Sixth Sunday of Easter

MAY 22, 2022

Acts 15:1-2,22-29; Revelation 21:10-14,22-23;
John 14:23-29

Jesus Christ did not leave us orphans when he ascended into heaven. He promised the Holy Spirit who would guide the Church and confirm her in the truth. Our Gospel tells of his promise of the Spirit: The Spirit would call to mind everything that Jesus had taught; he would instruct the Church in everything. He also told us that anyone who loved him would be true to his word.

We know the word of Jesus through the Church, which is protected from teaching error by the power of the Holy Spirit. Jesus did not solve all problems or give his instructions in minute detail. Nevertheless, everything that is taught by the Church throughout the centuries comes integrally from the “deposit of faith” which Jesus imparted to the Spirit.

Jesus did not solve the question of the relationship of Jews and Gentiles in the Church. Did a person need to become a Jew before being a Christian? Were the non-Jews even invited to share salvation? Did Jewish Christians still need to follow the Law of Moses? These and many other questions were solved by the Church some years after Jesus had ascended to heaven. They were solved by the Church guided by the Holy Spirit.

Today’s first reading tells us of the council of apostles at Jerusalem who determined that Gentile converts do not need to practice the Law of Moses. The Church is still developing and growing and understanding the teaching of Jesus more perfectly.

The Spirit gives the Church the charism of infallibility. The Church cannot teach error on matters of faith and morals. The chief agencies of this infallibility are the pope when he speaks “ex cathedra” at an Ecumenical or General Council.

Even though we do not see Jesus with eyes of body, we are confident that he guides the Church through the power of the Holy Spirit. He is with us. Let us be faithful to him and to his teaching.

Pentecost Sunday, June 5, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Pentecost, thus bringing our Easter season to a close. The Easter candle is lit at all our Masses today and then will take its rightful place near the baptismal font, where it will be displayed with honor and used during the baptismal rites for our children, as well as placed in the middle aisle for our funeral Masses. As we bring our Easter season to a close, the Church will begin to celebrate the return to what is called “Ordinary Time.” In celebrating this time, the Church picks up the 10th week for those following the liturgical calendar.

On this Pentecost Sunday, we celebrate the “birthday of the Church.” Jesus has returned to the Father, as our Creed states, and “is seated at the right hand of the Father.” But His departure did not mean that He left us abandoned and alone. He promised the gift of the Holy Spirit, and as our creed states, “the Lord and giver of life.” And that is exactly what the Holy Spirit did for the early Church and continues even today, giving life and breath to this Church that Jesus established. Let’s listen to the description of that first Pentecost experience. “When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.” The Holy Spirit is the “Lord and Giver of Life,” and truly is present in our Church as this Pentecost experience expressed. May that gift continue to lead us ever closer to our God, living and sharing His love now and forever. And so on this Pentecost Sunday, I bid each of you a very Happy Birthday as we celebrate who we are as the Church Jesus established.

This Sunday, June 5, to Friday, June 10, I will be with the Bishop and many of the priests of our diocese at the Marianist Retreat Center in Eureka, Missouri, at our annual priest’s retreat. I ask your prayers as I will be away from the parish. Fr. Pawel will have the daily Masses and any funerals in my absence.

Also, for those coming to daily Masses next week, a word of caution for all who use our parking lot. We will be resealing and repairing our parking lots beginning this Monday, June 6, and hopefully being finished by Friday, June 10. You might have to be prepared to either park on the street or in some part of the parking lot that might be available. Please use caution as we make this much needed repair.

Last weekend, I had the privilege of attending the ordination and first Mass for Fr. Zach Samples, our newly ordained priest who will be serving his first assignment with us here at St. Peter. On the one hand, it was a privilege to meet his family and welcome him on behalf of our parish to St. Peter’s. On the other hand, it is always difficult to say goodbye to someone who has served us well for over two years, Fr. Pawel Luczak. But this is a great opportunity for both of these fine young priests, and I ask your prayers as we make this transition in personnel.

