Sixth Sunday of Easter

MAY 22, 2022

Acts 15:1-2,22-29; Revelation 21:10-14,22-23;
John 14:23-29

Jesus Christ did not leave us orphans when he ascended into heaven. He promised the Holy Spirit who would guide the Church and confirm her in the truth. Our Gospel tells of his promise of the Spirit: The Spirit would call to mind everything that Jesus had taught; he would instruct the Church in everything. He also told us that anyone who loved him would be true to his word.

We know the word of Jesus through the Church, which is protected from teaching error by the power of the Holy Spirit. Jesus did not solve all problems or give his instructions in minute detail. Nevertheless, everything that is taught by the Church throughout the centuries comes integrally from the “deposit of faith” which Jesus imparted to the Spirit.

Jesus did not solve the question of the relationship of Jews and Gentiles in the Church. Did a person need to become a Jew before being a Christian? Were the non-Jews even invited to share salvation? Did Jewish Christians still need to follow the Law of Moses? These and many other questions were solved by the Church some years after Jesus had ascended to heaven. They were solved by the Church guided by the Holy Spirit.

Today’s first reading tells us of the council of apostles at Jerusalem who determined that Gentile converts do not need to practice the Law of Moses. The Church is still developing and growing and understanding the teaching of Jesus more perfectly.

The Spirit gives the Church the charism of infallibility. The Church cannot teach error on matters of faith and morals. The chief agencies of this infallibility are the pope when he speaks “ex cathedra” at an Ecumenical or General Council.

Even though we do not see Jesus with eyes of body, we are confident that he guides the Church through the power of the Holy Spirit. He is with us. Let us be faithful to him and to his teaching.

Pentecost Sunday

This weekend is Pentecost, the gifting of the Holy Spirit. We so often think about a relationship with the Father or the Son, but so often we don't consider the relationship we are called to have with the Spirit. The Holy Spirit is a person that one can be in relationship with. A relationship with the Holy Spirit is immensely life changing. I think we just don't consider it or don't know how to begin. The Holy Spirit is what transforms and changes you and me in baptism and bread and wine in the Mass. The Holy Spirit can move and shape and form and reform and make us new. The power of the Holy Spirit is immense. Just think of the concept of being "inspired" to do something. That "inspiration" means an indwelling of the Spirit. We are given creativity and life and new life through the power of the Spirit. Think about the apostles. They are hiding in fear in the Upper Room and Jesus breathes on them and gives them the gift of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit floods in like a rushing wind when they are hiding for fear in the Upper Room. After the gift of the Holy Spirit, the apostles leave the room in fear and head into the world courageously. What changed that made them no longer afraid, especially of death? The Holy Spirit changed them. They each marched off to a martyr's death courageously by the power of the Spirit, except John who died a natural death at an old age, but not without trying. They attempted to martyr John multiple times and never could succeed. The Holy Spirit truly is a remarkable gift of transformation. The Holy Spirit comes to us in the sacraments and dwells in us, especially in baptism and confirmation and holy orders. Those indelible (everlasting) marks come through the indwelling and the power and transformation by the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit comes to us in prayer and sacraments. The Holy Spirit is the friend for the journey! He is the advocate that gives us the words to say to preach Christ to the world boldly and courageously. Allow yourself to come into relationship with the person of the Trinity, the Holy Spirit. It will truly change your life!

This week we will not have daily Masses at all. With the three of us going on retreat with the priests of the diocese and no one being available to cover Masses, we will not have daily Masses. The originally scheduled Mass Intentions will be rescheduled. I know that this is hard, but with fewer priests the realization of not having people to cover is very real. Pray for more priests. I am sorry for this inconvenience. If plans change and I find a priest, I will let you know in the announcements of Mass, the parish Facebook page, the website, but most of all through a blast announcement on the parish app. Please download that app ASAP if you haven't as it is a great way to communicate last minute changes and information quickly. The deacons will lead communion services M-F at 6:30 a.m., but nothing at 5:30 p.m. Know we will be praying for you, and please pray for all of us on retreat. One last piece of amazing news... We have a new principal. This week we hired one of our very own teachers, from first grade to the position of principal, Mrs. Julie Radel. Mrs. Radel comes with a great deal of experience and passion and great ideas! She will be an amazing asset to St. Francis School and our children. Thank you to the interview committee for their time and input. I am very excited for her yes to the Spirit who moved in her to accept the challenge of leading us forward! Led by the Holy Spirit we will move forward together where the Spirit leads us through the yes of Mrs. Radel. Pray for her as she steps into this most important position!
How exciting!

Parish Picnic—June 11 • 5 to Midnight

Volunteers are desperately needed to make this year's picnic a success! Please visit stfrancissolanus.com/volunteer to sign up or contact a chairperson for more information.

Purchased raffle tickets, baskets, and donations can be turned into the Parish Office or given to a chairperson. Raffle tickets can also be placed in collection baskets at Mass.

Thank you for your support! The picnic is a huge success due to the generosity of our parishioners and friends volunteering their time, energy, and resources.

Pray for nice weather. Get ready to dunk a priest or fellow parishioner in the dunk tank. Bring your family and friends out for dinner and a fun night out.
