essay contest. She will be able to attend a special honorary dinner in the near future.

MAY CROWNING

We were so blessed to share in a May Crowning service this past Friday. Our third grade students who received the sacraments of First Communion and Confirmation led the celebration of Mary. Our hope is that this will be a new tradition of special events each year at St. Peter School.

Fr. Leo’s column continued..

Just want to remind you that after Saturday evening Mass, there will be our “kickoff to the summer” with a block party on the grounds of St. Peter Church. Bring your lawn chairs and coolers for an evening of fun after the 5:00 p.m. Mass. We will have various food trucks available for your purchase of differing dinners. Please come as we kick off our summer festivities from 6:00-8:00 p.m. this Saturday, May 21.

There are several people that have contributed so much to St. Peter School that I would like to personally thank as they retire from their ministries. Loretta Goehl has been the coordinator of our Daycare Program for many years; Julie Simons has been our 6th grade teacher for five years; and Sara Bradfield who has been a teacher’s aide, school secretary, and administrative assistance for over 30+ years. As Jesus said in one of His parables, so it applies to each one of these individuals, “Well done, good and faithful servant.” Thank you, thank you.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: After listening restlessly to a long and tedious sermon, a six year old boy asked his father what the preacher did the rest of the week.

“Oh, he’s a very busy man,” the father replied. “He takes care of Church business, visits the sick, ministers to the poor....And then he has to have time to rest up. Talking in public isn’t an easy job, you know.”

The boy thought about that, then said, “Well, listening ain’t easy, either.”