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

THANK YOU MRS. LORETTA GOEHL

Mrs. Loretta Goehl has been with St. Peter Daycare for 8 1/2 years. She began as a daycare assistant and moved into the coordinator position. She has been our coordinator for the past three years.

She is thankful for the opportunity to serve St. Peter Parish. She has met and worked with so many awesome people: the students, their parents, the daycare staff, and the school/parish staff.

She states that she will definitely miss the kids. She will miss the smiles, the hugs, the giggles, the stories and playing games with them. Mrs. Goehl has enjoyed watching so many of them grow and change from year to year.

She shared that the first thing she wants to do in her retirement is to sleep in, hopefully till at least 7:00 a.m.! She is looking forward to spending more family time with her husband Tom of 50 years, and her son Tim, his fiancée, and her two grandsons: Zane and Mazen. She is also looking forward to spending more time with her siblings. Mrs. Goehl currently does not have any big plans. She knows she will enjoy life whether it be fishing, gardening, reading a good mystery, or snuggling with her 2-month-old grandson.

CONGRATULATIONS 8th GRADE STUDENTS!!

On May 24 our amazing 8th grade students graduated from St. Peter School. We are so proud of them for their dedication to "Do Your Best and God Will Do the Rest." It has been an honor to be a part of their lives and watch many of them grow from shy little preschool students to self-confident, young adults. This class is an awesome group of young adults that set and accomplished goals, faced challenges, and led our school with grace and determination. We will certainly miss these young men and women and wish the very best for them as they enter their high school years. We ask that you join us in congratulating these amazing young people and keep them in your prayers. Congratulations and our very best wishes: Cate Lynd Aschemann, Ellison Marie Barnes, Sophie Mae Barragree, Isabelle Marie Boudreau, Devin Ryne Bradfield, Benjamin Thomas Brown, Jackson Henry Connoyer, Annabelle Marie Cook, Laura Ann Craig, Rohan Austin Dighe, Beau William Eftink, Abby Lynn Fenton, Lanie Beth Fesler, Kamila Darlene Figueroa, Lillian Marie Foster, Taylor Marie Genenbacher, Nolan Alexander Heck, Brodie Nathaniel Howe, Ian Paul Jones, Lucas Michael Ludwig, Brooklyn Rae Mahsman, Taegan Alexis Martin, Ross Leland McNay, Mia Dawn Pabisiak, Tristan Jayne Pieper, Alice Hart Redington, Annabelle Grace Sedovic, Aiden Jeffrey Tangy, Alena Nicole Thomas, Jenna Marie Tracy, Channing Joseph Trevino, Sullivan Edward Walker, and Bayley Anne Weisenberger.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

Last Monday, Memorial Day, we had our celebration of the Eucharist at Calvary Cemetery. We had a very nice celebration as we remembered all those who gave their lives in the service of our nation as well as all those who are buried in our Catholic cemeteries. The Catholic Cemetery Board does a great job in maintaining and preserving the burial grounds for our deceased. Our two representatives from St. Peter are Mike Lavery and Kent Lepper. For the past ten years, we have been able to make much progress in stabilizing the financial picture of our cemeteries as well as maintaining and improving these sacred grounds. But we continue to ask for your financial assistance as we meet the growing demands of keeping our cemeteries a reflection of a sacred ground for our deceased. Once again, I ask for your generous support for our cemeteries by using the parish envelopes provided for you in your packet of envelopes. Only with your help can we continue to improve this ministry for our deceased.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: Seating guests at a wedding, an usher asked a middle aged woman who entered the church, "Are you a friend of the bride, ma'am?" "Lord, have mercy, no," she replied. "I'm the mother of the groom."

"In the desert, two very different birds thrive. The vultures see nothing but dead stinking carcasses. The hummingbirds seek the lovely blossom of cacti. The vultures live on the dead past. The hummingbirds live on the fragrant present. Each bird finds what it is looking for. So do people."
