"On the Q/T..."

From the devotional, God Calling, the meditation of June 20: "Wait to hear my will and then obey. At all costs obey. Do not fear. I am a wall of protection around you. See this. To see this with the eyes of faith is to cause it to manifest in the material."

On to the question from Fr. Tony:

I think most people have at least heard about parents telling their children not to let the door slam as they run outside, their children saying "OK!," or "Yes!," Mom or Dad: at the exact time they're letting the door slam! Wait. Listen. Obey: seems so easy. But I'll bet God hears His children letting the door slam constantly, even as we claim we're waiting...listening...obeying.

So, how about this question: When have I not waited and am now dealing with the messy consequences...not listened because of something or someone I wanted my way...not obeyed because it would have been too hard to face what I know deep down I should have done – not done – when standing in the face of God?

So very important to keep it simple: Wait. Listen. Obey. How can I get better at that?

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY! May God bless our dads and our grandpas on this day of recognition, Father's Day. Both for them and for their families, may the day be an occasion for deepening the bond holding fathers and their children together in love and in the following of Jesus Christ.

THE OLD GUY IS NOW THE NEW GUY Since 2009, before my mom and my brother died and Father Szydlik had to assume the responsibility of guiding us, so much has changed in the Church, and in local parish and school life. I have a ton of catching up to do! I ask your patience, your understanding that there will be mistakes, and your prayerful support. In the tradition of Monsignor Paul Showalter, Monsignor Greg Ketcham, and Father Luke Spannagel, we take this time to acknowledge the tremendous accomplishments and fruitful priestly ministry of Fr. Thomas Szydlik: our thanks to God for his indispensable contribution to the life and progress of our churches and our school. You'll notice a slight weekly Mass change, but no changes for weekend Masses. Needless to say, first on the list are the meetings I need to have immediately with our trustees, and with our parishioners. Hey – Hang in there! That's what I'll be doing for a while, and I could use the company! – Fr. T.

PARISH MEETINGS Both Fr. Szydlik and I are aware of questions, concerns, and outright worries about our churches and school because of the presence of only one priest here. We have them, too! But it's best to have an opportunity to voice them, face them, and get them out of the way so that we can move on to what the Lord is calling us to be, now. Therefore, I have arranged the following parish meetings to take place through the last week of June.

Here's how the lineup looks:

Saturday, June 25, SMH, after the 5:30 Mass

Sunday, June 26, SHDC, after the Noon Mass

Monday, June 27, SHW, at 6:30 p.m., after the 5:30 Mass

Tuesday, June 28, ICC, 6:30 p.m.

Wednesday, June 29, SSPP, 6:30 p.m.

These meetings are entirely optional, and whatever meeting(s) you want to make, that's exactly where you belong! Let's hear what you're thinking and wondering about.

THANK YOU to all who attended the Farewell Party for Fr. Szydlik on 6/12!!! Special thanks to the Altar and Rosary/Women's Clubs and K of C groups who provided all the food and supplies. A HUGE thank you goes to those who helped serve and clean up! WELL DONE EVERYONE!!!

Fr. Szydlik's New Address

For those who might be interested in keeping in touch, here's Fr. Szydlik's new address:

St. Paul Catholic Church

1303 N. Walnut St.

Danville, IL 61832

Don't forget, SSPP Catholic Women's Club event is on Monday, June 20, 2022 at 6:30 p.m. at the NEW K of C Hall in Nauvoo. Hope to see you there!

Mary Ann Weakley, author of her newest book, Faith Unshaken, will be signing books at the Nauvoo Library on July 6 at 1 p.m. Formally a Nauvoo Benedictine, Sister Mary Magdalen taught 1st and 2nd grade at Sts. Peter and Paul in 1955-56.
