FROM THE RECTOR – Fourth Sunday after Pentecost

Today's celebration of the Holy Sacrifice exhorts us to have faith and confidence in the Divine Providence of our Savior. There are a great many sources of discouragement in the Church today: immorality among Her bishops and priests; heretical doctrines taught in the name of Christ; families devastated by divorce, sexual immorality and licentiousness; empty convents, churches and seminaries. This list, which is not exhaustive, serves not to discourage us but rather to inspire us to live even more heroically the call to holiness and the seeking of virtue. We are only successful if we willingly and joyfully trust in the Lord. This trust must be especially vigilant precisely in times of struggles, temptation, and sacrifice. There will always be crosses that we are asked to bear and struggles we are called to endure; however, through and with the grace of God which becomes firmer in us if we trust in Him, we are able to triumph and share in the victory that was won for us on the cross of the Lord. The recent decision by the Supreme Court to overturn Roe v. Wade is a cause for rejoicing in God's guiding hand but also an encouragement for us to continue to work for the eradication of the culture of death in all its forms. So, let us pray for the courage and confidence to trust in the Lord at all times: let us truly leave all things and follow Him!

THE HOUR OF TERCE

The hour of Terce in the Divine Office is assigned to be sung before the principal Mass of the day when that Mass is sung in choir. For the last year or so, the schola has been chanting this Hour of the Divine Office before the principal Mass on Sundays and major feasts in the Saint Joseph's Room. The resumption and frequency of coffee hours and other events made it difficult for others to join the schola for that hour. In the last several months, the Schola began singing Terce in the church approximately 20 minutes before Mass. If you are interested in participating, you can follow along on your smartphone using your browser to go to the divinumofficium.com website. From the rubric's options, choose 'Divino Afflatu' and also choose your translation language of choice in the settings. Then you can find Terce of the day as the schola sings it. Also, there is a smartphone app called 'BrevMeum' that draws down the Office of the day from that same website. If you get that app and download each week's Offices, you can follow from there as well. You can also print the information and bring it with you if you prefer to leave your phone in the car. Everyone is encouraged to participate in this hour of the Divine Office and allow this ancient prayer to assist you in preparing for Holy Mass.

SCHEDULING BAPTISMS

The Oratory is blessed with a growing community that is evident by the increased number of baptisms. Given that the Oratory shares the space with St. Luke the Evangelist along with the other liturgical rites celebrated by the Oratory itself, it is prudent to schedule baptisms on the 2nd and 3rd Saturdays of the month beginning at 10 am. There will be Saturdays that no baptisms can be scheduled because of various liturgical events but keeping baptism on these two Saturdays will assist in scheduling for both the parents and the Oratory. Families expecting newborns and anticipating that they will be baptized here at the Oratory, should schedule their baptism at the earliest convenience. This process of scheduling baptisms will go into effect on 1 September 2022.

COFFEE HOUR *UPDATE**

For the month of July there will not be Coffee Hours after either of the later Masses. The smaller room off the St. Joseph Room is being remodeled and the space is needed to complete the work.

We are still in need of volunteers for both Coffee Hours. Please consider making a commitment to assist with preparation and clean-up. The more assistance given, the less frequently people will need to commit to a particular Sunday. Please contact Samantha Podesta at (314) 583-9210 if you would be willing to assist with coffee hour after either Mass; the more help we have, the faster it gets done!
