Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

JUNE 12, 2022

Proverbs 8:22-31; Romans 5:1-5;

John 16:12-15

From all eternity, there is only one God. From all eternity, there are Three Persons in this one God: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. As far as their attributes, whatever can be said of the Father, can also be said of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

The Father is eternal, almighty, infinite in perfection; so also is the Son; so also is the Holy Spirit. But there are not three “almighties” or three “eternals,” but only one almighty, eternal God infinite in perfection. The Father is not the Son is not the Holy Spirit. They are distinct Persons who share and completely possess the one nature of God.

From all eternity, the Father begets the Son; from all eternity, the Son is born of the Father. From all eternity, the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father and the Son. (The Oriental Churches express this as “from the Father through the Son.”)

In time, about 7 B.C., only the Son became incarnate: The Word was made flesh. The Second Person of the Trinity became fully man without ceasing to be God. Jesus Christ is equal to the Father in his divinity, but less than the Father in his humanity: But he is One Person, ever to be adored in his majesty.

All of this is very heady theology! In fact, absolutely nothing is known of the Trinity in the Old Testament. Only Jesus reveals to us this central mystery of our faith. He revealed it as the practical basis of our spiritual life.

The Father loves us with an everlasting love; yet, in the Old Testament, he seems clouded in unapproachable light. We can scarcely visualize him as a Person. He seems so far above us.

The Eternal Son of God became man to show us the Father. When we see Jesus, we see the love of the Father. He is one of us. He is our access to the Father, our Mediator, our Savior. He assures us of the Father's forgiveness. He is the model of what God intended us to be. He gave his life for us. In him, we can have confidence in approaching the Father.

But we no longer see Jesus; he has returned to the glory of the Father. He has not left us orphans, however. He has sent the Holy Spirit, the “Paraclete.” “Paraclete” means “one who stands by.” He stands by us as our advocate, as our defense attorney against all the trials of this earth. He stands by us to comfort us and strengthen us. He stands by us to make us one in Christ Jesus. He manifests the Son to us, just as the Son manifested the Father.

In the Holy Spirit, we are joined with Mary and all the saints in Christ. Our spiritual life, then, must be rooted in the mystery of the Trinity. We give glory TO the Father, THROUGH the Son, IN the Holy Spirit, WITH the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints! Let us live and pray as we profess to believe.

The Most Holy Trinity Solemnity, June 12, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

It is rather interesting that we have returned to what is called “Ordinary Time” in our liturgical year, yet the Sundays after Pentecost we celebrate several Solemnities. This particular weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. According to the catechism of the Catholic Church, “the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the mystery of God Himself. It is therefore the source of all the other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightens them. It is the most fundamental and essential teaching in the ‘hierarchy of the truths of faith.’ The whole history of salvation is identical with the history of the way and the means by which the one true God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, reveals Himself to men and reconciles and unites with Himself those who turn away from sin.”

We believe that there is one God in Three Persons, co-equal in majesty. The Father is eternal, almighty, infinite; so also is the Son; so also is the Holy Spirit. Yet there are not three almighties or three eternal or three infinities, but only one almighty, eternal, infinite God. But the Father is not the Son and is not the Holy Spirit. From all eternity the Father begets the Son; from all eternity, the Father and the Son produce the Holy Spirit; from all eternity, the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father. Such is the mystery of our God as professed in the Nicene Creed.

I also ask your prayers for two special retreats taking place during the month of June. The first is TEC 333 which will be June 11-13. Please pray for the team and our young people as they encounter Christ in a special way. Second, I ask your prayers for Cursillo 353 which will be held from June 23-26. Jim Citro, a parishioner, will be the Rector and I will be the Spiritual Director. Please remember us in your prayers.

As I mentioned before in a previous column, I am hoping and praying that we can make some capital improvements around here at St. Peter School. What I proposed and will hopefully pursue is building a new cafeteria that will be connected to our Grade School, thus preventing our students from leaving the security of the school to eat in a cafeteria below the church. In our day and age, we need more security than ever before with all the madness that seems to be taking place in our society. And hopefully, part of the structure will involve new classrooms in a space above the new cafeteria. My long term goal would also consider a new gymnasium to accommodate all the various athletic activities in which our young people engage, without having the space to compete. Both of these improvements would free up much space for funeral dinners and parish gatherings.

As we prepare to welcome our newly ordained priest to our parish on the 1st of July, there was a podcast created by the diocesan office for communications on the story of our two newly ordained priests. This podcast was created for our parishioners “to get to know” Fr. Zach Samples and his story. The YouTube link is the following: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zJtLJ34Bh0c>, or on the web: www.dio.org/podcast. Or as it says, you can search “Dive Deep” on all the major podcast platforms.

