"On The Q/T..."

From the devotional, God Calling, the entry for June 27: "You must not feel the burden of your failure. A rigid doing of the simple duties and success will crown your efforts. I had no words of reproach for any I healed. The man was whole and free who had wrecked his physical being by sin; the woman at the well...; the woman taken in adultery...: (none were) told to bear the burden of the consciousness of their sins."

On to the question from Fr. Tony:

We used to call them "Chinese handcuffs." I don't know what they call them now. I am referring to that long tube-like contraption of woven strands of paper, into which you put a finger on your left hand into one side, and a finger on your right hand into the other side, and when you pull from both sides that tube wraps itself more and more tightly around your fingers and you can't get out. The escape comes with pushing the fingers toward each other, then releasing one at a time. Guilt - especially guilt you're trying to avoid - is exactly that type of entrapment. Can't yank yourself out of it; instead, relax, move toward it, face squarely your responsibility. Then comes the release.

So how about this question: What's keeping me from doing the simple things that keep my faith in Jesus alive? I know what they are - have to, to avoid them as skillfully as I do. What am I pulling against, and getting more immobile, more entrapped? How can I relax, face what I've put in the way, take responsibility for it - and get a move on to show Christ to others?

The Hancock County Catholic Churches offer their prayers and congratulations to our newly baptized! Ciara Robles-Escofie, daughter of Adolfo Robless Carrillo and Alferena Escofie Alegria, was baptized on Saturday, June 11, 2022 at Immaculate Conception Church in Carthage. Welcome to our church family Ciara and God bless you!

HAPPY FOURTH OF JULY "The legalization of termination of pregnancy is none other than the authorization given to an adult, with the approval of an established law, to take the lives of children yet unborn and thus incapable of defending themselves. It is difficult to imagine a more unjust situation...." The quote comes from Saint Pope John Paul II, in his book, Crossing the Threshold of Hope. You heard this, and a bit more, during the sermon for July 2/3. It hasn't sunk into the national consciousness yet: how much the meaning of the Fourth of July depended upon the recent Roe v. Wade related Supreme Court decision. We have demonstrated that within our governing charters, we are able to correct and renew ourselves as a nation. That's a terrific thing to celebrate on this Fourth of July. Opposition, even within the Catholic Church, sees things differently. And so the quest for the upholding of the gift of life continues...in the nation that is "up" for the challenge.

HE CAN COME BACK, YOU KNOW Like we said this past weekend: if you'd like to see whether Fr. Szydluk is available for a baptism, a wedding, or a funeral, we can sure give it a try. So much depends on time and distance: Fr. Tony might have to stand in for anything the prior evening, such as a wake service during visitation or a wedding rehearsal. But if Fr. S. is available, we'll make it work! (His 20th anniversary is coming up in the spring of 2023. I've already told him that if he wants to share the celebration in our direction, we're ready!)

ONLINE GIVING: ANOTHER REMINDER At the doors of our churches, you will find information for Online Giving to assist you in your ongoing support of the work of our churches. We're still at the point that the Online option isn't favored by everyone. But I've heard from many that, once you go that route, you'll wonder why you put off making the change for so long. Your choice...no pressure. But if you want to give it your consideration, the entrances of our churches have the information available for you.

WITH MUCH APPRECIATION Thank you: all of you who attended our parish meetings and voiced your questions, comments, and concerns in the midst of our current transition to one priest for the churches and school of Hancock County. Meetings with our trustees come next...then our finance councils...and we do want to set up a reliable presence in pastoral care as soon as we can. We'll get there...I keep telling myself that...we'll get there...we'll get there....!!! – Fr. T.

SACRAMENTS ARE COMING!!! Parents of children who are eligible to receive the Sacraments of 1st Reconciliation/1st Holy Communion or Confirmation should have received preparation packets in the mail. If you believe your child could have received these sacraments during the 2021-22 school year but have not yet received the packet, please contact Barb Drozdz at 217-242-2189 or drozdzi@msn.com or outreach@hancockcountycatholic.org. Thank you!

Thank you for ALL of your support to God's Portion Day. Our final total is $128,538.62. We appreciate each and every one of you! SPPS would not be successful without the continued generosity you all give year after year.

A Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
