Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ

JUNE 19, 2022

Genesis 14:18-20; 1 Corinthians 11:23-26;
Luke 9:11b-17

Corpus Christi is more than a city in Texas. The words mean “Body of Christ.” Today we celebrate the Mystery of the Holy Eucharist. It is the mystery by which Jesus Christ is truly present under appearances of bread and wine. It is the mystery by which Jesus Christ, under these forms, renews the offering of himself to our heavenly Father. The Mass is a renewal of the sacrifice of Christ on the cross, and of his entire saving life. The Eucharist is also the mystery by which the Lord Jesus Christ comes to us under appearances of bread and wine to be nourishment for our spiritual life.

Our first reading is the conclusion of a very strange story in Genesis. Abraham and his coalition had just defeated another coalition of tribes. Melchizedek is a pagan priest from Salem (or Jerusalem – still a pagan city). Melchizedek blessed Abraham by his gods. Abraham replied that he owed his allegiance only to Yahweh, who was God almighty and Creator.

The story, however, is less important than the symbolism. Melchizedek, in later Jewish tradition (Psalm 110) became a “type” or “symbol” of the eternal priesthood. Jewish priests had to be descended from Aaron; they were born and they died. But Melchizedek just “appears” and “disappears.” Thus he symbolized priesthood without beginning or end. This is the priesthood of Jesus Christ, which is shown in the Eucharist.

The second reading is the oldest Biblical account of the institution of the Eucharist. It was written in 58 A.D., but Paul took it from the actually celebrated liturgy! The word “remembrance” (sometimes translated “memory”) actually means memorial sacrifice. The word was used in the Old Testament for sacrifices which called upon God to remember his mercies. (It is not our remembering, but God’s remembering!)

The most important memorial sacrifice of the Jews was Passover. The Eucharist is our Christian Passover by which God remembers to deliver us and to save us and to show us mercy. The word proclaim means to bring to the present and make effective and actual. As often as we celebrate the Eucharist, we bring to the present and make effective the salvation of Christ. Covenant means that we have a bargain to keep. Our part of the bargain is to do all that Christ wants of us, to live as he wants us to live.

The Gospel helps us to accept this Mystery. If Jesus could multiply loaves and fishes to feed 5,000 people, then he has the power to change bread and wine into his Body and Blood. He also has the power to be present under these forms in every Mass throughout the world.

Let us renew our appreciation of the Mystery of the Holy Eucharist.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

This weekend is Corpus Christi, which translates to Body of Christ, but is when we celebrate the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ. It is when we celebrate what we call the real presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. Jesus promised us that He would be with us until the end of time, and in the tabernacles of the world He is with us always.

This passage from Genesis today is where we get the idea of tithing. Why would tithing and the Eucharist be connected? God gives us everything, and we are called to sacrifice the first and best of what He gives us. To give the first and the best means that you must trust that there is more to come. It calls us to see that everything He gives us is total gift and not ours as possession, but ours as stewards of what He gives us. In that call to stewardship, we respond to the abundance and immensity of gifts that God does give us. The greatest of these gifts is the Eucharist, the gift of God's very own self to feed us and nourish us and unite us. The Eucharist is prefigured here in the offer of the bread and wine by Melchizedek, the priest and king of Salem (Jerusalem). He is offering this sacrifice of bread and wine, in the same place the priests in the temple offered that sacrifice, in the same place that Jesus Christ the eternal high priest, in the line of Melchizedek, offered that sacrifice of bread and wine at the last supper as His body and blood that He pours out during the crucifixion, all in the same place, on the mountain of the Lord in Jerusalem. This prefiguration is profound and rich and is on the monstrance our Church uses for adoration, and that we will use for the procession this Corpus Christi.

This Gospel about the feeding of the multitudes is a prefiguration as well and a model for the Eucharist. We offer the Lord what little we have, but no matter what meager gift we give the Lord, the immensity of what He can do with an honest and true sacrificial gift of all we have and are, is profound. We are called to give that ten percent before we pay any bills or do anything else with it, to respond to the generosity of the Lord. So many people give nothing every Sunday. If everyone gave SOMETHING, ANYTHING, then we could feed so many more, educate so many more, and evangelize so many more, but we can't until every family sitting in these pews begins to respond to the generosity of the Lord. People think we have immense loads of cash and don't need them to respond. First off, this isn't true. But most importantly you're missing the entire point. We don't give to a need; we have a need to give as a response to all that God gives to us. The Church feeds and houses and cares for and treats in hospitals and helps the widow and the orphan more than every other institution in the world combined. We are able to do this with the very little that most people give. The average Catholic gives LESS than 1% of their income, when the Lord calls us in Scripture to give 10%. If everyone even gave 1% or 2%, the immensity of work we could do is unfathomable. If we actually tithed as the Lord calls us, we could truly change the world.

If we responded with not only our tithing, but our prayers, our time, and our entire self in gift to the Lord, we would have everything we need to do the work that God calls us to do in this world. So today challenge yourself. Try doubling your gift and see the abundance of the Lord. Try doing an activity in the Church you never have participated in, and see that abundance of the Lord. Try giving of a talent you have that you never have shown in Church or for the Church community, and see the abundance of the Lord. This Corpus Christi Sunday we celebrate the abundance of the Lord in the immensity of HIS gift to us, which is everything, but the greatest of these gifts is the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ. His complete gift of self to you, the Eucharist. Receive, believe, and respond!

INSPIRING FAITH, KNOWLEDGE & SERVICE

Introducing Mrs. Julie Radel...

Hello, I am Mrs. Julie Radel. Beginning August 1, I will be the Principal of St. Francis Solanus School. I have been a first or second grade teacher at St. Francis Solanus School for five years, but was in public school education for over 25 years. I have also had experience as a coordinator for grant funded preschool programs and as a parent educator for a school district. I live in Quincy with my husband Ted, who works for ADM. Our son, Joseph, will be a sophomore at QND and is a member of Scout Troop 22. We have been parishioners of St. Peter Parish for many years. The theme I have chosen for the 2022-2023 school year is from Psalm 133.1: "How good and pleasant it is when God's people live together in unity." One of my goals is for all of the people with ties to St. Francis Solanus School to work together for the benefit of our students.