WELCOME JEANNE THOMAS - Kindergarten Teacher Aide

We welcome Mrs. Jeanne Thomas to the St. Peter School staff as a paraeducator. She will be working with our new Kindergarten teacher, Miss Emily Cintron (Riese). Mrs. Thomas is originally from Quincy and has been married to her wonderful husband for 52 years.

They have three grown children, a beautiful daughter-in-law, and two Maltese dogs. Mrs. Thomas worked as a nurse for 48 years and has been retired until God called her to serve again. "In God's sight one of the best ways to worship Him is to educate His children." She enjoys going on cruises, reading, and collecting baskets. She loves children and is looking forward to watching them grow and succeed while being an extra set of eyes, ears, and hands for their teacher. Jeanne is excited about meeting and supporting the faculty, students, and parents, while being a part of the school family. She is grateful for this opportunity.

THIS WEEK Summer Hours

The School Office will be open on Wednesdays from 9:00-3:00. Please check the bulletin weekly for exceptions and updates.

We have great news! We have hired a Daycare Director for our before and after school program! Maddie Ippensen will be joining our staff for the coming school year.

Job Openings

Part-Time Para Educator - Teacher Aide Opening.

St. Peter School is hiring Para Educator/Teacher Aides. Duties include working with children and assisting the teachers and students. Applicants must have experience in working with small children. If you are interested or know of someone who may be interested, send a resume along with 2-3 letters of recommendation to Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh at 2500 Maine Street, Quincy, IL 62301 or c.venvertloh@cospq.org.

Job Opening: St. Francis Solanus School, Quincy, Illinois, is seeking a preschool teacher for our three and four year old classes. The candidate must hold an Illinois Professional Educator License, preferably in early childhood education, but elementary education may be accepted. The teacher candidate must support Catholic teachings and beliefs in the classroom. This person must be committed to the development of young children's cognitive, social-emotional, and motor skills in a play-based environment. This is a full-time position. Please send a resume and letter of application to jradel@stfrancissolanus.com.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

I invite you to join us for Mini Golf Date Night at upper Moorman Park next Thursday, June 16, from 6:30-8:30 p.m. This night is sponsored by the St. Peter Relationship Enrichment Team. Please see the bulletin for more details.

In our bulletins this week, I want to congratulate all of our college graduates whose families submitted their names for acknowledgement. We take much pride in their achievements and recognize their success. Congratulations to all of you.

If you have not donated to our Catholic Cemeteries collection, I ask you to do so as soon as possible. With this collection, our parishes help to improve the sacred burial places that we have in our three Catholic cemeteries.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A man and his wife walked into a dentist office. The man said to the dentist, "Doc, I'm in one heck of a hurry. I have two buddies sitting out in my car waiting for us to play golf, so forget about the anesthetic, I don't have time for the gums to get numb. I just want you to pull the tooth and be done with it. We have a 10:00 a.m. tee time at the best golf course in town and it's already 9:30 a.m. I don't have time to wait for the anesthetic to work!"

The dentist thought to himself, "My goodness, this is surely a very brave man asking to have his tooth pulled without using anything to kill the pain." So the dentist asks him, "Which tooth is it, sir?"

The man turned to his wife and said, "Open your mouth, honey, and show him."

Sr. Ann Scholz - Celebrating 50 Years in Religious Life. First Profession - June 11, 1972

We congratulate Sr. Ann Scholz, SSND, who celebrates her 50th Jubilee. After attending St. Peter School where she received her First Holy Communion and was confirmed, she graduated from Notre Dame High School in 1969. In 1972 Sister Ann professed first vows in St. Louis. In 1973 she received a bachelor's degree in history from the former Notre Dame College, St. Louis. During the early years of her ministry, Sister Ann taught at Notre Dame High School, Burlington, Iowa; Helias High School, Jefferson City, Missouri; and Notre Dame High School, St. Louis. In 1983 she began her studies at American University, Washington, D.C., receiving a master's degree in international education in 1984 and a doctorate in international education in 1991. From 1991 to 2002 she was an associate professor and director of study abroad at the College of Notre Dame of Maryland (now Notre Dame of Maryland University), Baltimore, and from 2002 to 2011 was the School Sisters of Notre Dame representative to the United Nations' Department of Public Information and the Economic and Social Council, New York. Since 2011 Sister Ann has been the associate director for social mission at the Leadership Conference of Women Religious, Silver Spring, Maryland.

"My life as an SSND has been filled with blessings and adventures. Those opportunities opened my heart to a world longing for communion and hungry for justice, and blessed me with a community called to build God's beloved community."

Ann is the eldest of Charles and Nancy Scholz's seven children. She has 15 nieces and nephews, and 14 grand nieces and nephews. Her family is extremely proud of Ann's service to the Church, the needy, and the least.
