FROM THE RECTOR – Pentecost Sunday

The coming of the Holy Spirit completes the celebration of the glories of the Resurrection and turns us toward the daily living of the Christian life. The Lord ascends to His throne in Heaven in order to send us the Advocate who continues the work of Christ. With the coming of the Holy Spirit we are now clearly drawn into relationship with the Holy Trinity who is revealed to us in all glory and majesty. With the Feast of Pentecost the apostles are armed with strength in order to fulfill the command given to them by Our Lord at His Ascension: Go into the world and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. It is now possible for them to do precisely that for the Holy Spirit enlivens and emboldens them in the success of their apostolic work. It is the Holy Spirit who speaks to the prophets, who overshadows Our Lady and makes Her the mother of God. It is the Spirit who leads the Lord into the desert and is present at His baptism. It is the Spirit who inspires the writers of Sacred Scripture and guarantees the infallibility of the Church through Her bishops and priests. What is clear, then, is the need to become pliable in the hands of the Holy Spirit. All those who have gone before us clearly understood the need to find their confidence and trust in the Spirit and let themselves be led wherever God desires. The Church needs to find Her confidence and strength in the Holy Spirit by remaining faithful and obedient to the commands of God. For our part, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, let us strive to be men and women of fervent prayer through which we become like Her, easily moved by the promptings of the Spirit!

IN GRATITUDE

I want to express my gratitude for all those who have helped with the various receptions and celebrations held here at the Oratory in the last several weeks: the Easter Vigil Barbecue, the Mothers’ Day Breakfast, the receptions for Frs. Keller & Edgar. In additions, a word of thanks for those who continue to assist with the coffee hours after Holy Mass. I am so grateful for the generosity of this community. Please know of my prayers. May God abundantly reward your generosity.

CIVIC HOLIDAYS

Beginning, this Memorial Day (30 May 2022), on civic holidays that fall on Monday, Wednesday or Friday, the Holy Mass will be celebrated at 7:00 am. This particularly will be the case for Memorial Day, 4th of July, and Labor Day.

+++++

DURING THE SUMMER MONTHS

During the summer months there will be several times that daily Mass is cancelled during the week. I will be giving a retreat, visiting family, participating in several conferences and taking some vacation time. If it is possible that a priest is available, then the schedule will remain as usual. There will always be a priest present for Holy Mass on Sundays. I appreciate both the patience and the prayers of the faithful of the Oratory. Know that you are always in my daily prayers.

+++++

CONFIRMATION AND FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

The Oratory is blessed again to celebrate the sacrament of Confirmation and the reception of First Holy Communion. On Saturday, 18 June @ 9:00 am we will celebrate both Confirmation and First Holy Communion. The Rector has received permission from the Archdiocese to be the minister of Confirmation again this year. Included in the permission given by Archbishop Rozanski was the directive to celebrate the sacrament according to the ritual of Paul VI. As is our practice, we will celebrate Confirmation in Latin and then immediately celebrate Holy Mass during which our First Communicants will receive Our Eucharistic Lord. Please pray for the young people preparing to receive these sacraments and for their parents and catechists.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

The External Solemnity of Corpus Christi will be celebrated on Sunday, 19 June 2022. The Oratory is blessed to have a Corpus Christi procession through the streets of Richmond Heights. The procession will begin immediately after the conclusion of the 11:30 am Holy Mass. In addition to our First Communicants, (and other First Communicants who would have made their first communion in a different parish this year), the procession will include a Knights of Columbus Honor Guard, the choir leading us in various hymns and the opportunity during our procession to pray the Rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, and other prayers to assist us in giving fitting glory and praise to our Eucharistic Lord. All parishioners are encouraged to attend and to invite others to walk with Our Lord.

HOUSELING CLOTH

In keeping with the practice of the Oratory to incorporate more traditional practices, the houseling cloth has been introduced here at the Oratory. From A Sacristan’s Guide to the Traditional Roman Rite: “In some places, it is the custom that at the distribution of Holy Communion, that as well as using the communion place, that large cloth is held below the mouths of the communicants. This is found in the Roman Missal of 1920. This cloth is to be of white line. In most places, this has been replaced by a long cloth that is laid on the communion rails.” Since the communion rail is an extension of the altar for the lay faithful this cloth has come to represent the corporal used on the altar for Our Lord’s Sacred Body. The manner of use of the cloth varies, but it is appropriate to place one’s hands underneath the cloth or place your hands on the cloth itself. Placing elbows on the cloth should be avoided not only for its protection but also to safeguard the reception of Holy Communion by not having hands of front of the mouth during reception. A particular word of gratitude to Michelle Scarfino for bringing this project to completion.

SCHEDULING BAPTISMS

The Oratory is blessed with a growing community that is evident by the increased number of baptisms. Given that the Oratory shares the space with St. Luke the Evangelist along with the other liturgical rites celebrated by the Oratory itself, it is prudent to schedule baptisms on the 2nd and 3rd Saturdays of the month beginning at 10 am. There will be Saturdays that no baptisms can be scheduled because of various liturgical events but keeping baptism on these two Saturdays will assist in scheduling for both the parents and the Oratory. Families expecting newborns and anticipating that they will be baptized here at the Oratory, should schedule their baptism at the earliest convenience. This process of scheduling baptisms will go into effect on 1 September 2022.

CARING FOR THE ORATORY CAMPUS

It was brought to the attention of the Oratory from those who work in the school building during the day that they are discovering an excessive amount of trash on the school grounds and parking lot. While we are not the only ones who use that area, I would appreciate everyone’s attentiveness in picking up any trash that might be left behind. I would also ask that cigarette butts and the like be disposed of properly. This exhortation to cleanliness would also extend to Church. Sadly, there have been numerous occasions when dirty diapers, used tissues and other trash have been left in the pews. As our numbers continue to grow, it will be even more important for all of us to collectively maintain our beautiful Church and the grounds of the Oratory. In advance, thank you for your attentiveness in this matter.

ORATORY SIGNS

The signs for the Oratory have been taken down because they have been ravaged by the weather and were falling apart. Please know that conversations are underway as to replacing the current signs as well as something more permanent. If you have any suggestions as to signage for the Oratory, please contact Msgr. Morris (msgrmorris@gmail.com). Rest assured that the lack of signs does not indicate anything about the on-going presence and future of the Oratory.

COFFEE HOUR VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

As requested, we are planning to offer additional coffee hours for both the 8:00 am and 11:30 am Masses beginning in May. With these additional offerings comes the need for assistance. It is clear that as a community we enjoy each other's company after both of these Holy Masses; however, the success of these gatherings will only be sustainable if everyone takes part in set-up and clean-up instead of leaving these responsibilities to only the same few each time. Please consider volunteering to help. The more assistance given, the less frequently people will need to commit to a particular Sunday. Please contact Samantha Podesta at (314) 583-9210 if you would be willing to assist with coffee hour after either Mass, the more help we have, the faster it gets done!
