Opportunities to Reflect

The last several weeks have provided me with all sorts of conversations with all sorts of parishioners (you all!), and it's been fun to reflect on so many experiences of the past. Fifteen years have provided many events, encounters, and relationships...and I have unintentionally forgotten about a lot of them! I think my experience is pretty common: I remember well the events of the last year or so, but I forget about those events that aren't so recent. Calling them to mind has been a fun, enlightening, and uplifting opportunity to reflect on how the Lord has been at work in my life for these years. If you haven't had the chance to reflect in a similar way, I'd recommend it. It can help to strengthen your faith and realize just how much the Lord shows you love, including in ways that you don't recall!

A Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
