"On the Q/T..."

From the book, A Simple Path, on Saint Teresa of Calcutta, by Lunicda Varney: "I can tell you about my path," said Mother Teresa, "But I'm only a little wire - God is the power. Talk to others, the sisters and the brothers and the people who work with them. You will know what it is when you see it. It is very beautiful."

On to the question from Fr. Tony:

You will know what it is when you see it: what's the "it"? What is Saint Teresa talking about? She's talking about her simple path, winding its way through her presence with the poorest of the poor: calls it "beautiful." She's right, and perhaps you've found out the same thing – at least you're on your way to finding out.

So, how about this question: Have I tired myself out enough that I've begun to look for the "it" Saint Teresa's talking about? A Simple Path? Of course, before looking for that path, there should be some idea of where it's going to wind up. Let's say your destination is contentment in your life, because you've found out how God is carving out His place in it. Remember: can't break any commandments, or fudge on any other divine laws; after all, there are boundaries. A saint says it's beautiful when you see it. Have you ever pinpointed what it is you're actually looking for?

Tuesday, June 28, ICC, 6:30 p.m.

Wednesday, June 29, SSPP, 6:30 p.m.

WEEKDAY MASS SCHEDULE CHANGE: Please remember the oh so slight change in the weekly Masses. Nauvoo has Masses on Monday and Friday morning – no longer on Wednesday morning. Carthage has Mass on Tuesday morning – no longer on Thursday morning. Dallas City has the Wednesday evening Mass; Hamilton, the Tuesday evening Mass; and Warsaw, the Monday evening Mass. Wait....Why didn't I just go from Monday to Wednesday, instead of from Wednesday to Monday? Doing a lot of things backwards right now!

WHEN ARE WE GOING TO HAVE??????? Servers...Lectors...Gift bearers...Ushers...the latest word on church improvement projects...Fr. Tony's own Facebook page...Fr. Tony's first callout...a different view of things for Rosary and Divine Mercy on Facebook...anything else????? Huh? When? Please keep in mind that we're moving through a transition during which a number of things are unresolved. While there is no need for panic, there is a need for patience. We're working on it – all of it. The first phase of absolute "musts" should be accomplished by the end of July. Next target date is December. Thank you for your questions and concerns – keeps me on my toes. I like that!

PASTORAL CARE VISITS People I have been seeing on a regular basis between November and late April are painfully aware that I've dropped off a bit with visitation and the celebration of the sacraments. The deacons and I are currently working on a schedule that will bring back extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion. And the priest intends to visit – a few a week – to ensure that he's a part of the plan, with Confession, Anointing, and Communion. Do not be shy about contacting us if you sense that someone is being neglected or forgotten – and for emergencies, don't worry about what time it is. Let me know! – Fr. T.

SACRAMENTS ARE COMING!!! Parents of children who are eligible to receive the Sacraments of 1st Reconciliation/1st Holy Communion or Confirmation should have received preparation packets in the mail. If you believe your child could have received these sacraments during the 2021-22 school year but have not yet received the packet, please contact Barb Drozd at 217-242-2189 or drozdj@msn.com or outreach@hancockcountycatholic.org. Thank you!

Thank you for ALL of your support to God's Portion Day. Our final total is $128,538.62. We appreciate each and every one of you! SPPS would not be successful without the continued generosity you all give year after year.

Job Opening – Operations Coordinator, Hancock County Catholic Churches The Hancock County Catholic Churches announce a job opening for an Operations Coordinator to work closely with the parish and school leadership in a behind the scenes administrative capacity. A Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
