Elijah was the greatest of the Old Testament prophets. His stories are found in 1 Kings 17-22 and 2 Kings 1-3. When he was about to leave this world, Elijah called Elisha to be his successor.

Elijah expected Elisha to follow him promptly. Apparently, Elisha wants to wind up his business affairs first. As a sign that he would leave his old way of life, Elisha burns the plow he had been using, and offers the oxen in sacrifice.

St. Paul was very angry when he wrote the Letter to the Galatians. The Galatian people were returning to the practices of Judaism. They seemed to think that they were saved by keeping the Law of Moses instead of by faith in Christ Jesus. Paul tells them not to return to the “yoke of slavery.” Christ has freed them (and us) from the Torah.

But freedom doesn’t mean we can do as we please. We must always seek to please God in a spirit of joy and thanksgiving. By “flesh” Paul means “the natural person who is subject to the effects of original sin.” By “spirit” Paul means “the person considered as filled with the grace of Christ.” In this sense, the “flesh” is against the “spirit.” Let us live by the spirit.

St. Luke makes a great drama of Jesus’ journey up to Jerusalem for his “Exodus” or his return to his Father. Today, we begin that journey. Several people want to follow Jesus on his journey. But they all seem to want to take care of worldly affairs first.

Jesus asks for prompt and loyal service. This world will take care of itself, if only we are loyal to him. Let us pray that we shall always put God in first place in our lives. If we serve him promptly, loyally, and generously, he will take care of everything else in our lives.

From Father David

With this farewell today, I thank you, my dear St. Francis Solanus Family, for two wonderful years! (While I hope many of you can attend the June 26 Noon reception so I can say goodbye in-person, I pray this bulletin notice reaches the rest of you.)

I feel I hit the Irish Sweepstakes by being sent here for my first assignment, where I learned so much about priesthood, and always felt your kind regard.

We have weathered a lot together in our brief time—including the transition from Franciscan leadership, to the changes brought by COVID. (I remember those early days of trying to learn names in such a big parish, with so many folks in masks, and how some of the ladies would then change their hair-color and hairstyles! Hehehe. Even now I don't have all the names, but I remember the kindness and the smiling faces!) I will carry with me to my new assignment many treasured memories of this amazing parish.

I especially loved our liturgies, including the kids' Masses, and getting to know our wonderful school leadership and dedicated teachers, our excellent parish staff, and my brother priests and holy deacons, including the dear Franciscans nearby. (A special nod of thanks to Fr. Arisman for his help along the way.)

My new address will be St. Elizabeth Rectory, 207 East Walnut, Robinson, Illinois 62454. I would love to hear from you with family news, and to stay in touch to the extent we are able. (I regret my new digs are rather far—four hours!—but we are always together in prayer, especially the Eucharist.)

May God bless you all, and may He keep you in His loving care. Please, please, pray for me and my new assignment, and know of my humble prayers for you.

Fr. David
